(ii) for each hour worked beyond the one-half mentioned in sub-clause (i) be paid the ordinary wages rate up to but not exceeding ordinary wages rates for an ordinary week's work.

If the time actually worked by an employee, who is definitely engaged for a period less than the number of hours fixed for a week's work, includes a fraction of an hour exceeding five minutes, the employee shall be paid for such fraction as for a full hour.

(6) ALLOWANCES—

(a) Within the Metropolitan District as defined in the Factories and Shops Acts.—Every employer whose place of business is outside a radius of 6 miles from the General Post Office, Melbourne, shall pay to each employee who is engaged for less than one week's continuous work the fares necessarily expended by the employee in travelling between his home and the employer's place of business.

(b) Outside the Metropolitan District as defined in the Factories and Shops Acts.—Every employer shall pay the fares necessarily incurred by an employee in proceeding from his home to employment outside the Metropolitan District, and also the fares necessarily incurred by the employee in returning to his home at the termination of his employment with the employer. Provided that the employer shall not be required to pay the fare to his home of an employee who voluntarily leaves the service of the employer before he has completed a period of three months in such employment.

(7) SPECIAL RATES.—Double time shall be paid for all work done on Sundays, New Year's Day, Labour Day, Good Friday, Christmas Day, 26th January (Australia Day), Easter Monday, King's Birthday, and Boxing Day, and, within the Metropolitan District as defined in the Factories and Shops Act, for all work done on Melbourne Cup Day; but if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above-named holidays, the special rate shall only be payable for work done on the day so substituted. In addition double time shall be paid for all work done on the 27th December when such day is a Saturday.

(8) UNIFORMS.—Any employee who is required by his employer to provide himself with a special uniform shall have refunded to him, by the employer, so much of the cost of same as exceeds 12s. 6d. per uniform. Such uniform shall become the property of the employee. The entire cost of special uniforms shall be borne by the employer where the employee is employed for a period of less than six months. Where change to special designs in uniforms is required, the employer shall bear the cost of same.

In cases where the employer arranges for the laundering of the uniform of any employee he shall be entitled to deduct from the wages of such employee the actual cost of such laundering not exceeding 9d. per week.

(9) MEALS.—Meal breaks of not less than 45 consecutive minutes shall be allowed to each employee between the hours of 11.30 a.m. and 1.45 p.m., and between the hours of 4.15 p.m. and 7 p.m. Provided that in the case of any employee who ceases work not later than 6.5 p.m. on any day no second meal break shall be allowed on such day.

(10) DAY AND LATEST HOUR FOR PAYMENT OF WAGES.—Five o'clock p.m. on Friday shall be the day and latest hour for payment of wages.

(11) ANNUAL LEAVE.—Any employee who has been in the service of the same employer for a period of not less than twelve months shall be granted one week's holiday on full pay in each year (exclusive of the holidays specified in clause 7), and such holidays shall be given within three months of completion of each twelve months' service. Should an employee's services be terminated before the expiration of twelve months' service he shall be entitled to pro rata holidays on full pay, i.e., one day for each two complete months of service.

(12) TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.—Except where the conduct of an employee justifies instant dismissal, seven days' notice of termination of employment shall be given by either employer or employee, or one week's wages shall be paid or forfeited in lieu thereof.

In the case of an employee who has been engaged from week to week (whether for an ordinary week's work or for any definite period other than an ordinary week's work) for at least four weeks the expression "termination of employment" shall include any variation of the terms of his engagement whereby he is to work weekly for a shorter period than that for which he was previously engaged. "A week's wages" shall mean the wages in respect of the weekly period for which he was previously engaged.

(13) APPRENTICES AND IMPROVERS ON ELECTRICAL CURLING OR WAVING MACHINES.—Female apprentices and improvers shall assist in operating electrical curling or waving machines only in the presence of a person receiving not less than the minimum wage.

(14) PREMIUMS OR BONUSES.—No person shall, either directly or indirectly, request or permit any other person to pay or give or shall receive from any other person, any premium, bonus, consideration or payment for employing or teaching or purporting to employ or teach any person subject to this Determination any of the callings to which the Determination applies.

(15) TIME BOOK.—In a book provided for such purpose by the employer, every employee shall indelibly record and initial daily his or her correct times of beginning and ending work and the correct times of ceasing and commencing work before and after the meal breaks prescribed in clause (9) of this Determination. Such book shall be open for inspection by the Secretary, Assistant Secretary or an accredited official of the Victorian Branch of the Australian Hairdressers', Wigmakers' and Hairworkers' Employees' Federation between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. of any working day except Saturday at the employer's shop or other convenient place, provided that only one demand for each inspection shall be made at the same establishment in any calendar month. Such demand shall not be made unless the Secretary, Assistant Secretary or accredited official of the said Federation suspects that a breach of this Determination has been committed.
