DETERMINATION OF THE INDUSTRIAL APPEALS COURT.

IN THE INDUSTRIAL APPEALS COURT:

IN THE MATTER of the Factories and Shops Acts 1928-1941,

AND

IN THE MATTER of a Determination made by the Carpenters Board on the 4th May, 1951,

AND

IN THE MATTER of an Appeal to the Industrial Appeals Court.

Before the Industrial Appeals Court (Judge Gamble, K. H. Boykett, Esq., and J. V. Steut, Esq.).

Monday, the 8th day of May, 1951.

Having heard the above-mentioned Appeal, on the 7th day of May, 1951, and on this day this Court doth make the following Determination:—

This Determination will apply only to the year 1951, and shall have no effect after the 31st December, 1951.

(i) The following days have been proclaimed as Public Holidays for the year 1951, or any other day or days, substituted by proclamation therefor; shall be additional to the holidays set out in clause 12 of the Determination made on the 28th March, 1951

9th May, 1951, (Federal Jubilee)

13th November, 1951, (Victorian Centenary)

(ii) An employee, on either weekly or hourly engagement, not required to work on either or both these days shall receive payment therefor at the ordinary rate of pay as for eight hours work for each day.

Provided that an employee who fails to attend for work on the working day before or after either holiday without reasonable excuse shall not be entitled to payment for such holiday.

(iii) Double time shall be the rate payable for all work done on these days for weekly employees, and notwithstanding anything in this Determination employees on hourly engagement shall be paid at double the rate they would ordinarily receive for time worked on such additional days.

By Order of the Court,

E. W. LAITY,

Registrar.

By Authority: J. J. GOWRLY, Government Printer, Melbourne.
