TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT.

7. (a) The contract of hiring of all employees shall, in the absence of an express contract to the contrary, be by the week.

(b) Employment of all employees whose contract of hiring is by the week shall be terminable only by a week's notice on either side. Provided that such notice may be given at any time. And provided also that during the season two days' notice (or payment of two days' pay in lieu thereof), which may be given at any time, shall be a sufficient notice of the termination of a contract of hiring by the week. And provided further that nothing hereinbefore contained shall disentitle an employer from dismissing any employee summarily and without notice where the employee has been found by the employer or his agent to be malingering, inefficient to do the work for which he has been engaged, neglectful of his duty, or to have misconducted or to be misconducting himself, and in such a case wages shall be payable up to the time of dismissal only. And provided further that the employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day upon which, because of a strike or of any breakdown of machinery or stoppage of work for any reason for which the employer cannot be held responsible, the employee cannot be usefully employed.

PROHIBITION OF CONTRACT WORK.

8. An employee shall not perform work (except as herein provided) by contracting, sub-contracting, sub-letting, or other similar systems.

MIXED FUNCTIONS.

9. Where an employee is put to work at a classification higher in respect of remuneration than that under which such employee was engaged or was deemed to have been working such employee shall be paid for the whole of the time during which such employee is employed at such work at the rate of remuneration prescribed for such higher classification: Provided that such employee shall be paid at the rate prescribed for such higher classification for the whole of the day if such work is performed continuously for over half of the week if such work is performed continuously for over half of the week.

PROPORTION OF JUVENILES.

10. (a) The proportion of male employees under the age of 21 years shall not exceed one to three adult male employees receiving the minimum wage.

(b) The proportion of female employees under the age of 18 years shall not exceed one to three female employees 18 years of age and over receiving the minimum wage.

Hours.

11. (a) 40 hours shall constitute a week's work.

(b) A week's work shall be performed in five days.

(c) The 40 hours shall be worked between 7 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Monday to Friday inclusive.

(d) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, an employer may require any male employee to perform his week's work on night shift. Provided that payment therefor shall be at the rate of time and a quarter. And provided also that where the week's work is performed on night shift of five nights in the week it shall be performed between the hours of 6 p.m. on one day and 7 a.m. on the following day, and between 6 p.m. on a Monday and 7 a.m. on the following Saturday.

12. (a) All time worked before 7 a.m. or after 6 p.m. or in excess of 8 hours in a day or on Saturday shall be paid for at time and a half for the first four hours and double time thereafter.

(b) Where the week's work is performed on night shift of five shifts in a week, all time worked before the usual starting time of a shift or after the usual finishing time of a shift or in excess of 8 hours (which shall be deemed to be the ordinary period of a shift) shall be paid for at one and a half times the night shift rate as prescribed in sub-clause (d) of clause 11 of this Determination for the first four hours and at double such rate thereafter.

(c) All piecework performed on Saturday or before 7 a.m. or after 6 p.m. or in excess of 8 hours on any Monday to Friday inclusive shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first four hours and at double rates thereafter.

(d) An employer may require any employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and the employee shall work overtime in accordance with such requirement.

MEAL INTERVAL.

13. No employee shall work more than 5 hours without a suitable interval for a meal, but this provision shall not apply where the employee finishes work for the day at or before 1 p.m. on Saturdays, or where on Monday to Friday inclusive a female employee ceases work at or before 6 p.m., and a male employee finishes work at or before 6.30 p.m.

MORNING AND AFTERNOON TEA.

14. Females shall be allowed morning and afternoon tea at such times and in such manner as shall not interfere with the continuous running of the factory.

HOLIDAYS DEFINED.

15. (a) The following days shall be holidays:—New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labor Day, King's Birthday, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, Union Pienic Day (to be observed during the period from 1st June to 16th November). Provided that in the metropolitan area of Melbourne and the City of Bendigo respectively, Melbourne Cup Day (in the case of the former) and Sunday School Pienic Day (in the case of the latter) may be continued as a holiday instead of Union Pienic

(b) Employees whose contract of hiring is by the week shall suffer no deduction from their pay on account of not working on any of such holidays.

(c) An employee whose contract of hiring is by the week and who is dismissed within seven days of any of the said holidays and is re-engaged within fourteen days after the said holiday shall be paid for such holiday; and in the case of the said holiday being Christmas Day or Good Friday and the re-engagement being within fourteen days of the following New Year's Day or Easter Monday, as the case may be, the employee shall be paid for each of the intervening holidays.

(d) Piece-workers shall be paid for any of the abovementioned holidays not worked at the ordinary rates payable to employees on time-work doing the class of work at which during the week in which such holiday occurs the piece-workers in question are employed.

employed.
(e) Should any other day be by Act of Parliament or proclamation substituted for any of the above-mentioned holidays, the day so substituted shall for all purposes be deemed to be a holiday within the scope, meaning, and intention of this clause.

RATES FOR SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS.

16. (a) All work other than piecework performed on Sundays and holidays shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(b) All piecework performed on Sundays and holidays shall be paid for at the rate of rate and a half.

TEA MONEY.

- 17. (a) An employee required to work overtime beyond 5.45 p.m. shall either be supplied with a meal by the employer or be paid 2s. 6d., but should such employee refuse to work a minimum of two hours' overtime if so required by the employer, such employee shall forfeit his right to the payment hereinbefore prescribed.
- (b) A shift worker who is required to work overtime for more than 1½ hours after the usual ceasing time shall be supplied with a meal by the employer or paid 2/6 as an allowance therefor.

IMPLEMENTS AND COVERINGS.

- 18. (a) The employer shall provide all brushes, spoons, knives, and other necessary implements and materials requisite for the work of employees. Such implements and materials, if not returned by the employee on the employer's demand, shall be paid for by the employees at reasonable rates.
- (b) Employees engaged in the preparation of lemons and pineapples or in connexion with the handling of hot jam or preserves or packing empty tins into cases shall be provided by the employer with gloves as may be reasonably required. Such gloves shall be returned by the employee to the employer on demand, and in default thereof the employee shall pay for them at a reasonable rate.
- (c) Where the employer requires an employee to wear a cap, overalls, or uniform of any description such shall be provided by the employer, free of charge, and shall be kept laundered by the employer. Such cap, overalls, or uniform shall be returned on demand, or in default the employee shall pay for same at a reasonable rate.
- (d) Employees required to work in the rain or in places or at work where the employees' clothes become wet shall be provided with waterproof overalls or aprons and waterproof footwear.

FIRST AID.

19. First-aid outfits are to be kept at readily accessible points in every establishment, and where twenty or more persons are employed one of them shall be a competent first-aid man.

DINING-ROOMS AND CONVENIENCES.

- 20. (a) The employer shall provide suitable dining-room accommodation for employees who desire to remain at the premises of the factory during the meal interval.
- (b) The employer shall provide and maintain adequate sanitary and lavatory accommodation for employees, including wash-basins and showers supplied with hot and cold water.
- (c) The employer shall provide a locker, capable of being locked, for each employee or in the alternative accommodation for each employees' clothes and effects where such can be left and recovered by each employee without his or her gaining access to the clothes or effects of any other employee.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

21. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Factories and Shops (Annual Holidays) Act 1946, No. 5111, and any amendments which may be made thereto from time to time.

SICK LEAVE.

- 22. (a) An employee who is absent from work on account of his or her own illness or on account of injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his or her employment shall be entitled to leave of absence without deduction of pay, subject to the following conditions and limitations:—
  - (i) He or she shall not be entitled to such leave of absence unless he or she shall have been in the service of the employer concerned for at least three months immediately prior to such absence;
  - (ii) He or she shall not be entitled to such leave of absence for any period in respect of which he or she is entitled to workers' compensation;
  - (iii) He or she shall within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence inform the employer of his or her inability to attend at his or her work and, as far as practicable, state the nature of the illness or injury and the estimated duration of the absence;
  - (iv) He or she shall prove to the satisfaction of the employer (or in the event of any dispute to the Secretary for Labour) that he or she was unable on account of such illness or injury to attend at his or her work on the day or days in respect whereof such leave is claimed. (For the purpose hereof the employer or the Secretary for Labour may require an employee to make a statutory declaration verifying the cause and length of his or her absence);
  - (v) He or she shall not be entitled in any year except as hereinafter provided (whether during such year in the employ of one or more than one employer) to such leave of absence in excess of 40 hours of working time, nor to payment in excess of 40 hours at ordinary rates.
  - (vi) An employee who in any one year of his or her employment with an employer has not been absent from work for 40 hours of working time on account of his or her own illness or on account of injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his or her employment shall be entitled to the benefits of the provisions of this clause of this Determination in a subsequent year of his or her employment with that employer to the extent of the difference between the actual working time so absent due to the aforesaid causes in that year and the maximum period of 40 hours provided for in this clause: Provided however, that sick leave so accumulated shall not exceed 80 hours working time.
- (b) For the purpose of placitum (iv) of sub-clause (a) hereof, an employer may within one month of the coming into operation of this Determination (in respect of employees in his employ at the date of such coming into operation) or within two weeks of an employee entering his employment (in respect of other employees) require an employee to make a statutory declaration or other written statement as to what leave of absence without deduction of pay he or she has had from any employer during the then current year, and the employer shall be entitled to rely and act upon such statement.
- (c) For the purposes of this clause, an employer may arrange with the secretary of the local branch of the Union for the recognition of a specified date as the commencing date of each year, and when so arranged, such date shall be binding for such purposes on the Union, the employer, and his employees. In the absence of any such arrangement, "year" shall mean—
  - (i) In the case of an employee in the service of an employer on the date of the coming into operation of this Determination, a year of service commencing on that date, except in the case where the employer has before that date allowed paid sick leave, when it shall mean the year of service then current;
  - (ii) In other cases, a year of service in the employ of the employer concerned.

(d) A piece-worker shall be entitled to leave of absence subject to the conditions and limitations set out in sub-clause (a) hereof, and in respect thereof shall be paid at the time-work rate appropriate to the work at which he or she would, except for the illness or injury causing absence, have been employed.

LIMITATION OF EMPLOYER'S LIABILITY.

23. Where an employer covered by this Determination has made a payment to an employee, which payment purports to be a payment of the wages payable to the employee for any period, such employer shall not be liable to pay to the employee any further sums prescribed by this Determination in respect to any services rendered to such employer during such period, unless within three calendar months after the last day of such period a demand in writing of such further sum claimed has been given to the employer but the amployee the sum of the by the employee.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

23A. (a) Wages shall be paid weekly.

(b) An employee kept waiting for his wages on pay day for more than ten minutes after the usual time for ceasing shall be paid at overtime rates after that ten minutes, with a minimum of a quarter of an hour.

TIME-BOOK AND INSPECTION.

24. The employer shall provide at the factory a time-book. Such time-book shall contain a correct account of the hours worked and the rates received by each employee, and shall be kept correctly entered up in ink. The secretary or the branch secretary of the Union shall have power to inspect the time-book, and also the right to visit the office of the employer for this purpose, and also for the purpose of investigating any breach or suspected breach of this Determination which is occurring or has occurred, and to interview such employee involved or concerned in the breach or suspected breach of this Determination. The employer shall make available to the officer any employees required by him in connexion with the investigation.

The time of any such visit shall be notified to the employer by the officer prior to his actually going to the office, and the employer shall provide the officer with the necessary facilities for the investigation of the breach or suspected breach of this Determination.

The officer shall interfere with and inconvenience the work and the duties of the employees as little as possible.

Union Notices.

25. At each factory reasonable facilities shall be afforded officers of the Union for the necessary work in connexion therewith, and the Union shall be permitted to post Union meeting notices on a board in each factory in a reasonable manner.

Without affecting the generality of the foregoing paragraph, each employer carrying on principally the industry covered by this Determination shall permit a member of the Union nominated by the general secretary of the Union to enter the part of the factory premises of such employer set apart for meals once a week, on a day to be appointed by such employer, during the meal interval, for the purpose of interviewing members of the Union on matters relating to this Determination. If such authorized person exceeds the limits of his authority, his permit may be terminated by the Secretary for Labour on an application by any employer showing good cause.

PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.

26. Adult Males.—The wages rates set out in clause 2 are based upon the following basic wage ingredient and pursuant to the provisions of Section 21 of the Factories and Shops Act 1934, the Board hereby determines that the rates for adult males shall be automatically adjusted as prescribed by clause 27.

Basic Wage Ingredient.

Adjustment of Basic Wage Ingredient.

- 27. (a) For the purposes of this Determination, the expression "Commonwealth Statistician's 'all items' retail price index numbers" or any like expression means the numbers stated to be such index numbers in any document purporting, and not proved to be wrongly so purporting, to be printed by the Commonwealth Government Printer or to be signed by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Statistician.
- (b) Until the beginning of the first pay period to commence in May, 1949, the amounts of the basic wage ingredient shall be as prescribed in clause 26.
- (c) During each future successive period beginning with the first pay period to commence in a May, an August, a November, or a February, the amount of the needs basic wage shall be adjusted by the following method, namely, by multiplying the last published Commonwealth Statistician's "all items" retail price index number by the factor '087 taken to one place of decimals, the resultant whole number being the amount of the basic wage expressed in shillings, but should the decimal number reach '5 or more the basic wage shall be taken to the next higher shilling.
- (d) Adult Females.—Adult female rates shall be adjusted as follows:—By increasing or decreasing by the amount of the difference from time to time in the basic wage ingredient for females. Such basic wage ingredient shall be 55 per cent. of the basic wage ingredient for males, calculated to the nearest 3d. The weekly wage payable shall be the basic wage ingredient as so obtained plus the margins and loadings shown in clause 28 (b).
- (e) Junior Employees.—The rates of junior employees shall be adjusted from time to time by increasing or decreasing the said rates in the same proportion as any increase or decrease of the male basic wage ingredient of the wages rates per week of adult employees bears to the said basic wage ingredient. Provided that any such adjustment shall be calculated to the nearest 3d.

* Note.—20 per cent. shall be added to the above piecework prices.

**Note,—20 per cent. shall be added to the above piecework prices.

If any other sized tins are used the prices shall be fixed from time to time by the employer and the Union.

For the purpose of this schedule a "standard case" of fruit shall be equivalent to a kerosene case when not filled above the level of the top.

Where a piece-worker has been instructed to commence work on any day and attends and is ready to work, but is prevented from or delayed in completing eight hours piece-work on that day through any cause for which the employer is responsible, such piece-worker shall be entitled to be paid not less than one-sixth of the weekly wage prescribed in this Determination for an adult male, or a juvenile male, or a juvenile female, as the case may be.

P. A. RANDLES. J.P., Chairman.

J. V. WILLOX, Secretary.
