By Authority: J. J. GOURLEY, Government Printer, Melbourne.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in the context of public administration and government operations. The text notes that such records serve as a critical tool for monitoring performance, identifying inefficiencies, and ensuring that resources are used effectively and ethically.

2. The second part of the document addresses the challenges associated with implementing robust record-keeping systems. It highlights the need for standardized procedures, adequate training for staff, and the use of modern technology to streamline data collection and storage. The author points out that many organizations struggle with inconsistent data entry and a lack of clear protocols, which can lead to errors and incomplete records. Overcoming these challenges requires a commitment to continuous improvement and a focus on building a strong organizational culture of data integrity.

3. The third part of the document explores the role of record-keeping in decision-making and strategic planning. It argues that high-quality data provides the foundation for informed choices and long-term vision. By analyzing historical trends and current performance metrics, leaders can identify opportunities for growth, anticipate potential risks, and allocate resources more strategically. The text stresses that without reliable records, organizations are essentially making decisions in the dark, which increases the likelihood of failure and missed opportunities.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the legal and regulatory implications of record-keeping. It notes that various laws and regulations, such as data protection acts and financial reporting requirements, mandate the maintenance of certain types of records. Failure to comply with these regulations can result in significant penalties, legal disputes, and damage to an organization's reputation. Therefore, it is crucial for organizations to stay up-to-date on relevant legislation and ensure their record-keeping practices are fully compliant.

5. The fifth and final part of the document concludes by reiterating the overall significance of record-keeping. It summarizes the key points discussed, including the benefits of transparency, the challenges of implementation, the value of data for decision-making, and the importance of legal compliance. The author encourages organizations to view record-keeping not as a mere administrative task, but as a strategic imperative that is central to their success and long-term sustainability.

By Authority: J. J. GOURLEY, Government Printer, Melbourne.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in the context of public administration and financial management. The text highlights that records should be kept in a clear, organized, and accessible manner, ensuring that they can be easily reviewed and audited.

2. The second part of the document addresses the challenges associated with record-keeping, such as the volume of data, the complexity of information, and the risk of data loss or corruption. It suggests that implementing robust data management systems and protocols can help mitigate these risks and ensure the integrity and security of the records. Additionally, it stresses the importance of regular backups and disaster recovery plans to protect against potential data loss.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the role of record-keeping in decision-making and policy development. It argues that well-maintained records provide valuable insights and evidence that can inform the formulation of policies and the evaluation of their impact. By analyzing historical data and trends, decision-makers can gain a better understanding of the underlying factors influencing various outcomes and make more informed choices.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the legal and regulatory requirements related to record-keeping. It notes that various laws and regulations, such as the Freedom of Information Act and the Data Protection Act, impose specific obligations on organizations regarding the collection, storage, and disposal of records. Compliance with these requirements is crucial to avoid legal penalties and ensure the organization's operations are lawful and ethical.

5. The fifth part of the document explores the benefits of effective record-keeping, including improved operational efficiency, enhanced communication, and better risk management. It states that clear records facilitate the flow of information, reduce duplication of effort, and enable faster resolution of issues. Furthermore, well-organized records can help identify potential risks and vulnerabilities, allowing organizations to proactively address them and minimize the impact of any adverse events.

6. The sixth part of the document concludes by emphasizing the ongoing nature of record-keeping and the need for continuous improvement. It suggests that organizations should regularly review their record-keeping practices and update them as needed to reflect changes in technology, regulations, and organizational needs. By fostering a culture of transparency and accountability, organizations can ensure that their records remain a valuable asset for the long term.

APPRENTICESHIP.

5. (a) Youths shall not be engaged in the following occupations except under indentures of apprenticeship for the periods and subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed:—

Patternmaking, electrical fitting, engineering fitting and turning, first and second class engineering machining, first-class welding, engineering blacksmithing, jobbing moulding and/or coremaking, sheet metal (first-class bench work) motor mechanic.

(b) In the trades immediately hereinafter mentioned the proportion of apprentices which may be taken by any employer shall be as follows:—

- Mechanical engineering—one apprentice for every 3, or fraction of 3, tradesmen.
- Electrical fitting—one apprentice for every 3, or fraction of 3, tradesmen.
- Electrical mechanic—one apprentice for every 2, or fraction of 2, tradesmen.
- Patternmaking—one apprentice for every 3, or fraction of 3, tradesmen.
- Smithing—one apprentice for every 3, or fraction of 3, tradesmen.
- Moulding—one apprentice for every 2, or fraction of 2, tradesmen.

(c) For the purpose of ascertaining the number of apprentices, the number of tradesmen shall be deemed to be the average number working during the immediately preceding six months, and in ascertaining such proportion, an employer actually working in any workshop shall be deemed to be a tradesman.

- (i) The period of apprenticeship shall be as follows:—
If the apprentice when article is under the age of 17 years, five years; if over the age of 17 years, four or five years, at the option of the contracting parties.
- (ii) An employer especially qualified to teach apprentices may, with the consent of the Secretary for Labour, or of the State Apprenticeship Commission, employ a greater proportion of apprentices to tradesmen than hereinbefore specified.
- (iii) Minors may be taken on probation for three months, and, if apprenticed, such three months shall count as part of their period of apprenticeship.
- (iv) Until further order, any contract of apprenticeship hereafter made may contain the following provision:—
If through lack of orders or through financial difficulties, the employer is unable at any time to find employment and training for an apprentice, and if a transfer to another employer cannot be arranged, the obligations and duties imposed by the indenture may with the concurrence of the apprentice and his guardian be suspended for a period agreed upon, or if no such agreement is arrived at, may be cancelled by the employer. The onus of proof of circumstances justifying such cancellation shall be on the employer.

This clause shall not apply to apprenticeship controlled by the State Apprenticeship Commission, but such Commission shall be free to adopt such schemes for suspension or cancellation of indentures as it may deem reasonable.

Wages per Week of 40 Hours.

(v) The minimum weekly rates of wage for apprentices shall be as follows:—

	Total Wage Payable.
	Within 20 Miles of G.P.O., Melbourne; within 10 Miles of G.P.O., Geelong; or at Warrnambool; and within Mildura and Gippsland Districts.	All Other Parts of Victoria.

2nd year	5 18 0	5 16 6
3rd year	9 6 0	9 3 6
4th year	11 10 0	11 7 0

The sum of 4s. per week shall be added to the above rates in the case of apprentice patternmakers.

The total wages of apprentices shall be calculated to the nearest sixpence, any broken part of sixpence in the result not exceeding threepence to be disregarded.

An employee who is under 21 years of age on the expiration of his apprenticeship and thereafter works as a minor in the occupation to which he has been apprenticed shall be paid at not less than the adult rate prescribed for that classification.

- (vi) The ordinary hours of employment of apprentices shall be the same in each workshop as those of journeymen in the trade the apprentice is learning.
- (vii) No apprentice under the age of 18 years shall be liable to work overtime unless he so desires.
- (viii) No apprentice shall work under any system of payment by results.
- (ix) Any apprentice who cannot complete his full term of apprenticeship before reaching his 22nd birthday may, by agreement with his master, serve as an apprentice until he reaches the age of 23 years.
- (x) The apprentice at the end of the calendar period of any year in which he has actually given service to the master upon less than the ordinary working days prescribed in the Determination for the trade, or in which he has unlawfully absented himself without the master's consent shall, for every day short of the said number of working days, and for every day of such absence, serve one day, and the calendar period of the succeeding year of his service shall not be deemed to begin until the said additional day or days shall have been served.
- (xi) No employer shall, either directly or indirectly, or by any pretence or device, receive from any person or require or permit any person to pay or give any consideration in the nature of a premium or bonus for the taking or binding of any probationer or apprentice.
- (xii) Apprentices attending technical colleges or schools and presenting reports of satisfactory conduct shall be reimbursed all fees paid by them.
- (xiii) Apprentices shall be entitled to annual leave and sick leave in accordance with the provisions of clauses 10A and 14A of this Determination respectively.

UNAPPRENTICED MALE JUNIORS AND FEMALES.

6. (a) Subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided the minimum rates of wage for females and unapprenticed male juniors shall be as follows:—

WAGES PER WEEK OF 40 HOURS.

	Total Wage Payable.
	Within 20 Miles of G.P.O., Melbourne; within 10 Miles of G.P.O., Geelong; or at Warraambool; and within Mildura and Gippsland Districts.	All Other Parts of Victoria.

18 years of age	8 13 6	8 11 6
19 years of age and over	10 8 6	10 6 0

Provided that the rate payable to any employee shall not be less than 20s.

The rates shall be calculated to the nearest 6d., any broken part of 6d. in the result not exceeding 3d. to be disregarded.

(b) Except in the case of employees in foundries, the minimum rate payable to a junior female of any age or a junior male of eighteen years or more each with less than six months' experience in the Metal Trades industry shall, until he or she has had six months' experience, be 10 per cent. less than the amount represented by the percentage of the basic wage prescribed for a junior employee of his or her age, and, in addition thereto, the additional amounts set out in clause 25 (d).

Clauses, other than clauses 2, 5 and 6, of the said Determination shall remain in force.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section any employee, within six months of his first employment in any place whose employment is terminated by the employer for any cause, shall on such termination be entitled to be paid for such work performed by him the appropriate rate or rates prescribed in Section "A" hereof.

NOTE.—The amounts of the differences between the rates prescribed in Section "A" and Section "B" hereof are consequent on the differences in the methods of adjustment as prescribed in clause 26 hereof, due to the rates in the first mentioned Section including a loading for "following the job."

(c)

Special Allowances.

In addition to the rates hereinbefore prescribed in this clause the following special allowances shall be paid, provided that the provisions of paragraphs (i), (ii), and (iii) hereof shall apply only to bricklayers doing work classified under classifications (7) and (9) of Sections "A" and "B" of sub-clause (b).

(i) Wet Places.—An employee working in any place where his clothing or boots become saturated whether by water, concrete, or otherwise shall be paid 3d. per hour extra: Provided that this extra rate shall not be payable to an employee who is provided by the employer with suitable effective protective clothing and/or footwear. And provided further that any employee who becomes entitled to this extra rate shall be paid such extra rate per hour for the whole of the day or shift if he is required to work in wet clothing or boots.

(ii) Confined Space.—An employee required to work in a confined space (i.e., a compartment or space, access to which is through a manhole or similar opening, or a place the dimensions of which necessitate an employee working in a stooped or otherwise cramped position, or without proper ventilation, and which is of a class not usually associated with the bricklaying trade) shall be paid 3d. per hour whilst so employed.

(iii) Dirty Work.—An employee working at dirty work, that is work concerning which the employer or his foreman agree that it is of an unusually dirty or offensive nature, shall be paid for the period of such work at the rate of 3d. per hour extra.

(iv) Casual Labour.—Casual employee (i.e., an employee employed during the week for not more than one-half the maximum number of hours fixed in this Determination as a week's work) shall be paid at the ordinary rate hourly with an addition of 10 per centum.

(v) Employee Reporting for Duty.—An employee notified to commence duty and actually attending for duty, when notified by the employer or his representative that his services are not required shall be paid for two hours as time worked.

(vi) Waiting Time.—An employee who is required to attend for work and is kept waiting to commence work by instructions of the employer or his representative, shall be paid at his ordinary rate of pay for the time he is so kept waiting.

Clauses, other than clause 2, of the said Determination shall remain in force.

(ii) For the purpose of all clauses relating to apprentices and improvers, each class of employee as set out in the weekly wage schedules to this Determination shall be taken separately, and each such class shall be a distinct section.

Prohibition of Employment of Males over Seventeen Years Entering any Section of the Industry.

(c) No male (other than one to be employed at order cutting) who is over the age of seventeen years shall enter any section of the industry for which provision is made in this Determination for compulsory apprenticeship according to the Schedule referred to in the indenture of apprenticeship prescribed by this Determination.

Female Improvers over Eighteen Years of Age may be Employed.

(d) Any female without previous experience who has attained the age of eighteen years may be employed in any section of the industry as an improver, and shall be paid at least the minimum rate prescribed by this Determination for a female of her experience.

Persons Eligible for Apprenticeship.

(e) All apprentices shall be indentured in accordance with the form of indenture prescribed by the Board on 23rd May, 1950, provided that the said person may serve an employer as a probationer for a period not exceeding three months. During the said three months, he or she shall be paid at least the minimum rates prescribed by this Determination for the first six months of apprenticeship. If the probationer becomes indentured, his or her indentures shall be taken to have commenced from the commencement of the period of probation.

Indenture Completed.

(f) It shall be the duty of the employer to see that the form of indenture of any apprentice is duly completed and to deliver to the apprentice a complete original copy thereof.

Completion of Apprenticeship.

(g) In the event of the employer to whom an apprentice is bound ceasing to carry on business, such apprentice may be bound to another employer for the remainder of the term to be served, provided that if such apprentice be over the age of seventeen years at the time of the original employer ceasing to carry on business, such apprentice may complete the time to be served as an improver.

Apprentices in any Group of the Industry already Bound.

(h) Within three months of the commencement of this Determination every employer shall, in respect of male or female apprentices already indentured, be bound to observe the full terms of the indentures prescribed by this Determination as to the term of apprenticeship, hours, wages, overtime and all other conditions. Where the existing indentures are inconsistent with indentures herein prescribed the existing indentures shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

Time Served in any Group to Count.

(i) (i) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Determination the time served by an apprentice or improver in any occupation for which a classification is prescribed by this Determination in any group of this Determination shall be counted as experience for the purpose of apprenticeship indentures or the continuance of improvership, both as regards wages and the term to be served in respect of the continuation of the employment of such apprentice or improver in the occupation covered by such classification.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Determination any person who at the date of the coming into force of this Determination is employed in the industry and whose engagement or continued employment as an improver is by this Determination forbidden shall be entitled to be employed and shall be paid the scale of wages prescribed for an apprentice or improver of like experience.

Prohibition of Employment of New Male Improvers in Groups A. and B. and Also Female Improvers in Group A.

(j) After the commencement of this Determination no male in Groups A. and B. or female in Group A. shall:—

And thereafter the minimum weekly wage or piecework price.

(i) The term to be served at the industry by male apprentices or improvers shall be not more than five years in Group A and not more than four years in all other groups.

(ii) The term to be served at the industry by female apprentices or improvers shall be not more than four years.

(b) PROPORTION (IN ANY FACTORY OR PLACE).
Apprentices or Improvers.

- (i) Not more than one male apprentice or improver shall be employed in any section to every journeyman tailor therein employed.
- (ii) Not more than one male apprentice or improver shall be employed pressing to every four or fraction of four journeymen in Group A.
- (iii) Not more than one male apprentice or improver shall be employed on any section (other than the sections set out in sub-clauses (i) and (ii) hereof) of Group A to every three or fraction of three journeymen in the same section.
- (iv) Not more than one male apprentice or improver shall be employed to every two or fraction of two journeymen in all groups of the industry other than those set out in sub-clauses (i), (ii), and (iii) hereof.
- (v) Not more than one female apprentice or improver shall be employed in any section to every journeywoman in the same section of Group A.
- (vi) Not more than three female apprentices or improvers shall be employed in all groups other than those set out in sub-clause (v) hereof to every journeywoman.
- (vii) For the purpose of all clauses relating to apprentices and improvers, each class of employee as set out in the weekly wage schedules to this Determination shall be taken separately, and each such class shall be deemed to be a distinct section.

Prohibition of Employment of Males over Seventeen Years Entering any Section of the Industry.

(c) No male (other than one to be employed at order cutting) who is over the age of seventeen years shall enter any section of the industry for which provision is made in this Determination for compulsory apprenticeship according to the Schedule referred to in the indenture of apprenticeship prescribed by this Determination.

Female Improvers over Eighteen Years of Age may be Employed.

(d) Any female without previous experience who has attained the age of eighteen years may be employed in any section of the industry as an improver, and shall be paid at least the minimum rate prescribed by this Determination for a female of her experience.

Persons Eligible for Apprenticeship.

(e) All apprentices shall be indentured in accordance with the form of indenture prescribed by the Board on the 23rd May, 1950, provided that the said person may serve an employer as a probationer for a period not exceeding three months. During the said three months, he or she shall be paid at least the minimum rates prescribed by this Determination for the first six months of apprenticeship. If the probationer becomes indentured, his or her indentures shall be taken to have commenced from the commencement of the period of probation.

Indenture Completed.

(f) It shall be the duty of the employer to see that the form of indenture of any apprentice is duly completed and to deliver to the apprentice a complete original copy thereof.

Completion of Apprenticeship.

(g) In the event of the employer to whom an apprentice is bound ceasing to carry on business, such apprentice may be bound to another employer for the remainder of the term to be served, provided that if such apprentice be over the age of seventeen years at the time of the original employer ceasing to carry on business, such apprentice may complete the time to be served as an improver.

Apprentices in any Group of the Industry already Bound.

(h) Within three months of the commencement of this Determination every employer shall, in respect of male or female apprentices already indentured, be bound to observe the full terms of the indentures prescribed by this Determination as to the term of apprenticeship, hours, wages, overtime, and all other conditions. Where the existing indentures are inconsistent with indentures herein prescribed, the existing indentures shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

Time Served in any Group to Count.

(i) (i) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Determination the time served by an apprentice or improver in any occupation for which a classification is prescribed by this Determination in any group of this Determination shall be counted as experience for the purpose of apprenticeship indentures or the continuance of improvership, both as regards wages and the term to be served in respect of the continuation of the employment of such apprentice or improver in the occupation covered by such classification.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Determination, any person who, at the date of the coming into force of this Determination, is employed in the industry and whose engagement or continued employment as an improver is by this Determination forbidden shall be entitled to be employed and shall be paid the scale of wages prescribed for an apprentice or improver of like experience.

Prohibition of Employment of New Male and Female Improvers in Group A.

- (j) After the commencement of this Determination no male or female in Group A shall—
- (i) be engaged to work as an improver in any such section of the industry; or
 - (ii) be transferred from one section to another such section to work there as an improver; or
 - (iii) be employed as an improver in any such section.

* The percentages for junior females relate to the female basic wage, but in all other cases relate to the male basic wage.

The total wage shall be calculated to the nearest sixpence, any broken part of sixpence in the result not exceeding threepence to be disregarded.

(b) Except in the case of employees in foundries, the minimum rate payable to a junior female of any age or a junior male of eighteen years or more each with less than six months' experience under this Determination shall, until he or she has had six months' experience, be 10 per cent. less than the amount represented by the percentage of the basic wage hereby prescribed for a junior employee of his or her age and in addition thereto the additional amount prescribed for such an employee.

(c) Junior employees employed on the following machines or operations shall be paid at not less than the appropriate adult minimum rates:—

- (i) Angle-iron cropping where the material weighs more than 3½ lb. per foot and is not clamped.
- (ii) Assisting steel furnace ladleman other than in daubing or repairing ladles.
- (iii) Assisting storeman racking and/or loading and/or unloading off vehicles of heavy steel plates, bars or sections.
- (iv) Breaking up pig iron.
- (v) Carrying material to or from cupola forge or electric steel furnace or using the slicer or hanging on to end of a bloom. This shall not apply in the case of junior moulders.
- (vi) Cutting out and punching rivets on plates.
- (vii) Cutting plates by means of hammer and cold set.
- (viii) Holding up rivets over ¼ in. diameter.
- (ix) Plate edge planers in structural steel or shipbuilding yards where the operator travels on the machine.
- (x) Punching machines handling plates weighing more than 84 lb.
- (xi) Shearing machines other than guillotine plate shearers, handling plates weighing more than 84 lb.

(d) Junior employees shall not be employed:—

- (i) if under the age of 16 years—
 - on oil or gas burners or fires used for heating of small articles; or
 - using electric arc or oxy-acetylene blow-pipe, or
- (ii) if under 18 years of age—
 - as furnaceman or assistant to furnaceman; or
 - as a roller, extrusion press operator, pipe trap machine operator, roller's assistant or as a melter.

Clauses, other than clauses 2 and 3, of the said Determination shall remain in force.

Acting Secretary for Labour.

BUILDERS' LABOURERS BOARD.

Clause 1 of Part I., and Clause 1 of Part II. of the Determination published in Government Gazette No. 504 of the 20th June, 1952, shall be replaced by the following Clauses:—

PART I.

This part applies only in respect of the employment of persons on the construction renovation repair alteration or demolition of buildings performed on the site thereof, and in particular it shall have no application to employment by an employer in any industry where the work performed by the employee is subsidiary or auxiliary to the chief and principal purpose and business of such industry.

WAGES.

1. (a) For skilled builders' labourers—7s. per hour.

For ordinary builders' labourers—6s. 9d. per hour.

(NOTE.—To the above amounts must be added any allowance payable in accordance with clause 6 of this Part.)

(b) "Builders' labourer—skilled" means an employee engaged upon the work of steel and/or aluminium alloy structural erector (on steel and/or aluminium alloy frame buildings) or engaged in the erection of prefabricated aluminium alloy buildings, gear hand, rigger, pile driver, tackle hand, gantry hand, or crane hand, dogman, scaffolder, powder monkey, drainer, demolisher, jack hammerman, winch or hoist driver or mixer driver, steel and/or bar bender bending to plan or pattern.

(c) "Builders' Labourer—ordinary" means an employee engaged under this Determination in occupations other than those set out in sub-clause (b) of this clause.

Definition.

(d) "Federation" means the Australian Builders' Labourers' Federation.

PART II.

This Part applies to the employment of persons employed as builders' labourers in mixed industry as defined in clause 12 of this Part.

WAGES PER WEEK.

1. (a)

	Higher Grade.	Lower Grade.
Builders' labourer..	12 16 0	12 7 0

Provided that where an employee is engaged on work other than "maintenance" as defined in clause 12 of this Part, the above-stated wage rates shall be increased by an additional amount at the rate of 2s. 6d. per week when so employed. Such is the additional amount referred to in the proviso to clause 13 of this Part.

(b) An employee whose employment is terminated by the employer within six months of his employment for any cause other than for malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct, shall on such termination be entitled to be paid for such work performed by him an additional amount at the rate of 3s. per week.

Clauses, other than Clause 1 of Part I., and Clause 1 of Part II., of the said Determination shall remain in force.
