PROVISIONS APPLICABLE ONLY TO PERSONS EMPLOYED IN OIL, GREASE, AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS STORES.

HOURS.

5. Forty-four hours shall constitute a week's work, and they shall be worked as follows:—Eight hours per day from Monday to Friday, both inclusive, and four hours on Saturday, to be worked between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5.30 p.m. Monday to Friday both inclusive, and between the hours of 7 a.m. and noon on Saturday.

Provided that it shall be optional for an employer to work either a six-day or a five-day week. When a five-day week is worked, the daily hours on Monday to Friday, both inclusive, shall not exceed 8 hours 48 minutes, within the hours provided in the immediately preceding paragraph, without the payment of the overtime rate.

Subject to the above, the hours of starting and knocking off may be fixed by each employer, but having once been fixed they shall not be altered without seven days' notice to the employees.

SHIFT WORK.

6. Where the industry necessitates a continuous process, three shifts of eight hours each may be worked. Employees working on such shifts shall be paid 8s. per week in addition to the rates prescribed in clause 4 (a) hereof. Overtime is to be calculated on the basis only of an excess of eight hours, except where overtime is worked on Sundays and holidays, subject, however, to the provisions of clause 10 of this Determination.

Employees required for duty in connexion with the loading of tank waggons and fully assembled composite waggons with petroleum products in bulk or drums or packages may be employed on shifts, and when so employed shall be paid 8s. per week in addition to the rates prescribed in clause 4 (a) of this Determination, provided that such shift work extends over one calendar month. Five shifts of eight hours, including crib time of half an hour, and one shift of four hours shall constitute a week's work.

OVERTIME.

7. The rates of pay for overtime shall be:—

- (a) For Sundays and holidays, and after 12.30 p.m. Saturdays, double time;
- (b) For all work done outside ordinary hours, except as provided in sub-clause (a) hereof, the rates of wage shall be time and a half for the first three hours and double time thereafter, such double time to continue to be paid until an employee has been relieved from work for at least eight hours. Provided that an employee assisting in the discharge of tankers shall not be entitled to payment for such rest period.
- (c) Provided that all meal hours, if worked, shall be paid for at double time, and such double time shall continue until a meal time is allowed. Provided further that, when work ceases $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours or less after the usual knock off time, time and a half only shall be paid.

This latter provision shall not operate for work comprised in sub-clause (a) hereof.

Provided further that, when circumstances warrant, any employer and any employee may mutually agree to continue working after $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours at the rate of time and a half, but such period of extended working time shall not exceed 30 minutes without a break for a meal.

MEAL HOURS.

8. One hour on Monday to Friday, both inclusive, shall be allowed for each meal. Provided that should any employer and the union agree, the meal hour may be shortened to meet the exigencies of transport.

The hours for breakfast and dinner shall be fixed in each case by mutual arrangement, but having once been fixed, they shall not be altered without seven days' notice to the employees.

The interval for tea shall be within the hour succeeding the usual finishing time.

The interval for supper shall be between midnight and 1 a.m.

MEAL ALLOWANCE.

9. (a) Weekly and casual employees when called upon to work overtime shall be allowed 2s. for each meal unless they have been notified before ceasing work on the previous day of intention to work overtime.

(b) Should an employee be notified of intention to work overtime the following working day, and is not called upon to work overtime, then such employee shall be paid the meal allowance of 2s.

(c) Should an employee be called upon to work overtime without receiving notice on the previous day of the intention to work such overtime, and when such overtime ceases $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours or less after the usual knock off time, then the meal allowance of 2s. provided in sub-clause (a) hereof shall not be payable.

HOLIDAYS.

10. The following days shall, subject to the following proviso, be recognized as holidays:—Union Picnic Day, and all gazetted public holidays, provided that any employer requiring to deliver goods on picnic day, shall have the right to employ, without extra payment, up to 10.30 a.m. on that day, as many men as he deems necessary for that purpose.

Provided further that none of the days mentioned in the preceding paragraph, except Picnic Day, shall be observed as holidays if the Railways Goods Yards are open for receipt of ordinary goods on those days. The employer shall notify the employees as early as possible of the observance or otherwise of each such holiday.

No reduction in payment shall be made from the wages of weekly employees for the holidays mentioned in this clause.

ANNUAL LEAVE.

11. (a) Employees shall be entitled to one week's leave, exclusive of any public holidays as provided in clause 10, on full pay at the expiration of each twelve months' service. The annual leave provided by this clause shall be allowed, and shall be taken within three months of such leave falling due, and payment shall not be made or accepted in lieu of annual leave.

Provided that when an employee leaves or is dismissed before the expiration of twelve months, he shall be paid one-sixth of a week's wages for each completed two months' service.

(b) Each employee, before going on leave, shall be paid a week's wage. For the purpose of this sub-clause, the week's wage shall be at the rate at which the employee was ordinarily employed immediately prior to the commencement of his leave or the termination of his employment, as the case may be.

(c) When the right to annual leave has accrued the employer shall give not less than one week's notice to the employee concerned of his intention to grant such leave.

(d) Service for qualification for annual leave shall date from the 1st day of November, 1940.
