MARINERS and others are hereby notified that, owing to the erection of brick red-roofed buildings across the navigation triangles in front of the High Lighthouse, the Eastern daylight demarcation of the 37-ft. channel of the Entrance Fairway, i.e., the Obelisk and Lookout House in line, bearing 035 deg., has now been obscured by the new buildings covering the Lookout House.

Until further provision has been made for restoration of the daylight demarcation of the Eastern navigable limit, mariners should not navigate the entrance eastward of the line of the Low Lighthouse and the Eastern edge of the officers' quarters, bearing 035 deg.
