WARRACKNABEAL WATERWORKS TRUST.

BY-LAW No. 2/45.

THE Warracknabeal Waterworks Trust (hereinafter referred to as the Trust), in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by the Water Acts, doth hereby make the By-law following for restricting the use of water supplied by the Trust for other than domestic purposes within the Waterworks District of the Trust:—

1. This By-law will come into operation at such time as the Trust directs by notice published in a newspaper circulating generally within the Waterworks District, and cease to have operation at such time as the Trust from time to time directs by a notice so published.

2. The provisions of the By-law shall apply to the whole of the Waterworks District.

3. No person shall use or permit or suffer to be used or allow to run, any water supplied by the Trust, for other than domestic use, manufacturing, or fire-fighting purposes, or use a hose other than for fire-fighting purposes.

4. Every person who shall use or permit or suffer any water supplied by the Trust to be used contrary to the provisions of this By-law shall be guilty of an offence against this By-law, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds, recoverable summarily before any court of competent jurisdiction, and to a further penalty of not more than Five pounds for each day (if more than one) that such offence continues.

5. If any person supplied with water by the Trust wrongfully does or causes or permits to be done anything in contravention of this By-law, the Trust may, without prejudice to any other remedy in respect thereof, close or cut off any pipe or pipes by or through which water is supplied by the Trust to him or for his use, and may cease to supply him with water.

The foregoing By-law was made by the Warracknabeal Waterworks Trust on the 4th day of July, 1945, and the common seal of the said Trust was hereunto affixed on the 5th day of July, 1945, in the presence of—

COUNTRY ROADS BOARD.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the seventeenth day of July, 1945.

PRESENT:

Mr. Hollway | Mr. Oldham.

DECLARATION OF A DEVIATION FROM THE MAIN SOUTH ROAD IN THE SHIRE OF BULN BULN.

WHEREAS by section 58 of the Country Roads Act 1928 (No. 3662) it is amongst other things enacted that when the Country Roads Board under the provisions of the Country Roads Act has by Resolution declared a deviation to be a main road the said Board may also declare that such deviation shall be in lieu of any existing road or part thereof named in such Resolution and that on publication in the Government Gazette of the Order confirming such Resolution the existing road or part thereof shall cease to be a main road or be discontinued as provided in the Resolution: And whereas the said Board has by Resolution declared the deviation on the land described in the First Schedule to such Resolution to be a main road and has also declared that such deviation shall be in lieu of the part of the existing road being the land described in the Second Schedule to the said Resolution and that such part of the said existing road shall be discontinued: Now therefore His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof doth hereby confirm the said Resolution.

Resolution for Declaration of a Deviation under the Country Roads Act.

Whereas the land the site of the road the course of which is below set out was taken by the Board under the provisions of the Country Roads Act 1928 for the purpose of constructing such road deviation which road deviation has now been laid out and formed on the same: And whereas the said Board (being the Country Roads Board incorporated under the said Act) thinks that the road aforesaid is fit to be used as a public highway such Board at a meeting now holden acting under the authority conferred upon it by section 52 of the said Act doth by this present Resolution hereby declare the said road deviation the course of which is described in the First Schedule hereto with the commencing and terminating points thereof respectively specified to be part of a main road within the meaning and for the purposes of the Country Roads Act 1928: And the said Board doth also declare that such deviation shall be in lieu of the existing road or part thereof described in the Second Schedule hereto and that such part of the said existing road shall be discontinued.

COUNTRY FIRE AUTHORITY ACT 1944.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the seventeenth day of July, 1945.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Governor of Victoria.
Mr. Hollway | Mr. Oldham.

COUNTRY FIRE AUTHORITY.—REGULATIONS.

WHEREAS by the Country Fire Authority Act 1944 it is amongst other things enacted that the Governor in Council may make regulations for all or any of the purposes set forth in the said Act.

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria, in the Commonwealth of Australia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said State, and in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Country Fire Authority Act 1944, doth hereby make the Regulations following (that is to say):—

Citation and commencement.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the “Country Fire Authority (General) Regulations” and shall come into operation on the publication thereof in the Government Gazette.

Revocation.

2. On the commencement of these Regulations the Regulations mentioned in the First Schedule hereto to the extent thereby expressed to be revoked are hereby revoked:

Provided that such revocation shall not affect any record kept or any registration or appointment made or any right acquired or any liability incurred or any matter or thing done or suffered under the said regulations before such commencement.

Interpretation.

3. In these Regulations, unless inconsistent with the context or subject matter—

“Act” means the Country Fire Authority Act 1944.

“Authority” means the Country Fire Authority.

Division of Regulations
into Parts.

4. These Regulations are divided into Parts as follow:—

Part I.—All Fire Brigades.

Part II.—Permanent Fire Brigades.

Part III.—Volunteer Fire Brigades.

Part IV.—General.

PART I.—ALL FIRE BRIGADES.

Registration
and Classification
of Brigades.

5. For the efficient working of fire brigades the Authority may register any fire brigade not previously registered, or re-register any fire brigade previously registered under the Fire Brigades Act 1928, the Bush Fire Brigades Act 1933, or any previous enactment and place any such fire brigade under such classification as it may from time to time determine: Provided that any brigade registered and classified by the Country Fire Brigades Board or the Bush Fire Brigades Committee, the registration of which was current on the 2nd April, 1945, shall remain registered and classified with the complement of officers and members allotted to it on the date last mentioned until it is re-registered by the Authority.

Applications for the
of Brigades.

6. Applications for the registration of brigades shall be made in the form of the Second Schedule hereto and shall contain the names, dates of birth, places of residence, and occupations of the persons desiring to be approved and registered as officers and members of the brigades concerned: Provided that the requirement to make any such application may be waived by the Authority when a brigade is re-registered.

Brigade
Classifications.

7. Brigades shall be classified as shown hereunder, that is to say:—

(a) Rural Fire Brigades—

(i) Class A.—Not exceeding 100 active members, including Captain, First, Second, Third and Fourth Lieutenants, Foreman, Apparatus Officer, Secretary, and 92 firemen.

(ii) Class B.—Not exceeding 75 active members, with Captain, First, Second and Third Lieutenants, Foreman, Apparatus Officer, Secretary, and 68 firemen.

(b) Urban Fire Brigades—

- (i) Class A.—Permanent fire brigades, including such permanent officers and firemen as are appointed from time to time by the Authority, and such part-time officers and firemen, volunteer firemen, and reserve firemen as the Authority determines from time to time.
- (ii) Class B.—Not exceeding 30 active members including Captain, Lieutenant, Foreman, Apparatus Officer, Secretary, Resident Officer, and 24 firemen, with not exceeding twenty reserve firemen.
- (iii) Class C.—Not exceeding 25 active members, including Captain, Lieutenant, Foreman, Apparatus Officer, Secretary, Resident Officer, and nineteen firemen, with not exceeding sixteen reserve firemen.
- (iv) Class D.—Not exceeding twenty active members, including Captain, Lieutenant, Foreman, Apparatus Officer, Secretary, and fifteen firemen, with not exceeding fourteen reserve firemen.

Provided that in any case where the Authority considers it necessary, a Resident Officer may be appointed for a brigade Class D, and the maximum number of active firemen shall thereupon be reduced from fifteen to fourteen.

- (v) Class E.—Not exceeding fifteen active members, including Captain, Lieutenant, Foreman, Secretary, and eleven firemen, with not exceeding ten reserve firemen.

8. Upon registering any brigade the Authority shall issue to that brigade a certificate of registration in the form of the Third Schedule Certificates of Registration of Brigades. hereto.

9. All registration certificates shall remain the property of the Authority, and if the registration of the brigade is at any time cancelled, or if the brigade is amalgamated with any other brigade, or is altered in classification, or disbands or otherwise ceases to exist, such certificate shall be void, and shall within seven days after the happening of any such event be returned to the Authority.

10. (1) Whenever any brigade by reason of deaths, resignations, or expulsions shall have reduced its roll to less than a minimum effective strength to be determined by the Authority, the registration of the said brigade may be suspended, and any allowances payable thereto may be reduced or forfeited to the Authority as the Authority may determine. Suspension and Disbandment of Brigades.

(2) If, after one month's notice from the Authority, any registered brigade remains below the minimum effective strength determined by the Authority, the Authority may cancel the registration of such brigade.

(3) If through dissensions or other cause the efficiency of any brigade is, in the opinion of the Authority, impaired, registration may be suspended or the brigade may be disbanded by the Authority.

11. (1) The district within which any urban fire brigade shall be required to do duty shall be the urban fire district pursuant to the Act, or part thereof, within which such brigade is established. Urban Districts.

(2) Such fire district shall be known and designated as the brigade district under the name of the said brigade.

12. The senior officer of an urban fire brigade present at the time may authorize the attendance by a detachment of his brigade with apparatus and plant at a fire outside the fire brigade district: Provided that sufficient officers and firemen and sufficient apparatus and plant shall be retained for adequate protection of the urban fire district, and provided further that if there be a rural fire brigade present at any such fire the officer in charge of the urban brigade detachment shall report to the officer in charge of the rural fire brigade, and shall act in accordance with any lawful request by the officer last mentioned, retaining however the immediate control and direction of the personnel and appliances of the urban brigade. Attendances at Fires outside Urban Districts, and Control.

13. Until otherwise determined, the district within which any rural fire brigade shall be required to do duty shall be the fire control region, or portion thereof, within which such brigade is established. The senior officer of any rural fire brigade present at the time may authorize the attendance of a detachment from the rural fire brigade at a fire outside such fire control region: Provided that sufficient officers and Rural Districts.

firemen, and sufficient apparatus and plant, shall be retained for the protection (if necessary) of that portion of first-mentioned fire control region in which the aforesaid rural fire brigade ordinarily operates.

Control
where two or more Rural
Brigades
Attend.

14. In the event of two or more rural fire brigades attending any fire, and in the absence of the Chief Officer, Deputy Chief Officer, or a Regional Officer, the Captain or officer in charge of that brigade the headquarters of which are nearest to the scene of the fire, shall be considered to be the senior officer at the fire: Provided that if the scene of the fire be equidistant, or approximately equidistant, from the headquarters of two or more brigades, the oldest of two or more captains or officers in charge of equal rank will be considered to be the senior officer present at the fire.

Observance of Regulations.

15. Every officer and member shall conform to the regulations made, or which may hereafter be made, for the management of the various fire brigades, and shall be subject to the duties, conditions and penalties named therein. All allowances may, at the discretion of the Authority, be subject to stoppage or absolute forfeiture in the event of wilful violation of the regulations.

PART II.—PERMANENT FIRE BRIGADES.

Appointments to Permanent
Brigades.

16. (1) A candidate for appointment to a permanent brigade must—

- (a) Be a British subject.
- (b) Be not under 21 nor over 35 years of age (unless he possesses special qualifications, in which case the age limit may be extended to 40 years).
- (c) Be not less than 5 ft. 7 in. in height and 37 inches in natural chest measurement.
- (d) Be free from disease, defect in limb, hearing and sight, and not subject to fits.
- (e) Be generally intelligent and capable of acquiring instruction.
- (f) Produce satisfactory testimonials as to character.
- (g) Produce a birth certificate or other satisfactory proof of age.

Provided that any of the foregoing conditions prescribed by this Regulation may be waived at the discretion of the Authority.

(2) Applications for appointment must be made in person, and each applicant must write his own application, and state his age, occupation, height, natural chest measurement, and whether he is married or single.

(3) Every approved candidate will be required to undergo a strict medical examination by the Authority's medical officer as to physical fitness before being appointed to the service.

(4) All candidates for appointment, before signing on, are required to read the Regulations of the Authority, and to sign the declaration hereunder—

"I hereby state that I have read the Regulations of the Authority, and undertake to serve under same."

(5) Eligible candidates when finally approved shall be accepted as members of the brigade on probation.

(6) All appointments or engagements made by the Authority may be cancelled or annulled without any reason being assigned: Provided that, excepting in the case of a dismissal under these Regulations, not less than one week's pay shall be granted in lieu of notice.

Station
Officer,
Permanent
Brigades.

17. A Station Officer, or any other officer in charge of a station, shall generally carry out such duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Chief Officer, but more particularly he shall—

- (a) Reside, when required, at any station to which he may be appointed, and take charge of the station and any other property belonging to the Authority, or under its care.
- (b) Attend fires and take control until the arrival of a senior officer.
- (c) See that all calls for chimneys on fire are immediately attended to, and that stops for the same or grass fires are sent to the other stations to save any unnecessary turning out of engines.
- (d) Report himself immediately upon arrival at a fire to the senior officer present.

- (e) Ascertain as soon as possible, if he be the first officer to arrive at a fire, the nature and extent of the fire, and shall send information to headquarters, or the nearest fire station.
  - (f) Within 48 hours of a fire or alarm of fire furnish the prescribed fire report form, duly completed, to the Authority. The names and respective ranks of firemen present thereat must be recorded on such form.
  - (g) Requisition for all apparatus, plant, stores, repairs, &c., that may be required at his station.
  - (h) Make himself conversant with any dangers of a special nature such as timber yards, large buildings, and buildings in which especially hazardous goods are stored; make note of the locality of powder magazines, stores of inflammable liquid, and the like; and make inspections in his district.
  - (i) Be solely responsible for the discipline, control, and management of his station, his judgment and discretion being left practically unfettered in order that there may be no limit to his responsibility in the execution of the duties entrusted to him.
18. (1) The uniform of a permanent officer or fireman shall consist of a tunic, light coat for station work, breeches, trousers, peak cap, boots, leggings, helmet, axe, hose and nozzle spanner, belt and two pouches, or as may be otherwise determined from time to time by the Authority. Uniforms.
Permanent
Officers and
Firemen.
- (2) Uniform shall be worn at all times when on duty. At fires every officer and fireman must appear in full uniform. When on duty other than at fires officers and firemen shall wear such uniform as the Chief Officer may direct.
- (3) All articles of uniform issued are and shall remain the property of the Authority.
- (4) If any officer or fireman leaving the service fails to return any of the Authority's property in proper order, allowing for fair wear and tear, the Authority may deduct from any moneys due to him such sum as will indemnify the Authority against loss.
- (5) Uniforms for the Chief Officer, Deputy Chief Officer, and other officers of the urban service not serving directly with any brigade, shall be provided by, and be as determined by, the Authority from time to time.
19. (1) Officers shall receive such sick, annual and other leave (other than long-service leave) as may be determined by resolution of the Authority from time to time. Leave.
Permanent
Officers and
Firemen.
- (2) Firemen shall receive such sick, annual and other leave (other than long-service leave) as determined by an industrial award or agreement: Provided that further sick leave, with or without pay, may be granted at the discretion of the Authority.
- (3) Medical certificates shall be furnished as to an officer's or fireman's fitness or otherwise for duty on application for sick leave, and before resuming duty: Provided that the Chief Officer may dispense with certificates in cases where the sick leave does not exceed one day.
- (4) The Authority or the Chief Officer may, for sufficient reason, defer any or all leave.
20. (1) All officers and firemen shall render immediate obedience to all lawful orders from their senior officers, and must conform to all rules and regulations which have been made or may be made from time to time, and to brigade orders. General Duties.
Permanent
Officers and
Firemen.
- (2) Roll-call shall be at 7 a.m., 1 p.m., and 6 p.m., and at such other times as the Chief Officer may direct.
- (3) Firemen shall be held responsible to the officer in charge of the station that the apartments, bedding, and furniture are kept clean and in good order at all times, and ready for inspection at 10 a.m. each day. Firemen shall be held responsible for any wilful damage during occupancy of such quarters.
- (4) Every officer and fireman must serve wherever the Chief Officer may direct, and attend all fire calls while on duty.
- (5) Except as prescribed, the general duties of officers and firemen shall be as defined from time to time by resolution of the Authority.

Offences,
Permanent
Officers and
Firemen.

21. No officer or fireman shall—

- (a) Accept or engage in any employment for reward other than in connexion with his duties: Provided that the foregoing shall not prevent any officer or fireman from—
  - (i) Becoming a member or shareholder only of any incorporated company, or of any company or society of persons registered under any Statute.
  - (ii) Holding any office in any society founded under the law relating to friendly societies.
- (b) Accept any money, gifts or addresses, for services rendered at a fire, without permission of the Authority.
- (c) Supply information to the Press.
- (d) Take orders at fires from citizens.
- (e) Wear his uniform off duty, unless when proceeding to or from duty.
- (f) Absent himself while on duty from a station to which he is attached, without permission of the officer in charge.
- (g) Indulge in gambling in or about the premises of a station.
- (h) Take or cause to be taken any intoxicating liquors into the premises of a station without the consent of the Chief Officer.
- (i) Otherwise conduct himself in a manner whereby the discipline, good order, or reputation of the brigade may be imperilled.

22. (1) The Chief Officer may, on his own initiative or on receipt of a complaint in writing, suspend any officer or fireman.

(2) The Chief Officer shall be empowered to inquire into all alleged offences.

23. The Chief Officer, after the holding of an inquiry under these Regulations, and if satisfied that the offence alleged has been committed, shall be empowered to take such action, either in the form of dismissal, or reduction in grade, or the imposition of a fine not exceeding Ten pounds, as he may deem fit.

24. (1) When an officer or fireman is suspended and summoned to appear before the Chief Officer to answer a charge, he shall be so informed in writing at least 48 hours before the hearing thereof, and copies of all documents in connexion with such charge shall be forwarded at the same time.

(2) He may have an advocate present at the inquiry and shall be allowed to call evidence and to hear all evidence and to interrogate any witness. It shall be mandatory for the person making the charge to be present and to give oral evidence.

25. The Chief Officer shall report each alleged offence and his decision to the Authority at its next meeting after any inquiry.

26. Any officer or fireman may appeal to the Authority against a decision of the Chief Officer, and the Authority may affirm, annul, or vary such decision.

General,
Permanent
Officers and
Firemen.

27. (1) Any officer or fireman desiring to terminate his service (unless under special circumstances) must give at least seven clear days' notice in writing, addressed to the Chief Officer. Any officer or fireman resigning or discontinuing his duties without such notice, or without special permission, shall be liable to forfeit all pay due to him, and to be formally dismissed.

(2) Any married officer or fireman having quarters in a station shall be held responsible for any wilful damage during the occupancy of such quarters. The quarters shall be subject to inspection by the Chief Officer and by the officer in charge of the station, and, when vacated, must be left clean and in good order.

(3) In the event of the Authority sustaining any financial loss through misappropriation or through wilful damage to any property of the Authority by an officer or fireman, the amount of such loss may be deducted from any moneys due to such officer or fireman then or thereafter.

(4) Any change in an officer's or fireman's marital condition shall be notified in writing to the Chief Officer.

(5) Any communication which an officer or fireman may desire to place before the Authority must be sent in writing through the Chief Officer.

(6) When an officer or fireman is ordered to move from one station to another, the Authority shall pay all reasonable expenses of removal, except when such removal be ordered by way of punishment, or is granted at the request of the officer or fireman.

28. (1) Applications for appointment as part-time officers or firemen must be made in the candidates' own handwriting to the Authority. Part-time
Firemen.

(2) Candidates must be physically strong men, free from defect in limb, hearing and sight, and not subject to fits.

(3) Candidates must be within the age limits prescribed for the members of the brigade to which they seek appointment.

(4) Candidates shall furnish testimony from at least two reputable persons as to their character, and, if necessary, produce satisfactory proof of age.

(5) Candidates shall be required to serve at least one month on probation, and, if found suitable, may be appointed by the Authority.

(6) The engagement of every part-time officer or fireman shall be for one month, and thereafter from month to month.

(7) Every part-time officer or fireman shall receive such remuneration by way of retaining fee, salary, and/or allowances as the Authority may from time to time determine, and shall be liable to suspension, removal, or dismissal by the Authority.

(8) Where not otherwise prescribed, the duties of any part-time officer or fireman shall (mutatis mutandis) be in accordance with those prescribed for the officers or members of the brigade, whether permanent or volunteer, with which he is enrolled.

29. No permanent, part-time, or volunteer officer or fireman over the age of 60 years shall continue in service except under special circumstances and with the approval of the Authority. Retiring Age.
Permanent
Fire
Brigades.

PART III.—VOLUNTEER FIRE BRIGADES.

30. Every volunteer brigade may have its own rules of internal and general working, which shall in all cases be subject to the approval of the Authority. All proposed alterations or additions shall be submitted to the Authority for approval or otherwise. No rule shall be contrary to these Regulations. Where a brigade has no rules pursuant to this regulation, the model rules in the Fourth Schedule hereto shall apply. Brigade Rules.
Volunteer
Brigades.

31. (1) No person shall be registered on the roll of any volunteer brigade unless he is— Qualifications of Membership.
Volunteer
Brigades.

- (a) In good health, and sound in body and mind; and
- (b) of good moral character and habits.

(2) No person shall be registered on the roll of any urban brigade unless he is over the age of 18 years, and not over the age of 45 years: Provided that the Authority may, in special cases, consent to the enrolment of a person outside this age group.

32. No person shall, unless with the consent of the Authority, be eligible for re-election to any brigade who has been dismissed or struck off the roll of any brigade for misconduct, or for persistent neglect to attend fires or practices, or for want of interest generally in his duty as an officer or member, or for any cause which, in the opinion of the Authority, would disqualify him for membership. Persons not eligible for Membership.

33. No volunteer part-time or permanent officer or fireman over the age of 60 years shall be allowed to remain on the registered roll of any urban brigade unless under special circumstances, and with the approval of the Authority. Retiring Age of Members.

34. (1) In each case of a person desiring to join after a brigade has been registered by the Authority, if the candidate complies with the requirements set forth in regulation number 31 of this Part, and the brigade approves of him, the name and particulars of such candidate shall be submitted to the Authority, in such form as the Authority may from time to time direct, for approval or otherwise. New Active Members.
Volunteer
Brigades.

(2) No person shall be recognized as an officer or member of any brigade until his name has been approved by the Authority, and registered on the roll of such brigade by the Authority.

(3) The Authority may require a certificate from the captain of the brigade that due regard has been paid to the distribution of the membership over the area in which property is to be protected.

(4) Officers and members of urban brigades shall, unless the Authority otherwise determines, reside within easy sound of the alarm bell, and their services must be reasonably available as required.

New Reserve
Members.
Volunteer
Urban
Brigades.

35. (1) In addition to the complement of registered active members, urban brigades may elect reserve members, subject to approval and enrolment by the Authority. As vacancies in the ranks of registered active members of urban brigades occur, the places shall be filled, as far as practicable, from the reserve.

(2) Reserve members shall attend fires, practices, and drills, and shall be eligible for compensation in the event of accidents pursuant to the Act and the Regulations thereunder, but shall not be entitled to vote on matters connected with the management, financial affairs, or discipline of any brigade, and reserve members of urban brigades shall not be eligible to receive uniform equipment.

(3) The names of reserve members shall be submitted for approval and enrolment by the Authority in the same manner as for active members.

Leave of Absence.
Volunteer
Brigades.

36. (1) Officers and members of urban brigades requiring leave of absence shall apply for same in writing to their brigade, and in the event of such leave being sought for a longer period than one month, the applications shall be forwarded to the Authority with the brigade's recommendation.

(2) The captain or officer in charge of any rural fire brigade may grant leave of absence not exceeding three months to any other officer or member: Provided that any such captain or officer in charge who requires personal leave of absence shall apply for same to the Authority, and that if there be five active officers or members on leave at any one time from any brigade, any further applications for leave shall be referred to the Authority.

Transfer of Members.

37. Officers and members may be transferred from one brigade to another, provided the complement of the latter permits of such transfer, on production of a certificate of good character and discharge from their former brigade and with the approval of the Authority.

Resignation.

38. Any officer or member desiring to retire from the membership of any brigade shall forward his resignation in writing to the Authority through the brigade.

Removal of Members
from Roll.

39. (1) Any officer or member who, without leave or sufficient excuse, has failed to keep himself effective by attending the percentage of fires and practices prescribed by these Regulations, shall be liable to be struck off the register by the Authority.

(2) An officer or member who, in the opinion of the Authority, has lost interest in the brigade with which he is enrolled, or has left the district, may be treated by the Authority as if he had resigned, and an entry to that effect in the register of members shall be as effective as the acceptance of a written resignation.

Election of Volunteer
Officers.
Volunteer
Brigades.

40. (1) Every rural volunteer fire brigade shall meet during the month of September in the year 1945, and during the month of September in each second succeeding year thereafter, and elect by ballot the complement of officers allotted to it under its classification.

(2) Every urban volunteer fire brigade shall meet during the month of October in the year 1945, and during the month of October in each second succeeding year thereafter, and elect by ballot the complement of volunteer officers allotted to it under its classification.

(3) Every candidate for office shall be an effective registered member of the brigade in which he seeks office.

(4) Officers of rural brigades approved by the Authority shall hold office for the term of two years from and including the first day of November next following the biennial election, unless they are removed from office or cease to be members of the brigade.

(5) Officers of urban brigades approved by the Authority shall hold office for the term of two years from and including the first day of January next following the biennial election, unless they are removed from office or cease to be members of the brigade.

Provided that any officer whose retirement would otherwise have occurred only by effluxion of time pursuant to sub-sections (4) and (5) hereof shall continue in office until his successor has been approved by the Authority and his brigade duly notified thereof.

(6) In the event of a volunteer officer resigning or being removed from office, or ceasing to be a member of the brigade, the brigade shall forthwith in meeting fill the vacancy by ballot. The officer elected shall, if approved by the Authority, hold office until the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was elected.

(7) Brigades may make their own rules or resolutions with regard to the date and method of nominating for the position of volunteer officer: Provided that, if there be no such rules or resolutions, the model rules in the Fourth Schedule hereto shall apply.

(8) Secretaries of brigades shall submit to the Authority for approval the result of every election within seven days from the date of such election.

41. Except by special consent of the Authority, no member shall be eligible for election as captain of any brigade unless he has held office in a registered brigade for not less than three years: Provided that if in any particular brigade there be no candidate for the position of captain who has served as an officer for the time hereinbefore required the question of eligibility shall be referred to the Authority for decision, and the decision of the Authority shall be final. Eligibility for Office.

42. (1) Officers and members of brigades shall in their intercourse with each other, official or social, observe a courteous demeanour, and officers and members addressing each other shall do so in a respectful manner. Conduct of Members.

(2) While on duty at fires, practices, drills, or parades, the greatest degree of silence compatible with a proper discharge of duty shall be observed, and members shall address officers by their official titles.

(3) Officers and members of brigades shall be deemed to be on duty at all times when in uniform; and at fires, alarms of fire, practices, competitions, demonstrations, drills, parades or brigade meetings, whether in uniform or plain clothes.

43. (1) The Chief Officer may, on his own initiative or on receipt of a complaint in writing, suspend any officer or member of a brigade. Offences, Punishments, and Appeals, Volunteer Brigades.

(2) Any officer or member of a brigade who may be deemed to be guilty of disobedience of orders, insubordination, conduct subversive of discipline, intoxication, abusive or obscene language, or other unseemly conduct when on duty shall within 24 hours be reported to the Chief Officer, in writing, by the captain or senior officer, who may suspend such officer or member from duty pending an inquiry. Officers below the rank of captain shall forward their reports in such cases to the captain for transmission to the Chief Officer.

(3) The Chief Officer shall be empowered to inquire into all offences contrary to the good order and discipline of the brigade, and take such action as he may consider necessary to meet the case.

(4) The Chief Officer shall report all offences and penalties for same to the Authority at its next meeting after the offence has been dealt with.

(5) Any member may, in writing, appeal to the Authority against any penalty inflicted by the Chief Officer, and the Authority may affirm, annul, or vary such penalty.

44. The Captain shall—

(a) Enforce discipline, the Regulations, and the orders of the Authority or the Chief Officer or any other permanent officer of the Authority senior to the Captain. Duties of Officers and Members, Volunteer Brigades, Captain.

(b) Take command at fires.

(c) Take command at all brigade practices, drills, and parades.

(d) Be empowered to suspend any officer or member, as provided for in these Regulations.

(e) See that the officers and members, or any persons employed, do their duties faithfully.

(f) See that all apparatus, plant, and buildings belonging to the Authority or in charge of the brigade are kept clean and in good condition and repair.

- (g) At least once every month cause an inspection to be made of all hydrants or fire plugs within the brigade district, and immediately report details of defective hydrants or fire plugs in writing to the municipality concerned.
- (h) Examine from time to time all entries made in the brigade books by the secretary; and prior to the brigade's monthly meeting check the secretary's income and expenditure account from the cash book, and the duplicate receipts issued for income, and the invoices and vouchers for payments, and verify the balance shown as cash in bank from the bank pass book; and report the result of his inspection of the brigade's accounts to the said monthly meeting.
Provided that in rural brigades these duties shall be carried out by the President (if any) of the brigade.
- (i) In urban brigades, inspect brigade uniforms, and report to the Chief Officer thereon.
- (j) Act, pursuant to section 31 of the Act, in any matter if a senior officer of the Authority is not present.

Lieutenants. 45. The Lieutenant in any urban brigade and the Lieutenants in rural brigades shall aid and assist the Captain in the discharge of his duties, and obey promptly all orders received from him. In the absence of the Captain, the Lieutenant in any urban brigade and the senior Lieutenant in any rural brigade shall assume command of the brigade, and be vested with all the powers of Captain.

Foreman. 46. The Foreman shall—

- (a) Act with and be under the direction of the Captain and Lieutenant or Lieutenants.
- (b) Perform the duties of the Captain in the absence of the Captain and Lieutenant or Lieutenants.
- (c) Where there is no Resident Officer, take charge of all apparatus and plant, and be responsible for the cleanliness and good order thereof, and for the cleanliness and good order of the fire station and/or any other building occupied by or used by the brigade.

Apparatus Officer. 47. The Apparatus Officer shall—

- (a) Be subject to the senior officers of the brigade.
- (b) Assist the foreman in his duties.
- (c) Perform the duties of foreman in his absence.

Secretary. 48. The Secretary shall—

- (a) Subject to the control of the Authority, have charge of all books, papers, and other documents of the Authority that may be in the custody of the brigade.
- (b) Attend promptly to all communications received from the Chief Officer or Secretary of the Authority.
- (c) Communicate promptly the directions of the Captain of the brigade.
- (d) Keep a file containing all inward correspondence, and copies of all outward official correspondence and requisitions.
- (e) Attend all meetings of the brigade and record the minutes thereof.
- (f) Issue a receipt, and at the same time make a duplicate by means of carbon paper for all moneys received by or on behalf of the brigade; and be held responsible for all moneys of the Authority which may be remitted to the brigade, and deal with brigade funds as provided for in these Regulations.
- (g) (i). At each and every monthly meeting of the brigade—
  - (a) Submit a proper income and expenditure account for the month then next preceding the meeting, in a form to be prescribed from time to time by the Authority, together with the cash book, the bank pass book written up to date by the bank, the cheque book, vouchers, duplicate receipt books and other documents of the brigade relevant to the said account and necessary to check and verify the same.

- (b) Answer all questions which may be put to him at the meeting relating to the funds and finances of the brigade: Provided that, if in the opinion of the meeting the said account, or the brigade books and documents as submitted therewith, or any answer given by the secretary be unsatisfactory, as indicating some breach of duty on the part of the secretary, the chairman of the meeting shall forthwith report to the Secretary of the Authority in writing the matters which are deemed to be unsatisfactory as aforesaid.
- (c) Produce all other brigade books and correspondence.
- (ii) When so requested by the Secretary of the Authority, prepare and submit a financial statement relating to the funds and finances of the brigade in respect of such period and in respect of such matters as may be required by the Secretary of the Authority, and together therewith produce to him for inspection such books, vouchers, receipts, and other documents of the brigade as may be relevant to such account and necessary for the purpose of checking and verifying the same.
- (iii) Produce the brigade books and correspondence to the Captain of the brigade or to any officer of the Authority, whenever requested so to do by such Captain or officer.
- (h) Perform to the satisfaction of the Authority and the brigade all such duties as may be imposed upon him by the Regulations, the Authority, or the brigade.
- (i) Be under the general direction of the Secretary of the Authority in all matters relating to office routine and management.
- (j) Be liable to suspension, removal, or dismissal by the Authority.
- (k) On his retirement from office, furnish to the Authority all returns to the end of the term for which he held office, and hand to his successor all moneys, books, correspondence, or other documents which are the property of the Authority.
- (l) Furnish to the Authority, within the times specified, the following returns, forms, and reports:—
- Applications for registration of new active and reserve members; applications for transfer; applications for leave of absence; resignations of members; requisitions—forthwith after being dealt with by the brigade.
  - Receipts for equipment issued—forthwith after the receipt of such equipment.
  - Invoices for goods supplied or services rendered—forthwith after being certified correct.
  - Reports of fires or alarms—within forty-eight (48) hours after the fire or alarm.
  - Reports of election of officers—within seven days of the election.
  - Return of attendances at fires, practices, and hydrant inspections; statement of petty cash expenditure and supporting invoices—within seven days after the end of each quarter ending 31st March, 30th June, 30th September, and 31st December.
  - Annual return of Authority and brigade property—on 30th June in each year.
- (m) Keep the following books and records, viz.:—
- (i) Register of Members' Books—in which shall be entered in ink the full name of every registered active and reserve member, together with his date of birth, birthplace, occupation, residence, brigade rank, dates of admission to and leaving the brigade, dates of election to and ceasing to be an officer, dates of transfer from active to reserve list and vice versa, dates granted long service awards, and any other relevant information.

- (ii) Register of Fires Book—in which shall be entered full particulars of all fires and alarms of fire, together with the names and respective ranks of members in attendance.
- (iii) Minute Book—in which shall be entered in ink the names of officers and members attending each meeting, and the minutes of resolutions and proceedings thereat.
- (iv) Attendances Book—in which shall be entered in ink the dates of, and the names and respective ranks of members attending all practices, drills, and plug inspections.
- (v) Property Book—in which shall be entered in ink details of all property, showing in separate parts the respective property belonging to the Authority and the brigade (including trophies).
- (vi) Cash Book—in which shall be entered in ink details of all brigade receipts and payments.
- (vii) Reference File—which shall contain all Regulations, and general and special circulars issued by the Authority.

(n) In urban brigades, receive such remuneration as the Authority may from time to time determine.

Resident Officer.

49. Where the Authority appoints a Resident Officer, he shall—

- (a) Reside at the fire station.
- (b) Be a permanent or part-time officer.
- (c) Be under the direction of the senior officer present for the time being.
- (d) Attend to and be responsible for the cleanliness, good order and condition of the fire station and the fire extinguishing apparatus and plant belonging to the Authority or in charge of the brigade.
- (e) Receive such remuneration as the Authority may determine.
- (f) Be liable to suspension, removal, or dismissal by the Authority.
- (g) Be responsible for receiving, and communicating to the brigade, all alarms of fire.
- (h) Be present at the fire station during the hours specified in the conditions of his appointment or by the Chief Officer from time to time, unless arrangements have been made with the Captain or senior officer for the time being of the brigade, to receive alarms during his absence.
- (i) Report forthwith in writing to the Captain of the brigade any defect in appliances or equipment.

Active
Members.

50. (1) Active members shall—

- (a) Upon an alarm of fire proceed promptly with the apparatus and plant to the fire, and immediately on arrival report themselves to the senior officer present.
- (b) Perform such duties at fires as may be required of them.
- (c) Remain on duty until relieved by orders, which shall be given only by the officer in command.
- (d) Keep or assist in keeping the apparatus plant and buildings clean and in good order.
- (e) Make themselves effective by attending fires and practices.
- (f) Attend all brigade meetings unless excused, but attendances at meetings shall not be counted towards the attendances required for effectiveness.

(2) For the purposes of the Regulations under this Part, an effective member shall mean one who has in each half-year attended at least two-thirds each of the fires or alarms of fire, and also of the regulation practices.

Reserve
Members,
Urban
Brigades.

51. Reserve members shall—

- (a) Make themselves efficient in the use of fire extinguishing apparatus and plant.
- (b) Attend fires, practices, and drills.
- (c) Make themselves effective by attending fires and practices as set out in these regulations.

52. Reserve members may attend brigade meetings and take part in the discussions, but shall not have the right to vote on motions submitted to the meeting.

PART IV.—GENERAL.

53. At fires the senior officer present shall take command until the arrival of his senior. The brigade's duties are not completed until the fire is properly and effectually extinguished. Members of urban brigades must turn out to fires or alarms of fire in the Authority uniform when they can do so without causing undue delay in attending. Duties at Fires.

54. On returning from a fire or an alarm of fire, the officer in command of an urban brigade shall cause the roll to be called, and record the names of members present at such fire or alarm of fire. The officer in command may exempt members from returning to the fire station for roll-call, and he may call the roll at the place of the fire or alarm of fire. Roll Call at Fires.
Urban
Brigades.

55. A report, in the prescribed form, of all fires and alarms of fire, signed by the officer in command, shall be furnished to the Authority within forty-eight (48) hours of the fire or alarm of fire. The names and respective ranks of officers and members present thereat shall be recorded on the fire report form. Reports of Fires.

56. (1) The members of urban brigades shall be practised in their duties at engine, reel, or other drill at least once each calendar month, and the members of rural brigades shall be so practised at least twice in every year, under the supervision of their officers, and at such other times as the Authority, Chief Officer, or Captain may direct. Practices.

(2) A recognized practice shall mean practical work in fire prevention, fire extinction, or other drill, for at least three-quarters of an hour.

(3) Each brigade may appoint its own dates for practices. Moonlight nights should be selected when practicable, and during the winter months or in inclement weather brigades may hold their practices or drills indoors.

57. (1) Brigades shall not at any time attend fire brigades' demonstrations or competitions outside a radius of five miles from their head station without leaving a sufficient number of effective registered members within their respective districts. No portion of the apparatus and plant (with the exception of a competition reel and apparatus) shall be taken to a demonstration or competition without the written consent of the Authority. Captains shall be responsible for the observance of this Regulation. Demonstrations and Competitions.

(2) The Authority may by resolution authorize such expenditure or make such grants as it considers necessary or expedient for the successful conduct of demonstrations and competitions, and, in particular, for all or any of the following purposes, viz.:—

- (a) The transportation of firemen and their apparatus or plant.
- (b) The purchase of trophies for competition by fire brigades and firemen, and the allocation of the cost thereof.
- (c) Any other matter incidental to the conducting of demonstrations and competitions.

(3) All expenditure incurred by the Authority under this Regulation shall be charged in the first instance to demonstration costs, and thereafter shall be dealt with in the following manner, namely:—

- (a) Expenditure incurred in connexion with the conducting of the annual Fire Brigades' Demonstration shall be apportioned between all registered urban fire brigades, according to the regulation strength of each, and when so apportioned, shall be charged against the fire control region accordingly.
- (b) Expenditure incurred by the Authority in connexion with fire brigades attending inter-district competitions shall be charged against the fire control regions of the brigades in relation to which the expenditure was incurred.

(4) The association or brigade or person as the case may be desiring to hold a demonstration shall apply to the Authority in writing at least eight weeks prior to the proposed date of same for the permission required by section 79 of the Act.

58. An allowance will be provided for every brigade for the purchase of such minor supplies, and for defraying cost of such minor repairs to plant, as may be required for the ordinary maintenance of the brigade. The total amount of such allowance must not exceed in any one year the amount provided for in the estimates of the Authority. Such allowance shall be available quarterly, and the vouchers for such expenditure, showing full particulars of the purchases made or repairs Petty Cash effected, duly certified by the captain and secretary of the brigade, and receipted in proper form, must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Authority for examination, not later than the seventh day in the months of January, April, July and October in each year. Such expenditure shall be subject to the approval of the Authority, which may disallow any or all of it.

Allowances
for Expenses
at Fires,
Practices, &c.

59. An allowance, to be determined from time to time by the Authority, may be granted to every urban brigade for the purpose of defraying the incidental expenses of the brigade, and for expenses incurred while on duty at fires and recognized practices, and in connexion with the annual demonstration. Such allowance is not to be regarded as remuneration for services rendered and must not be divided amongst individual members.

Uniforms,
Urban
Brigades.

60. (1) The uniforms for volunteer or part-time registered officers and active members of urban brigades shall be provided by the Authority, and shall consist of a coat with arm badge, cap, belt, spanner, and cap badge. Helmets shall be supplied to brigades in cases where the Authority considers they are required.

(2) Uniforms shall not be issued to reserve members, unless the Authority otherwise determines.

(3) The uniform and equipment shall remain the property of the Authority.

(4) Officers and members shall provide their own trousers, which should be of dark-blue cloth with a strip of scarlet braid five-eighths of an inch wide covering the outside seam, and shall not be more than 20 inches wide over the instep.

(5) Officers and members shall use reasonable care in keeping uniforms clean and in good order.

(6) Officers and members shall not lend a uniform or any part of it to any person not in the service.

(7) Flowers shall not be worn in coats and tan boots shall not be worn.

(8) Officers and members shall not at any time appear dressed partly in uniform and partly in plain clothes, except in cases of emergency at fires.

(9) Full uniforms shall be worn at inspections made by the Chief Officer, or any other officer deputed for that purpose by the Authority or Chief Officer.

(10) Long-service awards shall be worn on the left breast of the uniform coat.

(11) Captains may wear a set of double brass scale epaulettes; and Lieutenants may wear a set of single brass scale epaulettes.

(12) Members must return to the captain of the brigade or to the Authority or the Chief Officer all uniform equipment in their possession forthwith upon being instructed to do so. If any member fails to return any such uniform equipment forthwith upon ceasing to be a member, or within seven days from the date of any such instruction to him, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

Long-service Awards.

61. (1) Officers and members of brigades who shall have efficiently served as registered firemen for not less than twelve years in any one or more brigades under the Country Fire Brigades Board, the Bush Fire Brigades Committee, and/or the Authority, shall be entitled to the Long-Service Badge; and officers and members of brigades who shall have similarly served for not less than ten years shall be entitled, on retirement, to a certificate setting forth the term of service. Firemen with twenty years' service may wear a red clasp below the badge; with 25 years' service an additional white clasp; and with 30 years' service an additional blue clasp. Applications for badges, certificates, and clasps must be made on the forms provided by the Authority for such purpose, and they must be certified to by the applicant and the captain and the secretary of the brigade.

(2) Captains of urban brigades with not less than five years' service as captain under the Country Fire Brigades Board and/or the Authority, and not less than ten years' service in all, shall be entitled to retain and wear their uniform, and to wear an ex-captain's badge. Firemen with not less than twenty years' service, including not less than ten years under the Country Fire Brigades Board or the Authority shall be entitled to retain and wear their uniforms. Service as a reserve member is not to be counted in the periods of service mentioned in this Regulation.

(3) The Authority may, however, in its discretion, withhold the above privileges if the applicant shall at any time have been adjudged guilty of any offence against the Regulations.

62. Upon receipt of statutory declarations by not less than two witnesses of the action of any officer of the Authority or any registered officer or member of any brigade in saving (or attempting to save) human life at grave risk to his own, and after due inquiry, the Authority may award to such officer or member a gilt medal called the "Valor Medal," bearing on the obverse a fireman rescuing a child and on the reverse the seal of the Authority, and suspended by a red and blue ribbon. The medal shall be worn on all ceremonial occasions fastened to the right breast of the jacket. Valor Medal.

63. (1) Plant and appliances and supplies required by any brigade shall be requisitioned for to the Authority. Requisitions shall be issued on the authority of a properly constituted meeting of the brigade only. Requisitions for Equipment, Supplies and Repairs.

(2) A receipt for all plant and appliances and supplies received shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Authority, and particulars of same entered in a book to be kept for that purpose by the secretary of each brigade.

(3) Urgent repairs to plant may be effected by the brigade without requisition, provided the cost does not exceed Two pounds. Where the repairs involve a larger expenditure or where the repairs are not urgently required requisition must be made to the Authority.

64. (1) All moneys received by or on behalf of a brigade from any source whatsoever shall be paid into an account in the name of the brigade, to be kept at a savings bank or other bank. Brigade Funds.

(2) All payments by or on behalf of the brigade shall be made out of such account by means of withdrawal form or cheque (as the case may require) drawn against such account, and signed by the captain and secretary.

(3) All such receipts and payments shall be recorded in the brigade cash book.

65. Before forwarding any account or claim for payment by the Authority, the captain (or officer in charge) and secretary (or other officer nominated by the Authority) shall check such account or claim and certify as to whether or not it is correct, and whether or not the goods or services embraced by the aforesaid account or claim have been received in good order or performed satisfactorily, whichever is the case. Certification of Accounts.

66. In the event of any brigade attending a fire in a vessel, the owner or the master or agents shall be liable to pay to the Authority an amount, to be determined by the Authority, but not exceeding the following maximum scale of fees and charges:— Charges for Attendances at Fires in Vessels.

	For first hour or part thereof.	For second hour or part thereof.	For each succeeding hour or part thereof.

Attendances of Firemen in Public Buildings.

69. (1) Where by the Health Act 1928, any other enactment, or the Regulations thereunder, or at the request of the owner or occupier, the attendance of firemen is required at public buildings or places of public entertainment, every such fireman appointed to attend shall be a registered active fireman approved by the Chief Officer of urban brigades. He shall attend in uniform, shall see that the fire prevention appliances and the exit doors are in proper working order, and shall perform such other duties for the prevention of fire or of panic as are prescribed or as the Chief Officer may direct.

(2) For the services of each fireman in attendance a fee of Five shillings shall be payable for every performance at which he is required to be in attendance from not earlier than 7.15 o'clock p.m. until not later than 11 o'clock p.m., or for not exceeding three and three-quarters hours irrespective of the time of commencement. For every night performance at which any fireman is required to be in attendance before 7.15 p.m., and for every performance in respect of which attendance is required for more than three and three-quarters hours, an extra fee of 2s. 6d. in respect of each such fireman for each additional hour or portion thereof shall be payable.

(3) The fees shall be payable by the owner or occupier of the building at which any fireman attends to every such fireman at the close of each performance, and in the event of non-payment may be recovered by the Authority in a court of petty sessions as a civil debt recoverable summarily or in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Travelling expenses.
Urban and Rural
Brigades
Associations.

70. (1) The Authority shall pay the personal and travelling expenses actually incurred (but not exceeding the limits fixed herein) by not more than twelve members of each of the governing bodies of the Urban Fire Brigades Association and of the Rural Fire Brigades Association in relation to their attendance at not more than six meetings of the relevant association in any year.

(2) The maximum amount of personal and travelling expenses payable to any such member shall be—

(a) Where the place of meeting is more than twenty miles from the usual place of residence of the member, personal expenses at the rate of Seventeen shillings for each day such member is necessarily absent from his usual place of residence but not exceeding Two pounds two shillings in respect of his attendance at any one meeting.

(b) Where travelling from the usual place of residence of a member to the place of meeting is necessary, an amount equal to first-class rail fare from the railway station nearest to the place of residence of such member to the railway station nearest to the place of meeting and return.

(3) The President (or Chairman) and Secretary of each of the aforesaid Governing Bodies shall within seven days after the date of each of the meetings referred to in these Regulations deliver or post to the office of the Authority a claim in writing for personal and travelling expenses containing—

(a) The date and place of the meeting, the names of the members who attended, and the place of residence of each such member.

(b) The amount of the personal and travelling expenses actually incurred by each such member.

(c) A certificate signed by the aforesaid President (or Chairman) and Secretary that the claim is true and correct.

(4) The Secretary of each afore-mentioned Governing Body shall obtain an acquittance from each member to whom expenses are paid, and shall forward such acquittances to the Authority within seven days after the date of such payment.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

APPLICATION FOR THE REGISTRATION OF A FIRE BRIGADE, AND FOR THE ENROLMENT OF THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS THEREOF.

To the Secretary,

Country Fire Authority,
60 Market-street,
Melbourne.

Sir,

At a public meeting held at _____ on the _____ a resolution was carried by a majority of those present in favour of this application for the registration of an urban fire brigade with headquarters at _____ and for the enrolment of the under-mentioned persons as officers and firemen of the brigade when registered.

Yours faithfully,

Chairman.

Secretary.

Consecutive Number.	Surname.	Christian Names.	Office Proposed.	Date of Birth.	Place of Residence.	Occupation.

Country Fire Authority.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

COUNTRY FIRE AUTHORITY ACT 1944.—CERTIFICATE OF REGISTRATION.

This is to certify that the _____ Fire Brigade was registered by the Authority on the _____ as _____ fire brigade class _____ in the _____ Fire Control Region.
On behalf of the Authority,

Chairman.

Secretary.

Dated at Melbourne, the _____ day of _____ 19 _____

NOTE.—This certificate is the property of the Country Fire Authority, and must be returned to the Authority within seven days from the date (if any) upon which the registration of the brigade is cancelled, upon which the brigade is disbanded or amalgamated with any other brigade, or otherwise ceases to exist, or upon which the brigade is re-classified.

Country Fire Authority.

FOURTH SCHEDULE.

MODEL RULES FOR THE INTERNAL MANAGEMENT OF VOLUNTEER FIRE BRIGADE.

Objects.

1. The objects of this brigade shall be the saving of lives and property from fire, the prevention of fires and damage by fire, and the extinction of fires.

Election of Members.

2. In filling vacancies in the list of registered members of urban brigades, preference shall be given to reserve members who have served for longer than three months and have during their service attended most diligently to the work of the brigade. Candidates for election as active registered members shall be proposed and seconded by active registered members at any monthly meeting, and shall be balloted for at the same or the next succeeding monthly meeting.

Upon a candidate receiving a majority of the votes of the active registered members present and voting, he shall be declared elected, and the secretary shall forthwith forward his application for registration to the Authority.

Provided that a majority of the active registered members of any urban brigade present and voting may admit an eligible registered transferee from another brigade in preference to any reserve member whose service is less than the registered service of the said transferee.

Candidates for election, as reserve members of urban brigades shall be proposed and seconded by active registered members at any monthly meeting, and shall be balloted for at the same or the next succeeding monthly meeting. Upon a candidate receiving a majority of the votes of the active registered members present and voting, he shall be declared elected, and the secretary shall forthwith forward his application for registration to the Authority.

Duties of Members.

3. (1) All members shall become conversant with the Regulations of the Country Fire Authority, and shall acquire a thorough knowledge of their duties, responsibilities, and privileges as set out therein. They shall attend fires and alarms of fire, practices, meetings, and plug inspections, give implicit obedience to the commands of the officers, refrain from using improper language and be courteous in their demeanour to all members of their own and other brigades.

(2) Any member unable to attend a meeting or practice shall forward a written apology to the Secretary of the brigade, but this shall not be counted as equivalent to an attendance.

(3) Except by resolution of the brigade no member shall divulge any business transacted by the brigade or committees of the same to any persons not being members of the brigade.

(4) Except by resolution of the brigade no member shall write or speak for publication on any matter concerning the brigade.

(5) Members when on duty shall address officers correctly by their official titles.

(6) When on duty at fires, practices, plug inspections, drills, parades, meetings or otherwise the greatest degree of silence compatible with efficiency shall be observed.

(7) In urban brigades full uniform shall be worn at all meetings, parades, practices, plug inspections and at all other times when on duty, including fires and alarms when practicable.

(8) The penalties for misconduct on the part of registered members shall be as set out in the Regulations of the Authority.

(9) Any urban brigade may by resolution request the Authority to remove from the roll any reserve member who has not attended at least two-thirds of the fires and regulation practices in any half-year or who has not, in the opinion of the brigade, proved efficient or who has left the district without obtaining leave of absence, and such member shall be ineligible for re-admission for a period of six months after the date when he was removed from the roll.

(10) Any member removing to a new place of residence or changing his address shall forthwith notify the secretary of the brigade in writing.

(11) (a) Any urban brigade may grant leave of absence not exceeding one month to any registered member who applies for leave in writing, and shall forward to the Authority and recommend or otherwise any application for leave of absence exceeding one month.

(b) In rural brigades leave of absence shall be granted in accordance with the Regulations of the Authority.

(12) Members wishing to resign shall submit their resignations in writing to the brigade for transmission to the Authority, and shall forthwith deliver to the secretary of the brigade all uniform equipment and all other property of the Authority or the brigade in their possession. The brigade may recommend to the Authority that a registered member who has left the district without obtaining leave of absence or sending in his resignation be treated as having resigned.

Elections of Officers.

4. (1) Nominations for the positions of officers shall in the case of any rural brigade be invited at the meeting of the brigade in September in each alternate year, and in the case of an urban brigade in the month of October in each alternate year, and an election by ballot shall be held forthwith if there be more than one candidate for any office. A simple majority shall be sufficient to secure election.

(2) Nominations to fill any casual vacancy shall be called at the first monthly meeting after the occurrence of the vacancy, and if there be more than one candidate for such vacancy an election by ballot shall be conducted at the same monthly meeting.

(3) Active registered members only may vote at an election of officers.

Duties of Officers.

The President of a Rural Brigade.

5. (1) The brigade may elect a president at the biennial election of officers of brigades. The president shall hold office for a term corresponding with that for which the officers of the brigades are elected pursuant to the Regulations, and shall preside at all meetings of the brigade and committees of the same. The president shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote. In the absence of the president, the captain of the brigade shall preside and shall be vested with the powers of president. In the absence of both president and captain, the officer of the brigade next in seniority shall preside and shall be vested with the powers of president.

The Captain of an Urban Brigade.

(2) In addition to those duties set out in the Regulations of the Authority, the captain shall preside at all meetings of the brigade and committees of the same. The captain shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote. In the absence of the captain the officer next in seniority shall preside and be vested with the powers of captain.

The Secretary.

6. In addition to those duties set out in the Regulations of the Authority the secretary shall give notice in the manner ordered by the brigade to all members of any special parade or meeting. He shall keep an account of the receipts and expenditure of the brigade, and shall prepare for audit before the 7th January in each year a summary of such receipts and expenditure for the preceding year ended 31st December, supported by proper books and vouchers. He shall report to each monthly meeting of the brigade and record in the minutes the balances in the brigade accounts with the bankers, supported by bankers' certificate.

Auditors.

7. Two auditors shall be elected by the brigade at the meeting in December in each year. They shall annually, or at such other periods less than a year as may be ordered by the brigade, examine the books and accounts and certify to their correctness or otherwise.

Honorary Members.

8. Any person subscribing not less than £1 ls. per annum to the brigade may be elected an honorary member.

Meetings.Urban Brigades.

9. (1) The brigade shall meet at the fire station or other place of assembly as decided by resolution on a regular day in each month at 8 o'clock p.m. and no notice of such monthly meetings shall be necessary.

General.

(2) The captain may call a special meeting whenever he deems it necessary, and must do so upon receipt of a requisition signed by five members of the brigade specifying the objects of the meeting. Should the captain fail to call a special meeting within three days of the receipt of a proper requisition to do so, the secretary shall call such meeting forthwith.

Notices of any special meeting shall be given at least 48 hours before such meeting by advertisement in the press or by post. No business other than that specified in the notice shall be transacted at any special meeting.

Quorum.

10. Half the registered members of the brigade shall form a quorum for any brigade meeting and two-thirds of the members of any committee shall form a quorum for meetings of such committee.

Order of Business.

11. The order of business at all meetings shall be as follows:—

- (1) Reading and confirmation of minutes.
- (2) Inward and outward correspondence.
- (3) Passing accounts.
- (4) Consideration of written reports.
- (5) Proposal of candidates for election.
- (6) Election of officers and members.
- (7) Motions of which proper notice has been given.
- (8) General business.
- (9) Notices of motion.

Roll call to be held at 8.30 p.m. or 30 minutes after the time notified for commencement of the meeting.

Rules of Debate.

12. At all meetings the order of debate should be as follows:—

- (a) No motion shall be discussed until it is seconded and stated to the meeting by the chairman.
- (b) When a motion is under discussion, no matter foreign to the question shall be admitted until a decision of the meeting on the motion is announced from the chair.
- (c) A motion to adjourn either debate or meeting shall always be in order.
- (d) Each member desiring to speak shall rise and, in the first place, address himself to the chair.
- (e) Unless permitted by the meeting, no member shall speak more than once except in explanation of or reply to the question before the chair. The proposer of any motion, however, shall have the right of reply.
- (f) In the event of two members rising at the same time, the chairman shall decide who is in possession of the meeting.
- (g) No member shall propose more than one amendment upon a motion.

Notices of Motion.

13. Every notice of motion must be given in writing, signed by the mover, to the secretary at the monthly meeting preceding the meeting at which the motion is to be discussed. No discussion shall be permitted upon any such motion until it has been seconded.

Practices.Urban Brigades.

14. (1) The brigade shall meet for practice on a regular day in each month at 8 p.m. The roll shall be called at 8.30 p.m. and any member not then present shall be marked absent.

It shall not be necessary to give notice of any regular monthly practice.

The captain shall have power to call a special general practice whenever he deems it necessary. Notice of special general practices shall be given verbally at the preceding meeting of the brigade or in the manner prescribed for notice of special meetings.

Members shall continue at practice until dismissed by the captain.

Rural Brigades.

(2) Practices shall be held at such times and places as may be ordered by the captain of the brigade from time to time, which shall be notified to members as decided upon by resolution of the brigade.

Bankers.

15. The brigade shall have the control and removal of the bankers. All payments of £1 and over shall be made by cheque upon the bankers of the brigade, signed by the captain and secretary.

Death of Members—Urban Brigades.

16. In the event of the death of any member of the brigade, the bell shall be tolled during the funeral procession, and the flag shall be hoisted half mast. Each member shall be expected to follow the deceased to the place of interment in full uniform.

Suspension or Alteration of the Rules.

17. None of these rules shall be altered, revoked or suspended except by the authority of two-thirds of the registered members present at a monthly meeting of the brigade, and by motion of which due notice has been given. All alterations in the rules shall be subject to the approval of the Country Fire Authority.

Whistle Signals.

18. (1) One Call.—To go on, if on the road; to commence work, if at a fire.
- (2) Two Calls.—To stop, if on the road; to cease working, if at a fire.
- (3) Three Calls.—To coil up and place appliances on their respective carriages.
- (4) Continuous Whistling.—All hands to muster round the officer in charge.

And the Honorable Herbert John Thornhill Hyland, His Majesty's Chief Secretary for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. W. KINSMAN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

 (b) Every permit aforesaid shall be signed by the officer by whom it is granted and such officer shall—
 (i) post a copy (duplicate) thereof forthwith upon the issue of such permit to the officer in charge of the fire brigade the headquarters of which are nearest to the land upon which the burning is to take place; and
 (ii) retain in his possession a copy (triplicate) which he shall produce for inspection forthwith on demand by the Authority or any officer or servant thereof.
7. Every such permit may be revoked at any time by the Authority, a Chief Officer or other officer exercising the powers of Chief Officer, or by the proper officer by whom the permit was granted, and shall be surrendered to any one of such officers forthwith upon demand by him. Revocation of Permit.

Conditions
and Restrictions
applicable to Permits under section 38.

8. The following conditions and restrictions shall apply to any permit issued pursuant to section 38 of the Act; that is to say:—

- (a) Before the main fire is lighted a firebreak comprising one ploughed strip at least 15 feet wide or alternatively comprising two ploughed strips each at least 5 feet wide and at least 5 feet apart with such intervening space cleared by burning against the wind at least 24 hours before the main body is lighted, shall be made around the whole of the land upon which the burning is to take place, and around all trees and timber less than 100 feet within the boundary of the area to be burnt;

Provided that no such firebreak shall be constructed or partly constructed by burning unless permission to do so is included in the permit granted pursuant to this clause.

- (b) Not less than 24 hours before the fire is lighted, notice in writing of intention to burn, in the form of the Fifth Schedule hereto or to the like effect shall be given by the holder of any such permit to the owners or occupiers or persons in charge of any land or building immediately adjoining the land whereon such burning is to take place or separated therefrom only by a road and to the officer in charge of the nearest fire brigade. If notice as aforesaid cannot be given to any person to whom notice is required by this paragraph to be given, by reason of the absence of such person from his place of residence or for any other reasonable cause, notice as aforesaid shall in lieu thereof be given to the member of the Police Force in charge of the police station nearest to the land whereon the burning is to take place.
- (c) At least three men equipped with adequate fire fighting appliances and with an adequate supply of water shall be present at the fire, from the time it is lighted until it is thoroughly extinguished, to assist in keeping it under control and prevent it from spreading beyond the land whereon the burning is to take place.
- (d) No such fire shall be lighted before Four o'clock in afternoon and every such fire shall be thoroughly extinguished before sunrise on the following day.
- (e) No such fire shall be lighted at any time if at that time the shade temperature in the vicinity exceeds 90 deg. Fahrenheit, or if the wind velocity exceeds that of a very light breeze.
- (f) The fire shall be first lighted from the leeward side of the vegetation to be burnt before the fire shall be lighted from the windward side of such vegetation.

Permit to Burn
Charcoal.

9. (1) Every permit granted, pursuant to section 39 of the Act, to any person to light a fire in the open air for the purpose of converting wood into charcoal shall contain the conditions and restrictions hereinafter prescribed.

(2) Every person to whom a permit as aforesaid is granted shall—

- (a) Clear the ground within a radius of 50 feet (or such further distance as the proper officer may require in writing) of the site of any kiln, retort or pit used for the purpose aforesaid of any inflammable material whatsoever, whether growing or not growing before a fire is lighted.
- (b) Maintain in suitable containers in a readily accessible position at the site of the said kiln, retort or pit such volume of water not being less than 40 gallons as may be endorsed on the permit in writing by the proper officer.
- (c) Have in his possession at such site and maintain in an effective condition not less than three fire rakes, one 2-gallon bucket, one knapsack spray pump, and such additional equipment as may be endorsed on the permit in writing by the proper officer.
- (d) Comply with any special conditions or restrictions endorsed on the permit in writing by the proper officer.
- (e) Cease operations whenever required to do so by the Chief Officer or proper officer.

(f) In the event of an outbreak of fire in the vicinity of the said kiln, retort or pit do everything that is reasonably within his power to prevent such fire from spreading and as soon as possible report the existence of such fire to the nearest fire brigade or member of the Police Force.

10. Any officer empowered to grant a permit may impose such further conditions and restrictions as he shall think fit: Provided that no such condition or restriction shall be inconsistent with the provisions of the Act or the Regulations thereunder, and that every such condition and restriction shall be inserted in writing upon the permit in the space provided.

Power of Proper Officer or Chief Officer to impose further conditions
and
restrictions.

11. The holder of a permit to burn shall, upon demand, produce that permit to a Chief Officer or other officer exercising the powers of Chief Officer, to a proper officer or to the captain of any brigade, or to a member of the Police Force.

Permit to be produced.

12. (a) Every notice to an owner or occupier to remove fire hazards or to clear fire breaks pursuant to section 42 of the Act shall be in the form of the Fourth Schedule hereto.

Direction to remove Fire Hazards or clear Fire Breaks.

(b) Every notice aforesaid shall be signed by the proper officer by whom it is issued and such officer shall—

(i) post a copy (duplicate) thereof forthwith upon the issue of the notice to the officer in charge of the fire brigade the headquarters of which are nearest to the land from which the hazards are to be removed or upon which the firebreaks are to be cleared; and

(ii) retain in his possession a copy (triplicate) which he shall produce for inspection forthwith on demand by the Authority or any officer or servant thereof.

CITY OF MELBOURNE.

By-Law No. 267.

A By-law of the City of Melbourne, made under Part VII., Division I., of the Local Government Act 1928, and numbered 267, to amend By-law No. 224.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Local Government Act and by every other Act or power enabling it in that behalf, the Council of the City of Melbourne order as follows:—

1. This By-law shall, from and after the date of the same coming into operation, be read and construed as one with By-law No. 224, and any By-law amending the same.

2. After paragraph (ii) of clause 2 of By-law No. 224 there shall be inserted the following paragraph:—

"(iii) If the owner of any house or building which abuts upon any public footway in any street within that part of the City of Melbourne particularly described in the said Schedule, and against or in front of which house or building a verandah supported otherwise than by cantilever brackets or projecting supports has, before the 30th day of June, 1945, been erected or placed upon, over, or across such footway, applies, in writing, to the Council for permission to postpone the pulling down and removal of such verandah to a date later than the 30th day of June, 1945, but prior to the 30th day of June, 1948, the Council may, if the Surveyor is of the opinion that such verandah is in good repair, grant such permission to such owner, and such owner shall pull down and remove such verandah before the postponed date mentioned in such permission. Provided that if such owner shall not pull down and remove such verandah before such postponed date then such permission shall not affect the validity of, or be deemed to have waived any notice give to such owner prior to the date of such permission in respect of any requirements pursuant to any By-law, nor shall it affect any offence committed or liability incurred by such owner under any By-law, or any power of the Council under any By-law or Statute."

Resolution for passing this By-law agreed to by the Council of the City of Melbourne, the 14th day of May, 1945, and confirmed the 11th day of June, 1945.

SHIRE OF NUMURKAH.

By-Law No. 43.

A By-law of the Shire of Numurkah, made under the provisions of the Local Government Acts, and numbered 43, for—

- (1) Prohibiting the depositing or leaving of refuse or rubbish on streets, roads, lanes, or passages;
- (2) prohibiting or regulating the depositing or leaving of refuse or rubbish on any land; and
- (3) requiring the removal or destruction by the owner or occupier of any land of refuse or rubbish thereon, other than refuse or rubbish the removal of which the Council has undertaken or contracted for under section 39 of the Health Act 1928.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Local Government Acts, the President, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the Shire of Numurkah do hereby order as follows:—

1. No person shall deposit or leave, or cause or permit to be deposited or left, any refuse or rubbish on any street, lane, road, or passage within the Municipal District of the Shire of Numurkah.

2. No person shall deposit or leave, or cause or permit to be deposited or left, any refuse or rubbish on any land within the said Municipal District.

3. The owner or occupier of any land upon which any refuse or rubbish has been deposited or left shall remove or destroy such refuse or rubbish within four days after the service on such owner or occupier of a notice, in writing, from the Council, over the signature of the Shire Secretary, requiring such owner or occupier so to do.

4. In the event of default being made by such owner or occupier in complying with such notice within the time aforesaid, and notwithstanding the imposition or recovery of any penalty, the Council may, by its Inspector, with a sufficient number of workmen, enter upon any land upon which refuse or rubbish has been deposited or left, and for that purpose break down any fence surrounding the said land on which such refuse or rubbish has been deposited or left, and remove or destroy such refuse or rubbish, and any expenses incurred by the Council in so doing shall be paid by the owner or occupier of the said land to the Council on demand, and in default of payment such expenses may be recovered by the Council from such owner or occupier in a Court of Petty Sessions.

5. Every person who shall be guilty of an offence against any of the provisions of this By-law shall be liable for every first offence to a penalty not exceeding Two pounds, and for every subsequent offence to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds. In the event of any offence being continued after a conviction or order imposed or made on or against such persons by any Court, such person shall be liable to a further penalty of One pound for each day such offence is continued.

6. In this By-law the words "street," "road," "lane," or "passage" shall mean and include any street, road, lane, or passage within the said Municipal District, whether or not the same be a public highway or set out on private property, or made or unmade, or under the care and management of the Council.

7. (a) Every notice which by this By-law is required to be given to the owner or occupier of any land shall be addressed to the owner or occupier of any such land, and shall—

1. If such owner or occupier, and his residence in either case, are known to the Council, be served on such owner or occupier, or left with some adult inmate of his abode.

2. If such owner and his residence are not known to the Council be served on the occupier (if any) of such land, or left with some adult inmate of his abode, or if there is no occupier, be put up on some conspicuous part of any such land.

3. If such occupier and his residence are not known to the Council, be put on some conspicuous part of such land.

(b) But any such notice may also be served by post, by prepaid letter addressed to such owner or occupier, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that such notice was addressed to the usual or last known place of abode or business of such owner or occupier and was put into the post.

8. This By-law shall apply to and have operation throughout the whole of the Municipal District of the Shire of Numurkah.

The Resolution for passing this By-law was agreed to by the Council of the said Shire of Numurkah on the 4th day of June, 1945, and was confirmed by the said Council on the 9th day of July, 1945.

In witness whereof the seal of the said Council was affixed hereto, on the 9th day of July, 1945, in the presence of—
