A schedule of such piecework rates shall be posted in the mill or factory.

(b) Piecework rates now paid may be re-adjusted by employers to meet new circumstances created by this Determination before the expiry of six months from the date on which this Determination comes into force, but thereafter such rates shall not be altered except by mutual agreement between the employer and pieceworkers concerned.

(c) Effect shall be given in piecework earnings to alterations of the male basic wage and the female basic wage made in accordance with the provisions of clauses 29 and 30 of this Determination. For that purpose, an employer may alter his piecework rates in accordance with paragraph (b) hereof or he may observe the following provisions:—

At the end of each working week the aggregate earnings of each pieceworker for such week shall be ascertained, and, where such pieceworker has worked on each and every day ordinarily worked in such week, such aggregate earnings shall be increased or decreased—

- (i) in the case of males, by the sum by which the male basic wage has been increased or decreased in accordance with the provisions of clause 30 of this Determination; and
- (ii) in the case of females, by the sum by which the female basic wage has been increased or decreased in accordance with the provisions of clause 29 of this Determination;

(d) Where an employee has worked part of the week on piecework, he or she shall be entitled to his or her earnings in full for the actual time worked in piecework if the earnings are higher than the minimum rate for such time.

(e) Adults and juniors doing the same operations shall be paid the same piecework rates.

(f) As far as practicable, different grades of work shall be equitably divided between pieceworkers.

(g) A pieceworker who also instructs learners shall receive 10s. per week in addition to piecework earnings for the first week, 7s. 6d. for the second week, and 5s. for the third week, but, at the end of the third week, shall not be called upon to continue instructing a learner unless paid 5s. per week in addition to his piecework earnings.

HOURS.

9. Forty hours shall constitute a week's work. Such hours are to be worked by day workers in five days, Monday to Friday inclusive (but this shall not apply to oilers and/or cleaners or men engaged on maintenance work) and by shift workers in accordance with clause 11 hereof.

(b) By mutual arrangement between employer and his employees, the hours of duty prescribed herein for night-shift workers may be worked in four shifts without payment of overtime.

Under any such arrangement, all hours of duty beyond nine hours, even if they come within the starting and finishing time of a shift, shall be paid for at overtime rates.

(c) Subject to the provisions hereafter appearing, females shall be prohibited from working between the hours of 9 p.m. and 7 a.m.

Male juniors under eighteen years of age are prohibited from working after 9 p.m.

Female employees and male juniors under eighteen years may be required to work between the hours of 6 a.m. and 9 p.m. subject to the following conditions :—

(d) Male employees engaged on shifts other than day shift, shall be paid at the rate of 15s. per week in addition to the ordinary rates payable to day workers, irrespective of whether such shift is regarded as intermediate, afternoon, or night shift, whether permanent or rotating.

Provided that employees engaged on a permanent night shift shall be paid at the rate of £1 per week in addition to the ordinary rates payable to day workers.

(e) Short shifts of male employees over eighteen years of age may be worked at the discretion of the employer. For work done on such shifts (other than work done between noon on Saturday and midnight on Sunday) payment shall be made at the rate of 15s. per week of 40 hours, in addition to the rates payable to day-shift workers.

(f) As far as practicable, employees shall work shifts in rotation.

(i) Shift workers may be required to work until the completion of their shifts on holidays without the payment of holiday rates: provided they are not required to work on the night shift commencing on a holiday.

Where a holiday prescribed by this Determination is observed on a Monday, shift workers may be given time off on the shift commencing on the Sunday night preceding a holiday and, in such event shall be required to work on the usual night shift commencing on the holiday, without additional pay:

Provided that where an employee works two complete shifts on a holiday, both shifts shall be paid for as holiday shifts.

(j) Except for the regular change-over of shifts, no employee shall be required to change from one shift to another without a break of at least twelve hours.

(b) Employment shall be terminated by a week's notice on either side given at any time during the working week or by the payment or forfeiture of a week's wages, as the case may be.

(c) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere in this clause, the employer shall have the right to dismiss an employee without notice for inefficiency, neglect of duty, malingering or misconduct, in which case wages shall be paid up to time of dismissal only, or to deduct payment for any time the employee cannot be usefully employed because of any strike or through any breakdown in machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible or for a stand-down of employees at any time when no work is offering.

Provided further that, in the case of any power stoppage, any employee required to attend for work in accordance with this clause and does so attend shall be paid as for at least two hours' work at time rates; and that payment shall be made at time rates to an employee who is kept on the employer's premises at the direction of the management in excess of two hours.

(b) Time and a half rates shall be paid to any employee required to work during his meal hour. No employee shall be compelled to work more than five hours without a break for a meal. Provided, however, that, where three shifts are worked and it is mutually arranged, there shall be no break for meals, but employees may take their meals in the employer's time as opportunity offers.

(c) An employee engaged in the maintenance of plant shall, when breakdowns occur, work meal hours at the ordinary rates herein prescribed whenever instructed so to do.

(d) Each employee shall have a meal interval fixed and, having been fixed, it shall not be altered except by mutual agreement.

(b) Pieceworkers shall be paid for such holidays even though not worked at the ordinary rates payable to employees on time work doing the same class of work.

(c) Where an employee is absent from his or her employment on the working day or part of the working day before or after a holiday without reasonable excuse or without the employer's consent, the employee shall not be entitled to payment for such holiday.

(d) When an employee is absent through illness or other reasonable cause from his or her employment for a period exceeding fourteen days, the employee shall not be entitled to payment for any holidays occurring during such period of absence:

Provided that, where an employer consents to an employee having leave beyond fourteen days abovementioned, payment shall be made for such holiday or holidays occurring in the period of absence.

(e) Production work in any factory is prohibited on Sundays unless in extraordinary circumstances.

(f) All work done by time workers on the holidays prescribed in sub-clause (a) hereof and all work done by time workers on Sundays shall be paid for at the rate of ordinary time in addition to the ordinary rate; all such work done by pieceworkers shall be paid for at the ordinary rate payable to employees on time work doing the same class of work in addition to such piecework earnings.

(g) All employees engaged on repairs or renewals of the employer's plant or machinery necessary for the resumption of work the next following working day, or for maintaining the continuity of electric light and power (not including the installation of new machinery) shall, if worked on holidays and Sundays, be paid at the rate of time and a half.

(h) Part-time employees shall, in respect of public holidays, be paid only at the rate actually being received by them at such time.

SICK LEAVE.

15. (a) An employee who is absent from work on account of personal illness or on account of injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, shall be entitled to leave of absence, without deduction of pay, subject to the following conditions and limitations:—

(i) He shall not be entitled to paid leave of absence, unless he has been in the service of the employer concerned for at least three months immediately prior to such absence.

(iii) He shall, within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence, inform the employer of his inability to attend for duty and, as far as practicable, state the nature of the injury or illness and the estimated duration of the absence.

(iv) He shall prove to the satisfaction of the employer that he was unable, on account of such illness or injury, to attend for duty on the day or days for which sick leave is claimed. For such purpose the employer may require an employee to make a statutory declaration verifying the cause of his absence.

(v) He shall not be entitled in any year to leave in excess of 40 hours of working time or to payment in excess of 40 hours at ordinary rates or, in the case of an employee working short shift, payment in excess of a week's wages for such shift.

(b) A pieceworker entitled to paid leave of absence under this clause shall be paid at the time-work rate applicable to his classification.

(c) "Year" for the purpose of sub-clause (a) hereof shall mean a year of service in the employ of the employer concerned.

(d) Part-time employees shall, in respect of sick leave, be paid only at the rate actually being received by them at such time.

ANNUAL LEAVE.

Period of Leave.

16. (a) A period of fourteen consecutive days' leave shall be allowed annually to an employee after twelve months' continuous service (less the period of annual leave) as an employee in any one or more of the occupations to which this Determination applies.

Seven-day Shift Workers.

(b) In addition to the leave hereinbefore prescribed, seven-day shift workers, that is, shift workers who are rostered to work regularly on Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed seven consecutive days' leave, including non-working days.

Where an employee with twelve months' continuous service is engaged for part of the twelve-monthly period as a seven-day shift worker, he shall be entitled to have the period of fourteen consecutive days' annual leave prescribed in sub-clause (a) hereof increased by half a day for each month he is continuously engaged as aforesaid.

Annual Leave Exclusive of Public Holidays.

(c) Subject to this sub-clause the annual leave prescribed by this clause shall be exclusive of any of the holidays prescribed by clause 14 of this Determination, and, if any such holiday falls within an employee's period of annual leave, and is observed on a day which, in the case of that employee, would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to the period of annual leave time equivalent to the ordinary time which the employee would have worked if such day had not been a holiday.

Where a holiday falls as aforesaid and the employee fails without reasonable cause, proof whereof shall be upon him, to attend for work at his ordinary starting time on the working day immediately following the last day of the period of his annual leave, he shall not be entitled to be paid for any such holiday.

Broken Leave.

(d) The annual leave shall be given and taken in a continuous period or, if the employee and the employer so agree, in two separate periods and not otherwise.

Calculation of Continuous Service.

(e) For the purpose of this clause, service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding—

(i) any interruption or termination of the employment by the employer if such interruption or termination has been made merely with the intention of avoiding obligations hereunder in respect of leave of absence;

(ii) any absence from work on account of personal sickness or accident or on account of leave lawfully granted by the employer; or

(iii) any absence with reasonable cause, proof whereof shall be upon the employee.

In cases of personal sickness or accident or absence with reasonable cause, the employee to become entitled to the benefit of this sub-clause shall inform the employer, in writing if practicable, within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence of his inability to attend for duty and, as far as practicable, the nature of the illness, injury, or cause, and the estimated duration of his absence. A notification given by an employee pursuant to clause 15 of this Determination shall be accepted as a notification under this sub-clause.

Any absence from work by reason of any cause not being a cause specified in this sub-clause shall not be deemed to break the continuity of service for the purposes of this clause unless the employer, during the absence or within fourteen days of the termination of the absence, notifies the employee in writing that such absence will be regarded as having broken the continuity of service.

In cases of individual absenteeism, such notice shall be given in writing to the employee concerned, but, in cases of concerted or collective absenteeism, notice may be given to employees by the posting of a notification in the plant in the manner in which general notifications to employees are usually made in that plant, and by posting to each Union whose members have participated in such concerted or collective absenteeism a copy thereof not later than the day it is posted up in the plant.

A notice to an individual employee may be given by delivering it to him personally or by posting it to his last-recorded address, in which case it will be deemed to have reached him in due course of post.

In calculating the period of twelve months' continuous service, any such absence as aforesaid shall not, except to the extent of not more than fourteen days in a twelve-monthly period in the case of sickness or accident, be taken into account in calculating the period of twelve months' continuous service.

Calculation of Service.

(f) Service before the date of operation of this Determination shall be taken into consideration for the purpose of calculating annual leave, but an employee shall not be entitled to leave or payment in lieu thereof for any period in respect of which leave or a payment in lieu thereof has been allowed or made under the Determination hereby revoked. The annual leave shall be allowed at the rate of $6\frac{2}{3}$ hours for each completed one month of continuous service. The period of annual leave to be allowed under this sub-clause shall be calculated to the nearest day, any broken part of a day in the result not exceeding half a day to be disregarded.

Where the employer is a successor or assignee or transferee of a business, if an employee was in the employment of the employer's predecessor at the time when he became such successor or assignee or transferee, the employee in respect of the period during which he was in the service of the predecessor shall, for the purpose of this clause, be deemed to be in the service of the employer.

Calculation of Month.

(g) For the purpose of this clause, a month shall be reckoned as commencing with the beginning of the first day of the employment or period of employment in question and as ending at the beginning of the day which, in the latest month in question, has the same date number as that which the commencing day had in its month, and, if there be no such day in such subsequent month, shall be reckoned as ending at the end of such subsequent month.

Leave to be Taken.

(h) The annual leave provided for by this clause shall be allowed and shall be taken and, except as provided by sub-clauses (l) and (m) hereof, payment shall not be made or accepted in lieu of annual leave.

Time of Taking Leave.

(i) Annual leave shall be given at a time fixed by the employer within a period not exceeding six months from the date when the right to annual leave accrued and after not less than two weeks' notice to the employee.

Leave Allowed Before Due Date.

(j) An employer may allow annual leave to an employee before the right thereto has accrued due, but, where leave is taken in such a case, a further period of annual leave shall not commence to accrue until after the expiration of the twelve months in respect of which annual leave had been taken before it accrued.

Where leave has been granted to an employee pursuant to this sub-clause before the right thereto has accrued due and the employee subsequently leaves or is discharged from the service of the employer before completing the twelve months' continuous service in respect of which the leave was granted, the employer may, for each one complete month of the qualifying period of twelve months not served by the employee, deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment, one-twelfth of the amount of wage paid on account of the annual leave, which amount shall not include any sums paid for any of the holidays prescribed by clause 14 of this Determination.

Payment for Period of Leave.

(k) Each employee before going on leave shall be paid two weeks' wages, except a seven-day shift worker who shall be paid the amount of wages he would have received in respect of the ordinary time which he would have worked had he not been on leave during the relevant periods. For the purposes of this sub-clause (l) hereof, wages shall be at the rate prescribed by clauses 2 and 3 of this Determination for the occupation in which the employee was ordinarily employed immediately prior to the commencement of his leave or the termination of his employment, as the case may be.

Payment in the case of employees employed on piece or bonus work or any other system of payment by results shall be at time rates.

Part-time employees shall, in respect of annual leave, be paid only at the rate actually being received by them at such time.

Proportionate Leave on Dismissal.

(l) If, after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period, an employee lawfully leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, the employee shall be paid at his ordinary rate of wage for $6\frac{2}{3}$ hours at the same rate in respect of each completed month of continuous service after that date, the service in each case being service in respect of which leave has not been granted hereunder.

Annual Close Down.

(m) Where an employer closes down his plant, or a section or sections thereof, for the purposes of allowing annual leave to all or the bulk of the employees in the plant or section or sections concerned, the following shall apply:—

- (i) He may, by giving not less than one month's notice of his intention so to do, stand off for the duration of the close-down all employees in the plant or section or sections concerned, and allow to those who are not then qualified for two full weeks' leave, paid leave on a proportionate basis of one-sixth of a week's leave for each completed month of continuous service.
- (ii) An employee who has then qualified for two full weeks' leave and has also completed a further month or more of continuous service shall be allowed his leave and shall, subject to sub-clause (f) hereof, also be paid one-sixth of a week's wages in respect of each completed month of continuous service performed since the close of his last twelve-monthly qualifying period.
- (iii) The next twelve-monthly qualifying period for each employee affected by such close-down shall commence from the day on which the plant or section or sections concerned is re-opened for work. Provided that all time during which an employee is stood off without pay for the purposes of this sub-clause shall be deemed to be time of service in the next twelve-monthly qualifying period.
- (iv) If, in the first year of his service with an employer, an employee is allowed proportionate annual leave under paragraph (i) hereof, and subsequently within such year lawfully leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, he shall be entitled to the benefit of sub-clause (l) hereof subject to adjustment for any proportionate leave which he may have been allowed as aforesaid.
