TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE.

(a) Subject to the following an employee engaged in ordinary travelling on duty or on work on which he is unable to return to his home at night shall be paid such personal expenses as he reasonably incurs in travelling, which expenses shall be taken to be at least 7s. 6d. per day.

(b) Where such employee travels by boat or other conveyance in which his ticket includes meals and bed, he shall not be

(c) Where such employee in the by boat of states of the control of the said allowance.

(c) Where the employer of such employee provides or is willing to provide meals and bed the employee shall have the option of receiving 7s. 6d. per day or accepting the meals and bed provided or offered by the employer.

(d) This clause shall not apply to workers in the bush or to those ordinarily and usually employed on lighters, punts, or rafts.

TRAVELLING TIME.

(4) Subject to the following a weekly employee shall, when he is directed or required to work at a place other than his usual place of work, be paid at ordinary rates for all time occupied in travelling to and from the place at which he is so directed or required to work in excess of the time ordinarily occupied in travelling to and from his usual place of work.

(b) Each employee in the bush shall have a fixed starting place which shall be the existing starting place.

(c) New starting places in the bush shall be fixed by agreement between the employer and the union.

(d) When an employee has a fixed starting point in the bush he shall be paid for all time occupied in travelling between the starting point and the work and for all time in excess of half an hour back from the work to the starting point.

(a) An employee engaged for more than half of one day or shift on duties carrying a higher rate than his ordinary classification shall be raid the higher rate for such day or shift. If for half or less than half of one day or shift he shall be paid the higher rate for the time so worked.

for the time so worked.

(b) Where an employee is transferred without seven days' written notice to a grade of work carrying a lower minimum rate of wage than that at which he is usually employed, he shall be paid, during such seven days or any less time so employed, the rate of wage he was receiving for the work usually performed by him.

(c) Where an employee is engaged on higher grade work at his own request for the purpose of learning such work, he shall be paid for the time he is so engaged for a period or periods not exceeding fourteen days in all at his usual rate of pay prior to his being so engaged, and thereafter at the rate prescribed for the higher grade work. The employer shall, within one week of the engagement of an employee under this sub-clause, inform the union by registered letter of such employment and the duration of such employment.

TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT.

All employees except those engaged on piece-work or on casual work shall be employed on a weekly engagement subject to the following term

(1) An employee shall perform such work as the employer shall from time to time require on the usual days and within the prescribed hours, provided that until the seven days' notice of transfer to a lower grade, prescribed by clause 8, sub-clause (b) hereof, expires, such work shall in the case of cities and towns be of or be paid for as of a similar class to that usually performed by such employee.
 (2) Employment during the first week of such engagement shall be from day to day at the weekly rate prescribed, except in the case of a re-engagement within one month after the termination of a previous service of the employee under the employer.

(3) As employes shall be entitled to payment when absent from work consequent upon an accident or ill health (not attributable to his own misconduct) for not more than four days in any year provided that he produces evidence thereof satisfactory to his employer or to such employer's local manager within 48 hours of the commencement of

Provided that where, under any scheme of insurance or an accident relief or provident fund, to secure the benefit of which the employer has paid the necessary premium or under any Workers' Compensation Act, compensation becomes payable for any of such days of absence, the employer shall not be bound to pay more of such wage than is sufficient with such compensation to make up the full pay for any of such days.

This sub-clause shall not apply to workers employed in the bush or at bush sawmills

(4) Subject to the provisions of the two next succeeding sub-clauses a week's notice of the termination of such engagement shall be given to terminate such engagement on the corresponding day of the following week or on any later day thereof and if the employer terminates it without giving such notice he shall pay the employee one week's wages instead

Provided that in the case of work in the bush and at bush mills such notice may be dispensed with by the consent in writing of the employer and employee.

Provided also that if an employee leave his employment otherwise than in pursuance of such week's notice or of such consent in writing or of dismissal by the employer, the employer may retain any money due by virtue of this award to the employee until the time at which it would have become payable if the employee had not so

(5) The employer may dismiss any employee peremptorily without notice for malingering, inefficiency otherwise than through temporary illness, neglect of duty or misconduct, and pay the employee's wages up to the time of such dismissal only. (6) The employer may deduct payment for any day the employee cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by or participation in any strike by the union, by any branch of the union, or by any members or member of the union employed by the employer or because of any strike by or participation in any strike by any other union, branch of any other union or members or member of any other union employed by the employer, or because of any breakdown of machinery, or because of any other stoppage of work for any reasonable cause. The onus of proving reasonableness of the cause shall be on the employers.

reasonateness of the cause shall be on the employers.

(7) In any case where the wage per hour has to be calculated it is to be the weekly wage divided by the weekly number of hours which obtains in the industry.

(8) Employer parties may engage employees in box and case factories and in the making of sporting goods by the hour and shall pay such employees at a rate per hour proportionate to the weekly wage, plus 10 per cent., with a minimum amount in respect of any employment on a day as for the full day.

Provided that in the case of piecework the minimum amount payable shall be as if the employment shall have continued throughout the working hours of the day on which the employment occurs payable at a rate per hour proportionate to such weekly rate, plus 20 per cent.

(10)Hours of Labour.

The standard hours of work in this industry shall be 44 per week:

(a) The maximum ordinary working hours of employees shall be 44 per week throughout the industry, provided that where persons are employed in any other industry such persons' hours of work shall be uniform with those prevailing in such industry.

(b) The daily spread of hours shall be such as may be agreed upon by a majority of the employees and employer concerned in any business and approved of by the State branch of the union. In default of such agreement and approval such hours shall be worked within nine and three-quarter consecutive hours between 7.15 a.m. and 5.30 p.m. standard time on Monday to Friday—one hour or such other time as may be agreed upon being allowed for luncheon between noon and 2 p.m.—and between 7.15 a.m. and 12 noon standard time on Saturday.

(c) Sub-clause (b) hereof shall not apply to feeders, hookmen, log yardmen, log loaders and log haulers, greasers, bush blacksmiths, saultary men, and men employed on barges and rivers.

(d) The hours for shiftmen shall be as prescribed by clause 11 hereof.

(11)SHIFT WORK.

In the event of more than one shift being worked then each shift—other than the day shift—shall be worked in five equal periods during the week (excluding Sunday), at such hours as may be agreed upon between the employer and employees concerned, provided that the total hours worked in any week on shifts, other than the day shift, shall not exceed 90 per cent. of the ordinary weekly hours prescribed for the day shift.

HOLIDAYS.

(1) All employees, except piece-workers, bush workers, and bush sawmill employees, shall be entitled to ten holidays with payment therefor in the manner hereinafter prescribed:—Such holidays shall be New Year's Day, 26th January (Australia Day), Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, 21st April (Labour Day), Anzac Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and (a) within 25 miles of the General Post Office at Melbourne, Melbourne Cup Day; (b) outside the radius mentioned in 12 (1) (a) such extra day as may be arranged between the employer and the union, or in default of such arrangement as may be settled by the Wages Board.

(2) Bush workers and bush sawmill workers, other than piece-workers, grooms, feeders, and watchmen shall have a full week's holiday at Christmas and four days' holiday at Easter, that is to say, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, and Easter Tuesday.

Tuesday.

(3) (i) Except as provided in this sub-clause no deduction shall be made from wages in respect of any of the holidays prescribed in sub-clauses (1) or (2) hereof.

(ii) Subject to observance of the provisions herein set forth for payment to employees in respect of such holidays, the employer may deduct from an employee's wage an amount corresponding with the time which the employee works short because of such holidays.

Such provisions are the following:—

(a) The employer shall for each calendar month of the employment credit in account the employee with one-seventh of the amount of the employer sprescribed weekly rate of wage, except in the case of a groom or feeder or watchman where the amount to be credited shall be one-sixth of the amount of such rate.

(b) On or before the pay-day next preceding a holiday the amount of time that the employee will work short because of the holiday and the amount which will be deducted from his wage in respect of such working short shall be ascertained.

(c) If on such pay-day there is standing to the credit of the employee pursuant to the preceding paragraph (a) an amount equal to or exceeding the amount that will be so deducted from his wage, the employer shall on that day pay him an amount equal to that which will be so deducted and the employee's credit shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

(d) If on such pay-day the amount standing to such credit is less than the amount which will be so deducted, the employer shall on that day pay to the employee the amount then standing to such credit, which credit shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

(e) If on such pay-day there is nothing standing to such credit nothing shall be payable in respect of such holiday.

(f) On the first pay-day after the expiration of each twelve months of service of the employee the amount (if any) then standing to such credit shall be paid to him and such credit shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

(g) On the determination of the employee's service the amount (if any) then standing to such credit shall be paid to him.

- (4) As to employees in the making of sports goods unless the employer concerned notifies the union forthwith that the provisions of sub-clause (3) hereof are to apply to them such provisions shall not so apply and the following provisions shall apply:—
  - (i) Except as otherwise provided herein no deduction of pay shall be made because of the allowance of any of the holidays provided for in this clause.
  - (ii) If an employee without permission from his employer or without reasonable cause absents himself from work on any part of that day which was the ordinary working day nearest previous to the holiday the employer may deduct
  - part of that day which was the ordinary working day nearest previous to the holiday the employer may deduct payment in respect of the holiday.

    (iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Determination, if any employer shall give to any employee a notice of termination of engagement expiring or taking effect as a dismissal within seven days of the date on which any of the said holidays fall or are observed such employer shall pay to the employee so dismissed a day's pay for each such holiday falling or being observed within seven days of the termination of the engagement unless the engagement is determined by reason of the misconduct of the employee.

    Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to any employee who at the date of the expiration of such notice shall not have been employed by the employer concerned for at least 80 per cent. of the ordinary working time of the three consecutive weeks immediately preceding the expiration of such notice.

    Provided further that where any holiday is observed on a non-working day the employee concerned shall not be entitled to payment for such holiday.

    (iv) If an employee does any work on any such holiday sub-clause (c) of clause 13 hereof shall not apply thereto, but the employee in addition to receiving his weekly wage shall be paid for such work at ordinary rates with a minimum payment as for two hours.

payment as for two hours.

(5) Optional Holiday.—On or before the 7th day of December in each year the union shall give the employer written notice of the number and names of his employees who do not intend to work during the working days between Christmas and New Year's Day. In default of such notice the employer may circularize his employees to obtain such information, and the employees intending not to work on such days shall inform the employer on or before the 14th day of December accordingly.

If the number of employees, whether members of the union or not, who inform the employer either by means of the union or otherwise that they do not intend to work on such days exceeds 33 per cent. of all the employers, whether members of the union or not, in the employer's business, then the employer may, if he chooses, close down his business on those days; provided that he gives notice to his employees on or before the 21st day of December that he intends to do so. Where such number of employees is 33 per cent. or under, then the employer shall keep his business open for work to such days. Where the business is kept open for work, the employer may require the employees presenting themselves for work to work in any capacity he may appoint, provided that the employees shall be paid at their ordinary rates for such work as they are called on to do.

If any employee whose name has not been submitted by the union as provided herein, or who has not informed the employer on or before the 14th day of December that he does not intend to work on the days in question; absents himself from work when the business is open for work on such days, then such employee shall be guilty of neglect of duty within sub-clause (5) of clause 9 hereof. An employee not working on the days in question shall receive no pay therefor.

- (6) The employee shall be entitled only to the holidays prescribed herein notwithstanding anything contained in or under any State Act of Parliament creating or proclaiming any other holiday or holidays.
- (7) (i) For the purposes of this clause calendar months shall be reckoned as commencing with the beginning of the first day of the employment or period of employment in question and as ending at the beginning of the day which in the latest month in question has the same date number as that which the commencing day had in its month, and if there be no such day in such subsequent month, shall be reckened as ending at the end of such subsequent month.

  (ii) For the purposes of this clause in the case of employment already existing the day of the coming into operation of this Determination shall be deemed to be the first day of the employment.

OVERTIME.

(a) Subject to the following all time worked outside the spread of hours prescribed in clauses 10 and 11 hereof or in excess of the ordinary daily or shift number of hours prescribed therein or elsewhere shall be paid for as overtime at the rate of time and a half for the first two hours, and double time thereafter. Work performed during the meal hour shall be paid for at double time rates, but where the total hours worked, including such meal time, do not exceed the prescribed number of hours, then such double time but where the total hours worked, including such meal time, do not exceed the prescribed number of hours, then such double time shall be deemed to mean an additional ordinary rate only.

(b) All work performed by a piece-worker before or after ordinary hours of work on the instruction of his employer shall be paid as overtime at the rate of time and a half for the first two hours and of double time thereafter.

(c) Except where it is otherwise prescribed, all time worked by employees on the holidays to which they are entitled under this Determination shall be paid for proportionately, in addition to the indirect payment or to the payment by written agreement for holidays prescribed in clause 12 hereof, at the ordinary rates; and on Sundays shall be paid for at proportionately double rates. Provided that in the case of work done on either a Sunday or holiday payment shall be made for two hours at the least at such double rates.

(d) All work performed by a piece worker on Sundays on the instructions of his employer shall be paid for at the rate of

(a) All work performed by a piece-worker on cumuays on the instructions of his employer shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(c) All time worked by employees on Sundays or holidays prescribed herein in maintaining or effecting repairs or renewals to plant or machinery, including the washout of boilers, which it is necessary to effect to enable work to proceed on the next working day shall be paid for, in the case of Sundays, at the rate of time and a half, and in the case of such holidays at ordinary rates in addition to the indirect pay or to the pay under written agreement for such holidays allowed in clause 12 hereof.

Male adult employees in bush or in bush sawmills shall in addition to the basic wage be paid 2s. per week as the allowance referred to in clause 9 (3) hereof.

Adjustment of Basic Wage.

(b) For work done before the beginning of the first pay period to commence in December, 1938, the amounts of the basic wage prescribed in sub-clause (a) hereof shall be paid.

For work done during each future pay period of or near a quarter beginning with the first pay period to commence in a March, June, September or a December, the amounts of the basic wage shall be adjusted by the following method according to the position and fluctuations (if any) of the Commonwealth Statistician's "All Items" retail price index numbers.

For the purposes of this Award the expression "Commonwealth Statistician's retail price index numbers" or any like expression means the numbers stated to be such index numbers in any document purporting, and not proved to be wrongly so purporting, to be printed by the Commonwealth Government Printer or to be signed by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Statistician.

- (1) Adjustment is to be based upon the equating of index number 1000 with a wage of 81s., the amount assessed upon that number of the Court's declared ordinary basic wage per week.
  - (2) The index number set to be applied to a place is that assigned thereto in sub-clause (a) hereof.
- (3) The index number for the calendar quarter next preceding the period of thirteen weeks for which the adjustment is made is to be ascertained.

- (4) The amount assigned in the following table (or in any extension thereof) to the index number division comprising that number is to be ascertained.
  - (5) The basic wage shall be of that assigned amount during such period of or near a quarter.
