SUMMARY OF THE RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES CONFERRED UPON HIRERS UNDER HIRE-PURCHASE AGREEMENTS BY THE HIRE-PURCHASE AGREEMENTS ACT 1936.

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 6 of the Hire-Purchase Agreements Act 1936, His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, doth hereby approve of the following Summary of the Rights and Privileges conferred upon hirers under hire-purchase agreements by the said Act (that is to say)—

1. A hirer under a hire-purchase agreement is entitled, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the agreement, whether entered into before or after the 14th December, 1936, to recover from the owner (i.e. the seller of the goods or chattels under the said agreement) when he repossesses the same the total amount paid by the hirer less the difference between the purchase price of the goods or chattels and the value of the same at the date upon which they were repossessed.

This right, however, does not apply where the hirer voluntarily returns the goods or chattels to the owner.

2. The method of ascertaining—
(a) the purchase price; and
(b) the value of the goods or chattels at the date of re-possession;

can be found by reference to sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 3 of the above-mentioned Act.

3. Before proceedings for recovery, which may be taken, where amount does not exceed £50, by way of special complaint in a Court of Petty Sessions or in other cases in any Court of competent jurisdiction, can be commenced, 21 days' notice, in writing, containing certain information must be given by the hirer to the owner. Such information can be ascertained by reference to sub-section (5) of the said section 3 of the above-mentioned Act.

4. Proceedings by the hirer must be taken not earlier than seven days and not later than three months after the giving of such notice.

5. The owner has a right, in certain circumstances, of payment into Court of a lesser sum than is claimed by the hirer and the conditions governing this procedure are contained in sub-sections (6) and (7) of the said section 3.

6. An owner after taking possession of the goods or chattels comprised in a hire-purchase agreement cannot in any circumstances recover from the hirer an amount, which, together with the then value of such goods or chattels and moneys already paid, exceeds the purchase price thereof (see section 4 of the said Act).

7. In certain circumstances a hirer may obtain from the owner the re-delivery of the goods or chattels repossessed by the owner. The circumstances under which this right arises, and the procedure to be followed, are set out in section 5 of the said Act.

8. Unless the hirer consents, an owner is not entitled to sell or dispose of the goods or chattels repossessed by him or part with possession thereof until after the expiration of 21 days from the date of such repossession.

The type in which the notice containing a copy of the aforesaid summary, required by sub-section (2) of the said section 6 of the said Act to be given by the owner to the hirer under a hire-purchase agreement at the time at which the owner enters into such agreement, shall be 8-point type, which is the type in which this Order now appears in the Government Gazette.
