PROHIBITION OF TRANSFER OF POTATOES FROM CERTAIN PORTIONS OF VICTORIA INTO OTHER PORTIONS.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria and its Dependencies in the Commonwealth of Australia, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by section 4 of the Vegetation and Vine Diseases Act 1928 (No. 3797) the Governor in Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, may, either absolutely or subject to any Regulations prohibit the bringing into any portion of Victoria from any other portion of Victoria specified in such Proclamation of any tree, plant, or vegetable which is in the opinion of the Governor in Council likely to spread any disease or insect in Victoria, and may at any time alter or revoke any such Proclamation: Now therefore I, the Governor of the State of Victoria, in the Commonwealth of Australia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said State, do by this my Proclamation alter the Proclamation of the eleventh day of January, 1916, as altered by my Proclamation of the third day of March, 1936:—

- (a) By inserting in the said Proclamation of the eleventh day of January, 1916, as altered as aforesaid, after the word "municipalities" when last appearing the words "or part or parts of a municipality".
- (b) By rescinding paragraphs 7, 8, and 9 and substituting therefore the following:—
 - 7. The Shires of Berwick and Cranbourne and the East and West Ridings of the Shire of Dandenong shall constitute and be known as "the Bunyip-Koo-wee-rup-Dandenong Potato Inspection District."
 - 8. The Shires of Narracan, Buln Buln, and Warragul shall constitute and be known as "the Warragul Potato Inspection District."

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the State of Victoria aforesaid, at Melbourne, this thirteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and forty-one, and in the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty, King George VI.

(L.S.) WINSTON DUGAN.

By His Excellency's Command,

E. J. HOGAN,
Minister of Agriculture.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

PROCLAMATION OF PART OF THE SHIRE OF SOUTH BARWON AS PART OF A SHIRE WITHIN WHICH SECTION 22 OF THE DOG ACT 1928 SHALL APPLY.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria and its Dependencies in the Commonwealth of Australia, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by section 22 of the Dog Act 1928, as amended by section 8 of the Dog Act 1936, it is provided that no person shall exercise or train any greyhound within the limits of any city, town or borough, or any shire or part of a shire specified for the purposes of this section on the recommendation of the council of such shire by Proclamation of the Governor in Council, published in the Government Gazette, except in accordance with conditions recited in such section: And, whereas the council of the Shire of South Barwon has recommended that the part of the said shire described hereunder be specified for the purposes of the above-mentioned section: Now therefore I, the Governor of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, do, by this Proclamation, specify the part of the Shire of South Barwon described hereunder as part of a shire within which section 22 of the Dog Act 1928 shall apply, that is to say:—

The area within the Township of Belmont included within the following boundaries:—Commencing with the intersection of Mt. Pleasant-road and Roberts-road; thence easterly along Mt. Melbourne, 10th May, 1941.

STATE RIVERS AND WATER SUPPLY COMMISSION.

BY-LAW No. 3980.—RATES AND CHARGES FOR WATER SUPPLIED
—DROMANA-PORTSEA URBAN DISTRICT WITHIN THE MORNINGTON PENINSULA WATERWORKS DISTRICT.

THE State Rivers and Water Supply Commission, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by the Water Acts, doth hereby make the By-law following:—

1. The following rates for the supply of water for domestic purposes are hereby made, and shall be levied upon the occupiers or owners of lands and tenements within the Dromana-Portsea Urban District, within the Mornington Peninsula Waterworks District:—

(1) Of any tenement (other than land on which there is no building) situate in a street in which a pipe for the supply of water has been laid down—a rate of Nine and three-fourths pence in the pound of the annual municipal valuation of such tenement. Provided that the rate for the supply of water as aforesaid to such tenement shall not be less than the sum of Fifteen shillings for the period hereinafter set out.

(2) Of lands on which there is no building situate in a street in which a pipe for the supply of water has been laid down—a rate of Nine and three-fourths pence in the pound of the annual municipal valuation of such lands. Provided that the rate for the supply of water as aforesaid to such lands shall not be less than the sum of Two shillings and six pence for the period hereinafter set out.

2. Such rates are made and shall be levied for the period beginning with the 12th day of April, 1941, and ending with the 30th day of June, 1941, and shall be payable on the 16th day of May, 1941, at the office of the said Commission at Dromana.

3. The maximum quantity of water to be supplied during the period from 12th April, 1941, to 30th June, 1941, without further charge to properties rated by the Commission shall be the quantity, which, if charged for at the rate of One shilling and three pence per 1,000 gallons, would give an amount equal to the rate payable for the period from 12th April, 1941, to 30th June, 1941, in respect of the properties so supplied.

4. For all water supplied in excess of the maximum quantity referred to in paragraph 3 of this By-law, the charge shall be One shilling and three pence per 1,000 gallons. Such charge shall be payable on demand at the office of the said Commission at Dromana.

5. Such person or persons as the State Rivers and Water Supply Commission may from time to time appoint for that purpose shall be, and is or are hereby authorized to demand, receive, collect, and recover the said rates and charges.

The foregoing By-law was made by the State Rivers and Water Supply Commission on the 6th day of May, 1941, and the common seal of the said Commission was hereunto affixed the 9th day of May, 1941, in the presence of—

3. The Board shall meet regularly on such dates, not being less than once in every month, at such place or places and at such times as shall be fixed by the Board.

4. The Chairman may, and if requested in writing by any two members of the Board shall, call a special meeting of the Board at any time.

5. Every meeting of the Board shall be presided over by the Chairman, who shall be elected annually. In the absence of the Chairman, at the time appointed for the holding of any meeting, the members of the Board present shall elect from amongst their number a person to be Deputy Chairman of such meeting.

6. The Secretary shall cause to be delivered to each member of the Board two clear days before any ordinary or special meeting, a notice of such meeting containing a statement of the business to be dealt with at such meeting, provided that, if in the opinion of the Chairman it is desirable to do so, shorter notice may be given of any special meeting.

7. If at the time appointed for a meeting a quorum is not present, one half hour from the time so appointed shall be allowed for the formation of a quorum, and, if at the expiration of that period no quorum is present, the meeting shall lapse.

8. If a special meeting lapses through the absence of a quorum, the business set down for such meeting shall be the business, or included in the business of the next ordinary meeting, or of a special meeting summoned as prescribed in Regulation 4.

9. At any special meeting no business shall be dealt with thereat other than that which is set out in the notice relating to such meeting.

10. The order of business at any meeting shall be as follows:—

- (i) Reading and confirmation of minutes of previous meeting.
- (ii) Matters arising from the minutes of previous meeting.
- (iii) Correspondence.
- (iv) Receipts, accounts, finance, and like matters.
- (v) Matters relating to servants, agents, and officers of the Board.
- (vi) General business.

11. The Chairman or Deputy Chairman shall determine all questions of pre-audience.

12. At all meetings of the Board, save as herein otherwise provided, every member present shall vote. If a member refuses to vote, his vote shall be counted for the negative.

13. The members present at a meeting may, from time to time, adjourn the meeting.

14. A resolution of the Board shall not be revoked or altered unless notice of the intention to propose such revocation or alteration is given in writing to each of the members three days at least before the meeting at which the revocation or alteration is to be proposed.

15. The Secretary shall keep proper minutes of all resolutions, business, and proceedings made or transacted at each meeting of the Board, which shall be submitted to the members for confirmation, and, when confirmed, the Chairman of the meeting at which they were confirmed shall sign them, and they shall be preserved by the Secretary. Any entry in the minute-book signed by the Chairman shall be conclusive evidence that any resolution has been carried or lost at any meeting.

16. There shall be conspicuously displayed every twelve months in the Board's public office a full and explicit statement of the Board's receipts and expenditure and liabilities for the period since the last preceding statement was so displayed.

17. A full and explicit balance-sheet of the Board, audited in accordance with section 11 of the Act, shall be conspicuously displayed in the Board's public office within one month of the completion of the audit thereof by the Auditor-General.

18. The statement and balance-sheet referred to in Regulations 16 and 17 shall remain displayed until they are replaced by any subsequent statement and balance-sheet, and shall be available for perusal and copying at reasonable hours by any person.

19. (i) The Secretary or other officer authorized by the Board shall receive and account for all moneys paid to the Board, and each day shall deposit moneys received by him at a bank selected from time to time by the Board. Only the Secretary or other officer authorized by the Board may endorse cheques for collection on behalf of the Board. All cheques so endorsed shall be passed through the Board's bank account.

(ii) All accounts due and payable by the Board other than salaries, wages, or accounts due to producers in respect of the delivery of eggs to the Board shall, before payment, be passed by the Board, provided that in cases of necessity payments may be made out of a Manager's Advance Account established for the purpose without such prior approval in anticipation of and subject to the confirmation of the Board at its next regular meeting following any such payment or payments. The Manager's Advance Account shall not exceed Seven hundred pounds (£700).

(iii) Payments to producers in respect of eggs delivered to the Board shall be made by cheque signed in the manner provided for in sub-clause (v) (a) hereof.

(iv) All accounts paid out of the Manager's Advance Account shall be by cheque signed by any two of the following persons:—The Manager, the Secretary, or the Accountant.

(v) Subject to the provisions of sub-clause (iv) of this Regulation—

(a) all accounts exceeding Two pounds due by the Board shall be paid by cheques signed by any one member of the Board and countersigned by the Secretary or Accountant;

(b) all accounts not exceeding Two pounds due by the Board may be paid from a petty cash account, the standing balance of which shall not at any time exceed the sum of Fifty pounds (£50).

20. The Board may, in every sale or agreement for sale of eggs by the Board to any person, insert conditions and fix a sum as and by way of liquidated damages for any breach of condition, which damages shall be recoverable accordingly.

21. Correspondence shall be signed by the Chairman, Secretary, Manager, or other person authorized by the Board.

22. All contracts and agreements not under seal when approved by the Board shall be signed for and on behalf of the Board by a member of the Board and by the Secretary, or by two members of the Board.

23. The common seal of the Board shall not be affixed to any document except with the authority of the Board. The Secretary shall have the custody of the seal, which shall be kept under lock and key in such place as the Board directs.

In every case where the common seal is authorized to be affixed to any document, such seal shall be affixed only in the presence of at least two members of the Board, who shall sign every such document, which shall be countersigned by the Secretary.

24. The certificate to be issued by the Board to the producer in accordance with section 24 of the Act shall be in or to the effect of Form 1 of the Schedule.

25. The Board may replace any lost or damaged certificate issued in accordance with section 24 of the Act, provided that such duplicate certificate shall be clearly stamped across the face thereof with the words "Duplicate only."

26. The notice to be given by any person claiming to be entitled to any bill of sale, mortgage, charge, lien, pledge, interest, trust, or other encumbrance whatsoever, of or upon or over any of the commodity delivered to the Board or claiming to be the true owner of such commodity shall be in or to the effect of Form 2 of the Schedule.

27. The notice to be given by a producer in accordance with section 28 of the Act shall be in or to the effect of Form 3 of the Schedule.

28. The periods of time for the purpose of computing payments to producers of eggs in accordance with sub-section (1) of section 23 of the Act shall be the period commencing on the first Monday in the month of July in each year and terminating upon the Saturday next preceding the first Monday in the month of July in the next following year.

GRADING, PACKING, DELIVERY, AND MARKETING OF EGGS.

29. Any exemption granted by the Board from the operation of section 19 of the Act shall be on the following terms and conditions:—

The producer to whom an exemption applies and any person who claims to be a producer to whom an exemption applies—

(a) shall permit any member of or person authorized by the Board to enter at any reasonable time any land, building, or premises of the producer for the purpose of inspection thereof, and to inspect any books, accounts, registers, documents, or writings, in the custody or control of the producer, relating to his business as such producer, and to take notes, copies, or extracts thereof or therefrom, and shall truthfully answer any question relating to such books or accounts, or to any eggs produced by him;

- (b) shall not, without the consent of the Board, use such eggs for any purpose other than that for which the exemption was granted;
- (c) shall, if more than 25 adult female fowls or ducks are kept on the holding owned or occupied by him, deliver to the Board, not later than the seventh day of each month, a return showing the number of eggs produced during the previous month, the method by which they were disposed of, and the prices obtained for any such eggs sold.
30. An exemption shall not apply in the case of a producer on whose holding more than 25 adult female fowls or ducks are kept unless he has made application, in writing, to the Board for such exemption, specifying the grounds on which the exemption is sought, and the Board has granted such exemption in his case.
31. There shall be three qualities of eggs of the domesticated fowl, namely:—
- “Export Quality” eggs, which shall consist of eggs—
- (a) the shells of which are clean, uncracked, and free from stain, and which are not thin, rough, or mis-shapen; and
 - (b) which, when candled, are free from blood spots, the yolks of which are translucent or but faintly visible, the whites of which are translucent and firm, and the air cells of which are not more than three-sixteenths of an inch in depth.
- “First Quality” eggs, which shall consist of eggs—
- (a) The shells of which are clean, uncracked, and free from stain, and which are not thin or mis-shapen; and
 - (b) which when candled, are free from blood spots, the yolks of which are translucent or but faintly visible, the whites of which are translucent and firm, and the air cells of which are not more than one-quarter inch in depth.
- “Second Quality” eggs, which shall consist of eggs which do not conform to the quality or description of “Export Quality” or “First Quality” eggs, but which are fit for human consumption.
32. “Export Quality” eggs of the domesticated fowl shall be divided into two grades, namely:—
- Export (1), which shall consist of eggs of not less than $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. each in weight with an average weight of not less than 24 oz. to the dozen.
- Export (2) shall consist of eggs of not less than $1\frac{3}{4}$ oz. each in weight or more than $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. in weight.
- “First Quality” eggs of the domesticated fowl shall be divided into three grades, namely:—
- “Hen,” which shall consist of eggs of not less than $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. each in weight, with an average weight of not less than 24 oz. to the dozen.
- “Medium,” which shall consist of eggs of not less than $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. or more than $1\frac{3}{4}$ oz. each in weight.
- “Pullet,” which shall consist of eggs of not less than $1\frac{1}{4}$ oz. each in weight but less than $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. each in weight.
- “Second Quality” eggs of the domesticated fowl shall be divided into three grades, namely:—
- “Second Quality A,” which shall consist of eggs which are not cracked and are not less than $1\frac{1}{4}$ oz. each in weight.
- “Second Quality B,” which shall consist of eggs which are cracked, but not leaking, and are in a condition that will permit packing in fillers for sale in shell form.
- “Second Quality C,” which shall consist of eggs which are fit for human consumption in liquid form.
33. There shall be one quality of duck eggs, namely:—
- “First Quality,” which shall consist of eggs which are fit for human consumption, and are not cracked.
34. Duck eggs shall be divided into two grades, namely:—
- “Duck,” which shall consist of eggs of not less than $2\frac{1}{4}$ oz. each in weight; and
- “Medium Duck,” which shall consist of eggs which are less than $2\frac{1}{4}$ oz. each in weight.

35. No producer shall deliver any eggs to the Board in any container unless the container is legibly marked on the end thereof with the following particulars:—

- (i) the words "Board eggs only";
- (ii) the name and address of the person, firm, or corporation by whom or by which the eggs were packed, or the name and address of the producer.

36. The certificate of refusal to be given to a producer in accordance with section 22 of the Act shall be in or to the effect of Form 4 of the Schedule.

37. (1) (a) Any officer, servant, or employee of the Board duly authorized by the Board in that behalf may from time to time and at any time by notice in writing order any producer who owns or controls, or has upon his premises more than 25 fowls to furnish to him a return in or to the effect of Form 5 of the Schedule setting out the number of eggs produced during such period or periods as may be specified in such notice by fowls which during such period specified in the notice were owned or controlled by the producer notified or which during such period specified were upon his premises, and setting out the manner in which and the names and addresses of the person or persons to whom such eggs were disposed.

(b) Any officer, servant or employee of the Board duly authorized by the Board in that behalf may from time to time and at any time by notice in writing order any producer who has at any time within twelve months immediately preceding such notice owned or controlled or had upon his premises more than 25 fowls to furnish to him a return in or to the effect of Form 5 of the Schedule setting out the number of eggs produced during such period or periods as may be specified in such notice by fowls which during such period specified in the notice were upon his premises and setting out the manner in which and the names and addresses of the person or persons to whom such eggs were disposed of.

(c) No notice pursuant to this Regulation shall relate to or embrace any return as to eggs produced more than two years prior to the date of the giving of such notice.

(2) Such return shall be signed by the producer so ordered, whose signature thereto must be duly attested by a justice of the peace.

(3) Any producer who omits to furnish such return to such person so authorized within the time specified in the notice, and any producer who furnishes a return which is incorrect in any particular, shall be guilty of a contravention of these Regulations.

38. No person shall, within Victoria, market, sell, display for sale, or store any egg if any such egg is stamped or marked with any stamp or mark which so closely resembles the Board's mark as to be likely to deceive or mislead any purchaser or intending purchaser thereof.

39. No person shall, within Victoria, market, sell, display for sale, or store any eggs if—

- (a) two or more grades or qualities of such eggs are contained in the same container;
- (b) eggs bearing the Board's mark are contained in the same container with eggs not so marked.

40. (1) Any member, officer, servant, or employee of the Board duly authorized by the Board in that behalf may at any reasonable time during the day enter upon any premises for the purpose of inspecting any eggs or egg pulp displayed for sale or held in such premises, and may take such sample or samples of any such eggs or egg pulp which do or does not comply with the provisions of these Regulations or any of them, and may inspect any books, accounts, invoices, registers, documents or writings in or upon such premises relating to any such eggs or egg pulp, and may take notes, copies, or extracts thereof or therefrom.

(2) Any person who obstructs any person so authorized, and any person carrying on business in such premises who refuses to produce such books, accounts, invoices, registers, documents, or writings, or to answer any question relating to such books, accounts, invoices, registers, documents, or writings, or to any eggs or egg pulp displayed for sale or held in or upon such premises, or who wilfully gives any untruthful answer to any such questions, shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations.

(3) Any person carrying on business in such premises shall, if requested so to do by a person so authorized, state in writing the name and address of the person from whom any eggs displayed for sale or held in such premises were purchased, consigned, or supplied or from whom the egg pulp held in such premises or the eggs from which such egg pulp was made was or were purchased, consigned, or supplied.

41. No person shall within Victoria—
- (a) Sell, offer, or display for sale by retail any eggs of a quality lower than "First Quality."
 - (b) Sell, offer, or display for sale by retail any eggs unless there is placed in a readable position upon the eggs, or upon the container containing the eggs, or within six inches of such eggs or receptacle, a card on which is printed, stencilled, or written in letters not less than one-half inch in height, and three thirty-secondths of an inch in thickness, the words "Eggs/Produce of," together with the full name of the country, or, if produced within Australia, of the Territory or State in which the eggs were produced, and if the eggs have been obtained from the Board, or its authorized agent, add thereto in similar lettering the words "Board Eggs," and shall further add to such card in type of not less than three-quarters of an inch in height, and five thirty-secondths of an inch in thickness, a description of quality in the words "First Quality," and grade in the words "Hen," "Medium," "Pullet," "Duck," or "Medium Duck."
 - (c) Sell, offer, or display for sale by retail to any person eggs of a grade different from the grade which such person asks or requests to be supplied with.
 - (d) Display for sale by retail any eggs in such position that the eggs are exposed to the sun.
42. No person shall within Victoria sell any eggs on which is displayed or in reference to which is displayed any notice, placard, sign, or advertisement containing any untrue description of the quality, grade, or State or country where the eggs were produced.

REGISTRATION.

43. Every producer of eggs who owns or controls twelve or more adult female domesticated fowls shall register with the Board within twenty-eight days of becoming a producer, giving his name and address, the number of adult female domesticated fowls owned or controlled by him, the names and addresses of the merchants, agents, or others to whom or through whom his eggs are normally sold.

COLD STORAGE.

44. No person shall—
- (a) sell any chilled egg if the air cell exceeds three-eighths of one inch in depth;
 - (b) sell any chilled egg unless the shell is marked in legible and durable characters with the word "Chilled."
45. No owner of eggs shall place or cause to be placed in any cold storage premises any eggs unless the eggs are marked in legible and durable characters with the word "Chilled." Provided, however, that the owner thereof may, with the written authority of an inspector, store eggs not marked as aforesaid in cold storage premises when such eggs are not for sale.
46. No person, except with the approval, in writing, of an inspector, shall remove eggs from any cold storage premises unless the shells are marked with the word "Chilled," and neither the proprietor, owner, occupier, lessee, or person in charge of any such premises nor his servants and agents shall cause, allow, permit, or suffer any eggs to be removed therefrom unless the shells are so marked.

Egg PULP.

47. Egg pulp shall be prepared and packed as prescribed hereunder:—
- (a) All eggs shall be individually submitted to the candling test, and every egg found to be unsound or abnormal in appearance shall be rejected.
 - (b) Every egg shall be broken singly by hand into a small vessel capable of being easily cleansed and effectively sterilized by heat.
 - (c) Whenever an unsound or abnormal egg is broken into any vessel, such vessel shall not be used again until it has been cleansed and sterilized.
 - (d) Subject to a method approved by the Board, the pulp shall be blended and strained and packed in new containers, and such containers shall be removed forthwith after being packed to the refrigerator for freezing purposes.
48. Every person who contravenes or fails to comply with these Regulations shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty of not more than Fifty pounds (£50).

LIST OF CROWN LANDS AVAILABLE.

THE under-mentioned areas are available for application as provided by various sections of the Land Act 1923, and all applications received on or before Wednesday, 11th June, 1941, will be deemed to have been simultaneously made, but any application lodged after such date may be considered if received in time for inclusion in the advertisement of the cases to be heard at the Local Land Board.

Applications on proper form, accompanied by 5s. duty stamp uncancelled (registration fee), may be delivered or forwarded by post to the Local Land Officer or to any Crown Lands Office in Victoria.

Applicants may obtain from Local Land Officers, or the Enquiry Office, Lands Department, Melbourne, a certificate authorizing the issue by the Railway Department of a return ticket at concession fares to enable them to inspect available areas or to attend Local Land Boards. When an applicant is granted an allotment he may, if travelling by rail, obtain reduced fares for his family and also freight concessions in regard to some of his effects.

Subject to the approval of the Minister, when the survey fee exceeds £10, a deposit of £5 may be paid, and the balance over six years in half-yearly instalments.

Marked plans of any particular area, application forms, and any further information may be obtained from the Enquiry Office, Lands Department, Melbourne, and Land Officer, Geelong.

Department of Crown Lands and Survey,

BY-LAW No. 248.

A By-law of the City of Melbourne, made under Part VII. of the Local Government Act 1928, and numbered 248, regulating, restricting, restraining, and prohibiting the erection, construction, conversion, and alteration of and addition to buildings, and providing that every dwelling-house in a residential area shall have attached thereto for the exclusive use of the occupiers thereof a prescribed area of open land, and amending By-law No. 220, and for other purposes.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Local Government Acts and every other Act or power enabling it in that behalf, the Council of the City of Melbourne orders as follows:—

1. This By-law shall, from and after the date of the same coming into operation, be read and construed as one with By-law No. 220, intituled—

“A By-law of the City of Melbourne, made under Part VII. of the Local Government Act 1928 (19 George V. No. 3720) and Part IV. of the Health Act 1928 (19 George V. No. 3697), and numbered 220, to amend and consolidate the By-laws for regulating, and restraining the erection and construction or alteration of buildings, erections, or hoardings and for other purposes.” and any By-laws amending the same.

2. In this By-law, unless inconsistent with the context or subject matter—

“Erect” includes construct, convert, alter, and add to.

“Site” means the land upon which a dwelling-house is erected, together with all land belonging or appertaining to such dwelling-house.

3. No dwelling-house shall be erected in any residential area to contain more than three storeys, provided that the Council may by resolution dispense with this requirement in any particular case.

4. Without prejudice to the requirements as to open spaces contained in By-law No. 220 or any amendment thereof, every dwelling-house erected in a residential area shall have attached thereto for the exclusive use of the occupiers thereof—

(a) between such dwelling-house and the alignment of the street which it fronts or where the site of such dwelling-house is at the corner of two streets between such dwelling-house and the alignment of each of such streets, an open space or spaces (hereinafter called “forecourts”) extending throughout the length of the land between such dwelling-house and such alignment or alignments to a depth in every part of not less than 10 feet in the case of a dwelling-house of not more than two storeys and not less than 15 feet in the case of a dwelling-house of more than two storeys;

(b) open spaces of an aggregate extent (inclusive of forecourts and other open spaces) of not less than 33½ per cent. of the site of such dwelling-house in cases where such site is at the corner of two streets and of not less than 40 per cent. of the site of such dwelling-house in other cases.

Such open spaces shall be free from any erection above the level of the adjoining pavement.

5. In section 5 and sub-section (1) of section 6 of Part VII. of By-law No. 220 the words “Five hundred square feet” shall be substituted for the words “Three hundred square feet.”

6. In section 8 of Part VII. of By-law No. 220 the words “Five hundred square feet” shall be substituted for the words “Two squares.”

7. Notwithstanding anything in any By-law to the contrary, no portion of any shop front shall, within the limits of its height as determined by section 11 of Part V. of By-law No. 220, project beyond the external face of the piers, pilasters, or wall of any building abutting on a street or beyond the street alignment.

8. The following section shall be substituted for section 8 of Part II. of By-law No. 220:—

“8. No builder shall, without the consent of the Council, erect a garage in connexion with or appurtenant to a dwelling-house except in such a manner that no part of the garage shall project beyond the wall of the dwelling-house fronting the street or, where the dwelling-house is situated at the corner of two streets, beyond the wall of such dwelling-house fronting either of such streets.”

Resolution for passing this By-law agreed to by the Council of the City of Melbourne the sixteenth day of December, 1940, and confirmed the twenty-ninth day of January, 1941.

FRANK BFAUREPAIRE, Lord Mayor.

(SEAL) H. S. WOOTTON, Town Clerk.

Confirmed by the Governor in Council the sixth day of May, 1941.—C. W. KINSMAN, Clerk of the Executive Council.
