(S) HIGHER DUTIES.

If a musician engaged to do certain work is required to do in lieu thereof other work for which a higher rate is prescribed, he shall be paid for such other work at the higher rate with a minimum payment as for one performance or as for three hours on each occasion on which he is so required.

(3) TIME OF PAYMENT.

(a) In theatres and similar places all moneys payable under this Determination to a weekly or intermittent weekly employee shall be paid not later than the first interval on a Friday in each week, but where it has been customary to pay employees on Saturday, and not on Friday, such moneys shall be paid not later than the first interval on the Saturday night.

(b) If a weekly or intermittent weekly employee's engagement be terminated, all moneys due to him under this Determination shall be paid within 48 hours of the termination.

For such musician—per performance ...

(c) All moneys due under this Determination to a casual employee shall be paid upon the completion of the work for which he is engaged.

(4) NO DEDUCTION FOR MEALS SUPPLIED.

No deduction from any of the payments herein prescribed shall be made for meals supplied by an employer to an employee.

(5) ARRANGING BAND PARTS, ETC.

The payments prescribed by this Determination do not include any sums to be paid to a conductor leader or leader, or any other employee for arranging band parts, or doing any orchestration.

(6) TERMINATION AND OTHER INCIDENTS OF EMPLOYMENT,

(a) Where an employee is not expressly engaged as a casual employee, he shall be deemed to be engaged as a weekly employee or an intermittent weekly employee (as the case may be).

(b) A casual employee may at any time enter into an agreement with his employer to become a weekly employee, but such agreement shall not affect any casual rates payable by the employer to the employee before such agreement is entered into unless it is entered into within three days of the beginning of his employment as a casual employee, in which case he shall be deemed to have been a weekly employee from such beginning.

(c) Where an employee is required by an employer to go on tour he shall be deemed to be in the employment of the employer at least from the time at which he begins to travel on the tour and to remain in such employment at least until he finishes travelling on his return from the tour, unless in the meantime the employment has been determined legally for makingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct.

(d) The weekly wage prescribed by this Determination shall be paid to each weekly employee or intermittent weekly employee who is ready and willing to perform the work provided for by the Determination during any week whether he is required to perform such work or not, and this provision is to apply to all engagements whether for open-air performances or otherwise.

(e) An employee to become entitled to the wage prescribed for a weekly employee or for an intermittent weekly employee is to perform such of the work provided for as the employer shall from time to time require on the days and during the hours usually worked by the class of employee affected.

by the class of employee affected.

(f) A weekly employee or intermittent weekly employee shall be engaged and paid as for at least one week.

(g) The employment of a weekly employee or of an intermittent weekly employee is to be terminated on either side only by a week's notice, either given in writing or plainly posted up on the call board or other place seen by the employees in the ordinary course of their employment, which notice may be given at any time during the week at or before the beginning of work on a day, to expire at the end of the sixth calendar day succeeding such day, or if the sixth day be a Sunday, of the fifth day, and the employee shall only be entitled to payment pro rata for the time up to the expiration of the notice.

(h) Where the period of employment of a weekly employee or of an intermittent weekly employee (as the case may be) includes in addition to one or more complete weeks, a part of a week, the weekly employee shall be paid for each whole or fraction of a calendar day included in the part of a week one-sixth of his prescribed weekly wage, and the intermittent weekly employee shall be paid as a casual employee for any work done by him during such part of a week.

(i) Where an employee is engaged as a weekly employee for any fixed number of performances per week, the engagement shall not be altered to a weekly engagement for which a less sum is prescribed, except on a week's notice to the employee.

(j) Nothing in this Determination shall affect any legal right to dismiss without notice any employee whether on tour or not for malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct, and in the case of such dismissal wages and other moneys or allowances due under this Determination shall be payable for the employment up to but not after the time of dismissal.

(k) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Determination, an employer may in the case of any weekly employee deduct payment of wages on any day on which an employee cannot be usefully employed because of—

(i) Any strike.
(ii) Any breakdown of machinery.
(iii) Any stoppage of work unavoidable by the employer other than a stoppage due to weather.

Provided that this sub-clause shall not affect the operation of clause (11) hereof-

(1) Except so far as circus employees are expressly referred to in this Determination their working conditions of employment shall be those now existing in respect of musicians employed in circuses.

(7) DURATION, ETC., OF PERFORMANCES.

- (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Determination, the duration of performances (with intervals included), so far as covered by the rates of pay prescribed in clause (2), shall not exceed the following times respectively:—
  - (i) In picture shows, two and three-quarter consecutive hours.
  - (ii) In circus entertainments, three and one-half hours.
  - (iii) In general theatrical entertainments, three consecutive hours,
  - (iv) In skating rinks and other places included in sub-clause (J) of clause (2) and in dancing halls, three consecutive hours.
    - † If employed for any performance or rehearsal under sub-clauses (A) or (B) 10 per cent. to be deducted.

Provided that if during a performance in talking picture shows the employees are not required to perform for more than two hours in the aggregate, they may be required to work over a spread of three and one-quarter hours.

(b) Where a performance extends in duration to two and one-quarter hours without finishing, an interval of at least ten minutes shall be then allowed, unless it has been previously allowed during the performance, and in either case such interval shall be regarded extensive.

(c) A performance shall be deemed to have started at the time notified by the employer to the employees as the starting time, or if no such time be notified to have started at the time advertised for starting the performance, but in either case if all the members of the orchestra are not present and ready to start at such time, the performance shall be deemed to start only when the orchestra actually

(d) The provisions of this clause apply to all employees whether casual or not unless the contrary intention appears.

(8) DURATION, ETC., OF REHEARSALS.

- (8) DURATION, ETC., OF REHEARSALS.

  (a) The duration of rehearsals so far as covered by the rates of pay prescribed in clause (2) shall not exceed two hours where the engagement is for a rehearsal not to exceed two hours nor more than three hours in other cases.

  (b) Except as otherwise provided herein the said hours shall be consecutive.

  (c) If a rehearsal having been begun before 1 p.m. will not be completed by that time, and the musicians engaged therein have previously asked or do then ask that it be adjourned for some specified time not exceeding one hour for luncheon, it shall be adjourned for not less than the specified time and not longer than one hour, but the time of such adjournment shall not for any purpose be counted as time worked by the musicians, and the work done after the adjournment shall for the purpose of payment be treated as if done continuously with that done before the adjournment.

  (d) If the actors engaged in a rehearsal with musicians refuse to proceed therewith without an adjournment for luncheon and such adjournment be granted, the time of such adjournment not exceeding one hour to be between noon and 2 p.m., shall not for any purpose be counted as time worked by the musicians, and the work done after the adjournment shall be treated for the purpose of payment as if done continuously with that done before the adjournment.

  (e) Where a rehearsal extends in duration to two and a quarter hours without finishing, an interval of at least ten minutes shall be then allowed unless it has been previously allowed during the rehearsal not sooner than one hour after the starting time, and in either case such interval shall be regarded as time worked.

  (f) A rehearsal shall be deemed to have started at the time notified by the employer as the starting time, but if all the members of the orchestra are not present and ready to start at such time, the rehearsal shall be deemed to start only when the orchestra actually starts playing.

- starts playing.

  (g) If an employer requires the orchestra engaged in a matinee performance of a production or any member or members of such orchestra to play over any part or parts of the production for the purpose of rectifying or rearranging any part of the score or performance of the production, the musicians so employed shall, if not kept more than one hour for such purpose, only be entitled to overtime payment as prescribed in clause (10) and not to payment as for a rehearsal.
  - (h) The ordinary range of hours within which rehearsals are to be held shall be as follows:-

(i) From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. if held with the actors.

- From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. if held with the actors.
   From 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. if held for a continuous picture show or a picture show giving two performances a day.
   From 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. if the engagement be for a rehearsal commencing at or after 3 p.m.
   From 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. except as otherwise provided herein.
   Rehearsals beginning at 9 a.m. for continuous picture shows or picture shows giving two performances a day shall be held in the place where the musician is usually employed or in a place within half a mile thereof, and in the latter case the cost of transferring the double bass and the drums shall be borne by the employer.
   The provisions of this clause apply to all employees whether casual or not unless the contrary intention appears.

(9) ABSENCE FROM DUTY.

- (a) Any weekly employee absent from duty shall lose pay proportionate to the time of such absence unless he produces or forwards to his employer within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that the absence was reasonable because of either
  - (i) any illness of himself due neither to his own default nor to accident arising otherwise than out of and in the course of his employment:

(ii) any bodily injury to himself caused by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment.

- (b) The deduction of pay for absence from a night performance or from a performance, period of work, or rehearsal made part of the week's work for which a rate for the week is prescribed shall be proportionate to that rate and the deduction for absence from a performance or a rehearsal not part of a week's work, shall be proportionate to the rate prescribed for that performance or rehearsal.

  (c) This clause shall not affect any right of the employer to determine the employment in accordance with clause (6) of

(10) OVERTIME PAY AND ALLOWANCES.†

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Determination, any time worked over or outside the prescribed time limit or range of any performance, period of work, rehearsal, or other work or after a break in working time prescribed to be worked consecutively of continuously shall be paid for at the rate of 1s. 3d. for each fifteen minutes or portion thereof up to midnight and of 2s. 6d. for each fifteen minutes or portion thereof after midnight.

Provided that in the case of rehearsals commencing before 3 p.m. not to exceed two hours, the payment for any time up to one worked over the said two hours shall be at the rate of 1s. instead of the said 1s. 3d.

- (b) When the time limit of any performance, period of work, or rehearsal is exceeded by less than five minutes, such excess shall not be counted as overtime worked, but if it is exceeded by five minutes or more sub-clause (a) shall apply in respect of the whole of such excess
- (c) No overtime shall be payable in respect of the first night of a production which is within sub-clause (B) of clause (2), and which continues to be produced at the same theatre for at least six nights, but an alteration in items of a production shall not be regarded as making the first performance of such alteration a first night within this sub-clause.
- (d) All time to be paid for under this clause or as overtime under any other part of this Determination shall be computed weekly in the aggregate.
- (e) Where a casual employee within sub-clause (K) of clause (2) is employed for a performance exceeding four hours, such employee shall, unless meals are provided be paid not less than 3s. 6d. for refreshment expenses in addition to the other payments prescribed by this Determination.
- (f) If any employee mentioned in sub-clause (H) of clause (2) is detained at the place of employment by the employer or his representative after 11.30 p.m. and if so detained until too late to travel by the last tram, train, or vehicle to his or her home, the employer shall provide proper conveyance for the employee so detained, if a female to her home, or if a male to his home if such home is more than a mile from the place of employment.
  - (g) The provisions of this clause apply to all employees whether casual or not unless the contrary intention appears.

(11) SUNDAYS AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.†

- (a) For any work done on a Sunday payment shall be made at least as follows:-
  - (i) To weekly and intermittent weekly employees in addition to their prescribed pay for the rest of the week-

(a) For performing otherwise than at a rehearsal, 12s. per hour, with a minimum payment as for two and three quarter hours in picture theatres and three hours elsewhere.

Provided that this provision for a minimum payment does not apply to work continued from Saturday over midnight into Sunday and that work continued from Sunday over midnight into Sunday and that work continued from Sunday over midnight into Monday shall for the purpose of this sub-clause be deemed all to be done on the Sunday.

(b) For each rehearsal double the appropriate rates prescribed for work on ordinary days.

(ii) To casual employees double the appropriate rates prescribed for work on ordinary days.

- † If work is in connexion with any performance or rehearsal under sub-clauses (A) or (B) 10 per cent; to be deducted.

- (b) For any work done on Good Friday, Christmas Day, and Labour Day, payment shall be made at least as follows:-
  - (i) To weekly employees in addition to their appropriate rates prescribed elsewhere herein, if the work be included in the week's work or be covered by the prescribed weekly rate one-sixth of the appropriate weekly rate prescribed in clause (2), and if the work be any performance not so included double the ordinary rate prescribed in clause (2) for a performance not so included not so included.
  - (ii) To intermittent weekly employees in addition to their appropriate rates prescribed elsewhere herein a further payment ascertained by dividing the appropriate rate prescribed in clause (2) by the number of the performances such rate
  - (iii) To casual employees double the appropriate rates prescribed for work on ordinary days.
    - Provided nevertheless in respect of Labour Day that there shall be paid to weekly employees one-twelfth instead of one-sixth of the said weekly rate and one and a half times instead of double the said ordinary rate; to intermittent weekly employees a payment ascertained by dividing by twice the said number instead of by the said number, and to casual employees one and a half times instead of double the said rates.
- (c) For any work done on other holidays payment shall be made at least as follows:-
  - (i) To weekly employees in addition to their appropriate rates prescribed elsewhere herein, if the work be included in the week's work or be covered by the prescribed weekly rate, one-twelfth of the appropriate weekly rate prescribed in clause (2) and if the work be any performance not so included one and a half times the ordinary rate prescribed in clause (2) for a performance not so included.
  - (ii) To intermittent weekly employees in addition to their appropriate rates prescribed elsewhere herein a further payment ascertained by dividing the appropriate rate prescribed in clause (2) by twice the number of the performances such rate covers.
  - (iii) To casual employees one and one-half times the appropriate rates prescribed for work on ordinary days.

The said other holidays are the days observed as New Year's Day, Australia Day, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, King's Birthday, Boxing Day, and all other days regarded and observed as holidays throughout the State; but where any of the holidays named are observed on different days in different parts of the State, employees shall only be entitled to extra payment from the one employer for work on one of such days in each year.

Provided nevertheless that there shall be paid to weekly employees one-twenty fourth instead of one-twelfth of the said weekly rate; to intermittent weekly employees a payment ascertained by dividing by four times instead of by twice the said number, and to casual employees one and a quarter instead of one and a half times the said rates.

- (cc) Where any of the days specified as holidays in sub-clause (b) or (c) of this clause falls on a Sunday and in consequence a holiday is generally observed on an ordinary week day which would not otherwise be kept as a holiday, work done on such ordinary week day shall be deemed to be done on one of the days to which the said sub-clause (c) applies and shall be paid for accordingly.
- (d) Where a weekly employee is employed as such in one or more performances or periods of work on one of the aforesaid holidays at least one performance or period of three hours' work (as the case may be) shall be deemed to be a performance or period included in his week's work, and therefore not an additional or extra performance for which a lower rate is prescribed.

Provided that

- (i) If a night performance or period of three hours occur, it shall be deemed to be the one so included.

  (ii) If the week's work consist of twelve performances or twelve periods of three hours or the equivalent thereof, two performances or two such periods, inclusive of the night performance or period of work (if any), shall if occurring on the holiday be deemed to be so included.

  (iii) Event as a forestid none of the said reformances shall be deemed to be so included unless the amployer so chooses.
- (iii) Except as aforesaid none of the said performances shall be deemed to be so included unless the employer so choose
- (e) In the case of weekly employees (not including intermittent weekly employees) if by reason of any of the aforesaid holidays being a holiday no work is done thereon the prescribed weekly wage shall nevertheless be paid, and such holiday shall be treated for the purpose of sub-clause (A) of clause (2) as if one of the seven performances provided for in that sub-clause had occurred thereon, and for the purpose of the rest of the said clause (2) where 6, 12, 18, or 24 performances are provided for shall be treated as if one-sixth the purpose of the number of performances so provided for had occurred thereon, and where no number of performances is provided for shall be treated as if one-sixth of the ordinary amount of work provided for as covered by the weekly wage had been done thereon.
- (f) If an employee is required by his employer to travel on a Sunday he shall, unless he is paid in pursuance of this clause for working on the said Sunday, be paid 7s. 6d. therefor.
