IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Coal Mine Workers Pensions Act 1942 (No. 4932), His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, doth hereby make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

SHORT TITLE.

(b) Expressions and terms defined in the Act shall have the same meanings where used in these Regulations unless inconsistent with the context or subject-matter.

MINE WORKER TO FURNISH A RETURN OF EMPLOYMENT.

3. Every mine worker and every person who may hereafter become a mine worker shall, within 30 days after the coming into force of these Regulations, or of the date of his becoming a mine worker, as the case may be, complete in detail, sign and forward to the Registrar or deliver to the owner by whom he is or may be employed, a return of employment in the form or to the effect of Form No. 6 in the Schedule to these Regulations.

OWNER TO FORWARD RETURNS OF EMPLOYMENT TO REGISTRAR.

4. Every owner shall within fourteen days of the receipt by him from any mine worker of a return of employment forward it to the Registrar.

ABSENCE FROM STATE.

5. Any mine worker who leaves his employment and departs from the State of Victoria for any purpose other than war service as referred to in sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Act and who thereafter returns to the said State shall, within 30 days after such return, notify the Registrar in writing of the dates between which he was so absent from Victoria and, if during such absence he was engaged in employment, the class of such employment, and the period during which he was so employed.

ABSENCE ON WAR SERVICE.

6. Any mine worker who has been absent from his employment in Victoria upon war service as referred to in sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Act shall, within 30 days after his discharge from such war service, notify the Registrar in writing of the dates between which he was so absent from his employment.

OWNER TO FURNISH GENERAL INFORMATION.

7. Every owner shall, within fourteen days after being required in writing by the Registrar so to do, furnish or cause to be furnished to the Registrar such information (including documentary evidence) in respect of any mine worker then or theretofore employed by him as the Registrar may from time to time deem necessary to enable the Tribunal to record the career of or to consider an application for a pension from such mine worker.

OWNER TO NOTIFY DATE OF RETIREMENT OF MINE WORKER.

8. Every owner shall within fourteen days after the retirement of any mine worker who was employed by him and who has attained the retiring age furnish or cause to be furnished to the Registrar a statement in writing setting forth the full name of such mine worker, the place of his last employment, and the date of his retirement.

APPLICATION FOR PENSION.

9. Every application for pension shall be lodged with or forwarded to the Registrar and shall be in the form or to the effect of such of the Forms numbered one to five in the Schedule to these Regulations as is appropriate to the application, and there shall, in verification of the statements in such application, be furnished by the applicant to the Registrar such documents or other information as the Registrar may require.

The time within which any person aggrieved by a determination of the Tribunal as to his liability to contribute to the Fund or as to his eligibility to receive a pension may appeal against such determination to the Workers Compensation Board shall be twenty-eight (28) days from the date on which the Registrar sends by registered post to such person notification of such a determination.

NOTIFICATION BY MINE WORKERS AND OTHERS.

12. (a) Every mine worker or other person to whom a pension has been awarded shall within seven days after the death or the cessation of dependancy of any dependant in respect of whom any amount is payable as an addition to his pension furnish to the Registrar a statement in writing setting forth the name of the dependant and the date of the death or cessation of dependency (as the case may be) of such dependant, and such other evidence in connexion therewith as the Registrar may require of him.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS OF PENSIONER.

13. Any person to whom a pension has been awarded shall within seven days after any change in his address notify the Registrar of such change of address and of the address to which all payments and communications are thereafter to be addressed.

PAYMENT OF PENSIONS.

14. Pensions shall be payable at regular fortnightly intervals unless the Tribunal, at the request of the person to whom the pension is payable, approves of payment at longer intervals.

DISCLOSURE OF OTHER PENSIONS, ALLOWANCES, OR EARNINGS RECEIVED.

15. Where a pension has been awarded under the Act and at any time thereafter the person to whom such pension has been awarded or any dependant of such person receives, or would but for the Act be entitled upon application to receive, any amount from any invalid or old-age pension or as endowment under the Commonwealth Acts known as the Child Endowment Acts 1941-1942 and the Widows' Pensions Act 1942 as amended by subsequent Acts, or as an allowance under the Coal Mines Regulation Acts, or as compensation under the Workers' Compensation Acts or as damages recovered independently of those Acts, or such person engages in employment, such person shall within seven days after such receipt, becoming entitled to receive or engagement in employment, as the case may be, furnish to the Registrar a statement in writing signed by such person setting forth particulars of each and every amount which he or any dependant so receives or becomes entitled to receive, or the average weekly amount which such person earns from his engagement in employment, as the case may be.

BASIS OF ASSESSMENT OF CONTRIBUTIONS BY INDIVIDUAL MINE WORKERS.

18. The basis upon which the contributions of individual mine workers shall be assessed shall be as follows:—

The Tribunal as soon as possible after receiving from the actuary an estimate of the total amount of the contributions necessary to be paid to the Tribunal in any year or part of a year to which his report relates shall estimate the total number of mine workers who will be employed by all owners during the said year or part of a year as the case may be.

The amount of the contributions payable under the Act by all mine workers during that period shall be divided by the total number of mine workers so estimated as aforesaid and the resultant quotient shall be the amount of the contribution payable by each individual mine worker for such period.

BASIS OF ASSESSMENT OF CONTRIBUTIONS BY INDIVIDUAL OWNERS.

19. The basis upon which the contributions of individual owners shall be assessed shall be as follows:—

Each owner shall for any year or part of a year for which the actuary has estimated the total amount of contributions necessary to be paid to the Tribunal pay twice the amount of the contributions payable by the mine workers employed by such owner in such year or part of a year (as the case may be).

MANNER OF PAYMENT OF CONTRIBUTIONS BY INDIVIDUAL MINE WORKERS.

20. (a) All contributions of mine workers shall be payable by fortnightly instalments and the amount of each such fortnightly instalment shall be ascertained by dividing the amount of the contribution payable by a mine worker during any period by the number of complete fortnights in that period.

(b) The Registrar as soon as practicable after the determination by the Tribunal of the contribution payable by each individual mine worker during any period shall, in writing, notify each respective owner of the amount thereof, the amount of the said fortnightly instalments and the period during which such contribution and fortnightly instalments shall be payable by individual mine workers.

(c) The amount of the fortnightly instalments from time to time payable by each individual mine worker, so assessed and notified by the Registrar, shall be deducted by each owner on each pay day from the amount payable by such owner to any mine worker employed by him, the first of such deductions to be made on the first pay day occurring after the date of the coming into operation of Part II. of the Act and thereafter at fortnightly intervals.

(d) Within three days (or such further time as the Tribunal may approve) after the deduction by any owner of the amount of any fortnightly instalment payable by a mine worker such owner shall complete and forward to the Registrar a return of mine workers' contributions in such a form as the Tribunal shall direct and shall with such return forward to the Registrar all instalments of mine workers' contributions deducted by him for the period covered by the return.

CERTAIN CONTRIBUTIONS DUE AND UNPAID BY MINE WORKER.

21. Where through no fault of a mine worker his contributions fall into arrear, the Tribunal on his application may permit the amount of such arrears to be paid in instalments or in such other manner as it may determine: Provided that no mine worker shall be required to pay in any one fortnight an amount in excess of double the normal rate of his contributions.

MANNER OF PAYMENT OF CONTRIBUTIONS BY INDIVIDUAL OWNERS.

22. (a) Within three days (or such further time as the Tribunal may approve) after the close of each fortnight falling within the period during which in accordance with the notification received by him from the Registrar under these Regulations he is required to deduct from each mine worker employed by him the amount of such worker's contribution, every owner shall forward to the Registrar an amount equal to twice the total of the contributions paid for each such fortnight by the mine workers employed by him in such fortnight.

(b) The first of such fortnights shall end on the sixteenth day of April, 1943.

(c) The Tribunal may in any particular case if it sees fit permit an owner to pay his contributions by four-weekly instalments and in the event of any such permission being given to any owner paragraph (a) of this regulation in its application to such owner shall be read and construed as though for the word "fortnight" wherever occurring therein there were substituted the expression "four weeks" and the first of such four-weekly periods shall end on the thirtieth day of April, 1943.

23. Any person doing any act forbidden to be done or failing to do any act directed to be done by these Regulations shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations and every person guilty of an offence against these Regulations shall be liable to a penalty of not more than Five pounds.

4. SPECIAL RATE.—Burners on night shift shall be paid 5s. per week in addition to the rate mentioned in Clause 2.
 5. OVERTIME.—(a) Any employee who works for any time in excess of the ordinary hours of work per day shall be paid for such extra time at the rate of time and a half. Provided that where an employee ordinarily works a five-day week, work done on Saturday shall be deemed to be overtime, and shall be paid for as such, except in the case where an employee is required to work on such Saturday to make up for time lost (except because of Public Holidays) through any circumstances over which the employer had no control. In such an excepted case the employee shall only be entitled to be paid at ordinary rates for the first four hours worked on such Saturday.

(b) Any employee (other than a burner, machine driver, machine rigger, or pan or crusher attendant) who works outside the spread of hours fixed in Clause 3 shall be paid for such time at the rate of time and a half.

(c) All work done by machine drivers, machine riggers, and pan or crusher attendants either before the ordinary starting time and after the ordinary finishing time of the factory shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half irrespective of the number of hours worked.

6. SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS.—Time and a half shall be the special rate for all work done on Sundays, and double time for all work done on New Year's Day, Australia Day, Labour Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, King's Birthday, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day: but if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above-named holidays, the special rate shall only be payable for work done on the day so substituted.

7. PAYMENT FOR HOLIDAYS.—All employees shall, as far as practicable, be granted the holidays mentioned in Clause 6 without deduction of pay.

8. PAYMENT OF WAGES.—All wages due shall be paid not later than Friday in each week, except where otherwise mutually agreed between employer and employee.

9. ANNUAL LEAVE.—(a) Any employee who has been in the service of the same employer for a period of not less than twelve months shall be entitled to the days intervening between the gazetted days for Boxing Day and New Year's Day as annual leave and shall be paid at ordinary rates therefor.

(b) Any employee who on 26th December has been continuously employed by the same employer for more than three months but less than twelve months shall be entitled to the annual leave period prescribed in sub-clause (a) hereof and shall be paid pro rata according to the number of completed months of service.

(c) Any such employee required to work on any intervening day or days to which he is entitled under sub-clauses (a) or (b), shall be allowed at a time suitable to himself and the employer, an equivalent number of days in lieu thereof as holidays without deduction of pay, or shall be paid double time for such day or days.

10. SICK LEAVE.—Where an employee has been in the service of an employer for a period of not less than three months and is disabled by personal ill-health, proof of which sickness is given to the employer by medical certificate or other satisfactory evidence within twenty-four hours of the employee's consequential absence, he shall, on account thereof, be entitled without deduction of pay to absent himself from work for a period not exceeding in the aggregate four days in any year of employment in the industry.

For the purposes of this clause a year shall be deemed to commence on the 1st July (beginning with the 1st July, 1943) and to end on the next following 30th June.

11. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.—In any case where it is intended to close down a kiln or portion of the works, one week's notice of such intention shall be given to employees whose services are to be terminated.

12. MORNING TEA INTERVAL.—A morning tea interval of seven minutes shall be allowed employees each morning during ordinary working hours without deduction of pay, such interval shall be arranged by the employer so as to avoid the necessity for a stoppage of operations in the establishment.
