13. (a) Except as hereinafter provided a period of fourteen consecutive days' leave shall be allowed annually to an employee after twelve months' continuous service (less the period of annual leave), as an employee in any one or more of the occupations to which this Determination applies.

Annual Leave Exclusive of Public Holidays.

(b) The annual leave prescribed by this clause shall be exclusive of any of the holidays prescribed by clause 12 of this Determination and if any such holiday falls within an employee's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which, in the case of that employee, would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one working day for each such holiday falling as aforesaid.

(ii) any absence from work on account of personal sickness or accident or on account of leave lawfully granted by the employer; or

(iii) any absence with reasonable cause proof whereof shall be upon the employee.

In respect of absences referred to in paragraph (iii) of sub-clause (d) hereof, the employee shall in addition to his obligations thereunder inform the employer, in writing if practicable, within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence of his inability to attend for duty, the reason for and the estimated duration of such absence.

In calculating the period of twelve months' continuous service any such absence as aforesaid shall not, except to the extent of not more than fourteen days in a twelve-monthly period in the case of sickness or accident, be taken into account in calculating the period of twelve months' continuous service.

Any absence from work by reason of any cause not being a cause specified in this sub-clause shall not be deemed to break the continuity of service for the purposes of this clause unless the employer during the absence or within fourteen days of the termination of the absence notifies the employee in accordance with this sub-clause, that such absence will be regarded as having broken the continuity of service.

In cases of individual absenteeism such notice shall be given in writing to the employee concerned, but in cases of concerted or collective absenteeism notice may be given to employees by the posting up of a notification in the plant, in the manner in which general notifications to employees are usually made in that plant, and by posting to each union whose members have participated in such concerted or collective absenteeism a copy of same not later than the day it is posted up in the plant.

A notice to an individual employee may be given by delivering same to him personally or by posting it to his last recorded address, in which case it shall be deemed to have reached him in due course of post.

Successor or Assignee.

(e) Where the employer is a successor or transferee of a business if an employee was in the employment of the employer's predecessor at the time when he became such successor or assignee or transferee the employee in respect of the period during which he was in the service of the predecessor shall for the purpose of this clause be deemed to be in the service of the employer.

Leave Allowed Before Due Date.

(i) An employer may allow annual leave to an employee before the right thereto has accrued due, but where leave is taken in such a case a further period of annual leave shall not commence until after the expiration of the twelve months in respect of which annual leave had been taken before it accrued.

Where leave has been granted to an employee pursuant to this sub-clause before the right thereto has accrued due and the employee subsequently leaves or is discharged from the service of the employer before completing the twelve months' continuous service in respect of which the leave was granted the employer may for each one complete month of the qualifying period of twelve months not served by the employee deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment one-twelfth of the amount of wage paid on account of the annual leave, which amount shall not include any sums paid for any of the holidays prescribed by clause 12 of this Determination.

Payment for Period of Leave.

(j) Each employee before going on leave shall be paid all wages which would normally become due and payable during the period of leave.

For the purposes of this sub-clause and sub-clauses (k) and (l) hereof wages shall be at the rates prescribed by clauses 2 and 3 of this Determination for the occupation in which the employee was ordinarily employed immediately prior to the commencement of his leave or the termination of his employment, as the case may be. Proportionate Leave on Dismissal.

(k) If, after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period, an employee lawfully leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, the employee shall be paid 6½ hours at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

- (i) He may by giving not less than one month's notice of his intention so to do stand off for the duration of the close down all employees in the plant or section or sections concerned, and allow to those who are not then qualified for two full weeks' leave, paid leave on a proportionate basis of one-sixth of a week's leave for each completed month of continuous service.
- (ii) An employee who has then qualified for two full weeks' leave, and has also completed a further month or more of continuous service shall be allowed his leave, and shall also be paid one-sixth of a week's wages in respect of each completed month of continuous service performed since the close of his last twelve-monthly qualifying period.
- (iii) The next twelve-monthly qualifying period for each employee affected by such close down shall commence from the day on which the plant, or section or sections concerned is re-opened for work.
- (iv) If, in the first year of his service with an employer, an employee is allowed proportionate annual leave under paragraph (i) hereof, and subsequently within such year lawfully leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, he shall be entitled to the benefit of sub-clause (k) of this clause subject to adjustment for any proportionate leave which he may have been allowed as aforesaid.

(b) An employee engaged for the first time shall for the first three weeks of such engagement be employed from day to day at the weekly rate fixed by this Determination.

(c) Any employee failing to attend for duty shall lose pay for the time of such non-attendance except as provided under clause 15 of this Determination.

(d) Employment shall be terminated only by a week's notice on either side, but such notice may be given at any time during any week: provided that any employer may dismiss any employee without notice for malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct, and in such case the employee shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only: provided further, that any employer may deduct payment for any day or part thereof an employee cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the union, or any other union, or through any breakdown of machinery, or any stoppage of work by any cause whatsoever which the employer cannot reasonably prevent.

For the purposes of this sub-clause, notice given at or before the commencement of any shift shall commence to run from the beginning of such shift, and notice given after the commencement of a shift shall not begin to run until the commencement of the next succeeding shift.

(e) Any weekly employee leaving without giving and working out the notice prescribed in this clause, may, at the option of the employer, be called upon to forfeit to the employer up to three days' pay.

(f) Casual employees may be engaged at hourly rates, provided such rates calculated from hour to hour are 10 per centum higher than the rates prescribed for weekly employees doing the same class of work.

SICK LEAVE.

15. (a) Any weekly-wage employee shall be entitled to leave of absence without deduction of pay, provided he produces or forwards within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence a medical certificate or other evidence satisfactory to the management that the absence was the result of personal accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, in respect of which no compensation is payable under any Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) An employee on weekly hiring after one month's service with his employer who is absent from work on account of personal ill-health necessitating such absence, shall be entitled to leave of absence without deduction of pay, subject to the following conditions:—

- (i) He shall not be entitled to paid leave of absence for any period in respect of which he is entitled to workers' compensation;
- (ii) He shall, within 48 hours of the commencement of the absence, produce or forward a medical certificate or other evidence satisfactory to the management certifying his inability to attend for duty;
- (iii) Subject to the provisions of sub-clause (c) of this clause, he shall not be entitled in any year (whether in the employ of one employer or of several) to paid leave in excess of 40 hours;
- (iv) He shall produce a certificate from his previous employer or employers during the current year certifying the amount of sick leave, if any, granted by them with pay for such year.

(c) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in sub-clause (b) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to an employee by an employer as paid sick leave may be claimed by an employee and subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed shall be allowed by that employer in a subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year. Provided that sick leave which accumulates pursuant to this sub-clause shall be available to the employee for a period of two years, but for no longer from the end of the year in which it accrued.

(d) For the purposes of this clause "Year" shall mean twelve calendar months starting with the 1st day of January in each year.
