THE GEELONG HARBOR TRUST COMMISSIONERS.

REGULATIONS.

Under and by virtue of the powers conferred by the Geelong Harbor Trust Act 1928.

THE Geelong Harbor Trust Commissioners subject to the consent of the Governor-in-Council hereby make the following Regulations namely:—

1. The Regulations made by the Commissioners on the Twenty-second day of March 1909 and gazetted on the Fifteenth day of June 1909 with any amendments thereof or alterations thereto are hereinafter referred to as "Principal Regulations."

2. Next after Principal Regulation 90A there be inserted the following Regulation 90B:—

(1) In this Regulation unless the contrary appears and without affecting the meaning of any other definitions in these Regulations—<sup>Definitions.</sup>

"Delivery Office" means the office or area at any wharf which is used for the purpose of a delivery office in connexion with the delivery of goods.

"Goods" includes all types of case, carton, crate, drum, package, tin, roll or other container, and all wares, merchandise and articles of whatsoever description.

"Mark," "Marked" or "Markings" means any figure, letter, name, sign, word, or any other code or symbol used in the Bill of Lading and entered in the vessel's manifest to distinguish, or to identify in any way the owner of the goods, or an agent, carrier, or consignee at the port of discharge of such vessel.

"Medium" means any ink, paint, fluid, or matter used for the purpose of marking goods, and which will not fade, run, rub-off or otherwise lose its colour or quality during the shipping and unshipping operations or during the course of the voyage to the destination for which such goods are intended until the goods have been delivered to the owner.

"Objectionable Goods" means, and includes, kalsomine, carbon black, cement, charcoal, cocoa beans, dried paints or paint materials, fertilisers, plaster, plaster of paris, whiting and any similar goods which are of a dirty nature or objectionable to handle or likely to create a nuisance on or to damage a wharf in the event of such goods breaking bulk or otherwise.

"Wharf" includes pier, jetty, landing stage, dock, quay, slip, platform, breastwork, and all approaches thereto and any shed, building, or structure upon or used in connexion therewith, and any area of land adjoining or adjacent to a wharf and used in connexion therewith, the control and management of which is vested in the Commissioners.

(2) No goods shall be placed on any wharf unless such goods have been marked as prescribed in this Regulation and unless all markings used in connexion with any previous voyage or transit of the goods have been completely removed or obliterated.<sup>Marking of Goods.</sup>

(3) Marks on bags, bales, sacks, or similar goods shall be at least 4 in. in height, and on other goods at least 2 in. in height, and shall be in a good medium with all letters in bold, block type.<sup>Size of Marks.</sup>

(4) Subject as hereinafter provided in Clauses (5) and (6) marks shall be placed on at least two facings and on each end of goods which have two or more facings and two ends; on drums, rolls, or other cylindrical goods, marks shall be placed on the face and on each end; on bags or sacks, marks shall be placed on at least one face.<sup>Location and number of marks.</sup>

(5) Goods which are of a nature or size which would make it impracticable or difficult to mark them as prescribed in Clauses (3) and (4) of this Regulation may be marked by securely affixing thereto a strong, durable label, or a tag of non-tearable material, on which the marks are printed legibly in a good medium or embossed or indented legibly with all letters in bold, block type.<sup>Use of labels.</sup>

metals.

(6) All metals shall bear the following marks:—

- (a) Bars, plates, pipes, bundles, etc.—Metals consigned as bars, pipes, plates, pieces, bundles, or in similar fashion shall bear the mark of the owner at the port of discharge within 4 in. from each end of such goods in a distinctive coloured oil-based medium.
- (b) Ingots or sheets—Metals consigned as ingots or sheets shall have each ingot, sheet, bundle, roll, or other package marked with the marking of the owner at the port of discharge, such marking to be in the form of an impressed, embossed, or indented mark or a hole or holes or similar means of identification, or a mark made with a distinctive coloured oil-based medium, within 4 in. from one end at least of each item of such goods.

Goods to be handled as separate consignments or delivered to an agent.

(7) (a) Whenever it is intended that goods bearing similar marks be delivered at the port of delivery—

- (i) as separate consignments, such goods, in addition to being marked as already prescribed in this Regulation, shall be clearly marked with an additional marking of a different colour from those already used to enable them to be readily distinguished as separate consignments and each separate consignment shall be shipped on a separate bill of lading, entered separately on the vessel's manifest and and stacked separately when placed on any wharf; or
- (ii) to an agent or carrier for the purpose of being delivered to the owner, such goods, in addition to being marked as already prescribed in this Regulation, shall bear the distinguishing mark of such agent or carrier in a distinctive contrasting medium.

(b) any such additional marking shall be placed as previously prescribed in this Regulation for the type of goods in question.

properly packed.

(8) Goods which are packed in cartons or similar containers shall not be placed on any wharf unless such cartons or containers, in addition to being fastened with adhesives, are secured by means of a cross binding of hoop-iron, wire, or other satisfactory material.

Packing of
goods.

(9) Objectionable goods shall not be delivered for shipment at or, without the permission of the Commissioners, unshipped at any wharf unless such goods are so packed within strong, closely-woven bags or sacks or in other containers, each of such construction, strength, and durability that the goods will be unlikely to escape, leak, or spill before they are delivered to the consignee at the port of discharge.

Handling of
goods.

(10) (a) Unless the permission of the Commissioners has been granted for such goods to be landed on any wharf, objectionable goods unshipped from any vessel shall be removed by the owner of such goods direct from the slings of the vessel and shall be so handled as to prevent the contents from escaping on to the wharf.

(b) The Commissioners may grant permission for objectionable goods to be landed on a wharf, subject to such conditions as they may see fit to impose, and any failure on the part of the owner of such goods to observe each or any of the conditions so imposed shall be regarded as a breach of these Regulations and shall render him liable to the penalty prescribed in Clause 23 hereof.

Goods
creating or likely to become a nuisance.

(11) (a) If

- (i) an owner of objectionable goods fails to comply with the requirements of Clause (10) of this Regulation, or with the conditions imposed by the Commissioners under the provisions of that clause; or
- (ii) any goods break bulk, spill, leak, decay, or in any other way become obnoxious or offensive, or hinder in any way the use of or the work on any wharf the Commissioners or any officer authorized in that behalf may serve notice in writing on the owner of such goods to remove them or to abate such nuisance or danger within a time to be specified in such notice.

(b) If the owner fails to comply with the terms of the notice referred to in Sub-clause (a) of this clause, he shall be liable to the penalty provided in Clause 23 of this Regulation and the Commissioners may remove such goods or any of them at the expense and risk of the owner, or may destroy or otherwise dispose of such goods and the owner will be liable to pay the Commissioners the costs incurred by them for such destruction or disposal and in cleaning the wharf or making it fit for use.

(c) If the Commissioners sell any such goods under the powers conferred by Sub-clause (b) of this clause, the proceeds may be used in defraying the expenses incurred by such sale, including the removal and the abatement of such nuisance or danger and the cost of cleaning or making fit for use the wharf, and any surplus which may remain after all such charges and expenses have been met shall be paid to the person entitled thereto.

(12) The owner of a vessel from which goods have been unshipped on to any wharf shall— Keeping of cargo records. Cargo Location Book.

(a) Cause to be kept in the delivery office at such wharf an indexed record book, hereinafter referred to as the "Cargo Location Book."

(b) After any consignment of goods is unshipped from the vessel, forthwith cause to be entered in the Cargo Location Book a record of all such goods showing such particulars as the Commissioners may require.

(c) Make the Cargo Location Book available during business hours for examination by the owners of goods recorded therein or by any officer or employee of the Commissioners.

(13) The owner of a vessel from which goods have been unshipped on to any wharf shall— Cargo Delivery Book.

(a) Cause to be kept in the delivery office at such wharf an indexed record book hereinafter referred to as the "Cargo Delivery Book," in which shall be recorded such particulars as the Commissioners may require.

(b) Forward daily to the Commissioners a copy of each completed entry in the Cargo Delivery Book, in proper numerical order.

(c) Make available the Cargo Delivery Book for inspection as and when required by the Commissioners or by any officer authorized by them in that behalf.

(14) Whenever goods are unshipped from a vessel on to more than one wharf, the owner of such vessel shall cause to be kept a separate Cargo Location Book and Cargo Delivery Book in respect of goods at each such wharf unless he is able to arrange the entries in and the availability of such books so as to enable each separate consignment or each part of such consignment to be identified and located readily. Separate books for separate wharves.

(15) The owner of a vessel for which goods to be shipped on that vessel have been delivered on to any wharf shall— Cargo Receipt Book.

(a) Cause to be kept in the delivery office at such wharf an indexed record book, hereinafter referred to as the "Cargo Receipt Book," in which shall be recorded particulars of all such goods and the time and date of their delivery on to the property; and

(b) Make available the Cargo Receipt Book for inspection as and when required by the Commissioners or by any officer authorized by them in that behalf.

(16) (a) The owner of a vessel from which goods have been unshipped on to any wharf shall cause all such goods to be sorted, and, if practicable, stacked on such wharf in their separate consignments in such manner that the goods may be removed speedily as separate consignments. Sorting and stacking of goods.

(b) Small consignments may be stacked together in a Miscellaneous Stack, but shall be placed in such a manner as will enable the mark of each separate consignment to be distinguished readily.

(c) Owners of goods stacked as provided in Sub-clause (a) of this clause shall take delivery thereof only from the face of stacks and shall not otherwise disarrange the stacks in any way.

(17) The owner of a vessel from which goods have been unshipped on to any wharf shall cause to be kept open during business hours at least all parts of the wharf necessary to enable prompt delivery and removal of goods and at such other times as the Commissioners or any officer authorized by them in that behalf may direct in writing. Wharf to be kept open.

Notification to consignees.

(18) (a) The owner of a vessel from which goods have been unshipped on to any wharf shall forthwith after the completion of the unshipment of any consignment of goods, cause the owner of such goods to be notified of such unshipment, informing him of the particulars of the goods and their location.

(b) At any time after the unshipment of goods on to any wharf, the Commissioners or any officer authorized by them in that behalf may serve notice in writing requiring the owner of such goods to remove them from such wharf within a period of three days from the delivery of such notice.

Removal of goods.

19 (a) Inward Shipments—Goods unshipped from any vessel on to any wharf shall be removed by the owner of such goods—

(i) in the case of objectionable goods as prescribed in Clause (10);

(ii) in the case of goods in respect of which the Commissioners or any officer authorized in that behalf have served notice on the owner under the provisions of Clause 18 (b), within three days from the delivery of such notice; and

(iii) in the case of other goods, within three days after the vessel from which they were unshipped has ceased discharging cargo at the wharf at which such goods were unshipped.

(b) Outward Shipments—Goods placed on any wharf for shipment on a vessel shall be removed from such wharf within two days after having been placed thereon or by the time of the departure of the vessel whichever is the earlier.

Power to deal with goods
not removed.

(20) If goods which have been unshipped on to any wharf are not removed as prescribed in Sub-clause (a) (ii) and (iii) of Clause (19) of this Regulation, or if any goods which have been placed on any wharf for shipment are not removed as prescribed in Sub-clause (b) of Clause (19) of this Regulation, the Commissioners may without notice—

Removal to another position on property.

(a) remove such goods or cause them to be removed from the place where they were stacked after being unshipped on such wharf to any other place at the risk and expense of the owner of the goods, subject to the payment of storage rates as prescribed in Sub-paragraph (c) of this clause;

Removal to a store or other place.

(b) remove any such goods or cause them to be removed to a bond or other store or to any other place at the risk and expense of the owner of such goods, who, in addition, shall be liable for payment of all costs connected with the handling and removal of such goods and for any bond or storage expenses incurred; or

Storage rates.

(c) allow such goods to remain on the said wharf and may charge storage rates on the said goods in accordance with the following scale:—

For the first day after the expiration of the time for removal hereinbefore prescribed the rate of four pence per ton and for each subsequent day a rate not exceeding twice the rate of the preceding day.

(21) In this Regulation no Sunday and no other day which the Commissioners may declare or appoint to be considered a holiday on any wharf whereon goods are lying shall be included in the computation of time.

Discretionary powers.

(22) (a) Whenever the Commissioners are satisfied as regards any particular requirement of these Regulations that—

(i) compliance with it is impracticable or unnecessary; or

(ii) it has been complied with substantially; or

(iii) the action taken is sufficiently effective; they may by notice in writing direct that compliance with that requirement be dispensed with generally or subject to such terms as the Commissioners may deem fit.

(b) The direction referred to in Sub-clause (a) of this clause may be in respect of a particular consignment or the general consignment of such goods as are referred to in the said direction.

(c) The Commissioners from time to time may alter any or all of the terms referred to in Sub-clause (a) of this clause or may substitute other terms therefor, and all terms whether original or substituted shall be complied with strictly.

(23) Every person who commits a breach of any of the provisions of this Regulation, or who permits any such breach shall in respect of each such breach be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds together with (in the case of continuing offence) a further penalty of Five pounds.

3. Principal Regulations 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, and 96 and the Third Schedule are hereby deleted.

4. Principal Regulation 87 is hereby deleted and the following Regulation 87 substituted therefor:—

“87. Provided all Regulations affecting the same have been otherwise complied with goods intended for transhipment may remain within the Port for eight days after the expiration of the said 48 hours subject to payment (before the goods are passed to the custody of the master of the vessel by which is intended the goods are to be taken without the Port) of the transhipment rate of One shilling and nine pence per ton.”

5. Principal Regulation 261 is hereby altered by the deletion therefrom of paragraph (4) and substitution therefor of the following paragraph (4)—

“(4) pump or discharge any oil, oily water, spirit, or any inflammable liquid into the waters of the Port or on to any wharf therein.”

6. TONNAGE RATES.

HIS Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof and in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Education Act 1928 and all other powers thereto enabling, doth hereby rescind Regulation XLVIII.—Residences—and substitute a new regulation as follows:—

“REGULATION XLVIII.—RESIDENCES.

1. Any member of the teaching service occupying a departmental residence as a tenant—
  - (a) shall be charged such rent as may from time to time be determined by the Teachers Tribunal;
  - (b) shall be held responsible for the care and protection of the property.
2. Except in special circumstances approved by the Director, a member of the teaching service who is appointed to a position for which a residence is provided shall be required to occupy the residence.
3. The Director may require a member of the teaching service exempted under the provisions of clause 2 from occupying a residence, to arrange for its occupancy by an approved person.
4. In any case where a residence is sub-let by a member of the teaching service with the approval of the Director the rent paid by the sub-tenant shall not, except with the express approval of the Minister, exceed the rent determined by the Teachers Tribunal, and the member of the teaching service sub-letting the residence shall, for the purpose of this regulation, be regarded as the tenant, and shall be responsible for the care and protection of the property.
5. The tenant shall, during occupancy by himself or an approved sub-tenant, be responsible for ensuring that—
  - (a) all eaves, spouting, downpipes, and tanks are kept free from leaves and dirt;
  - (b) all drains are kept clean and free from stoppages;
  - (c) all chimneys are kept clean;
  - (d) out-offices are kept in a sanitary condition and the pans in earth-closets emptied at regular intervals;
  - (e) the site is kept clear of noxious weeds;
  - (f) the premises and grounds are left in a clean and tidy condition when vacated.”

And the Honorable Alfred Ernest Shepherd, Her Majesty's Minister of Education for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Clerk of the Executive Council.

GAOLS ACT 1928.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the sixth day of October, 1953.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the State of Victoria.

Mr. Holt | Mr. Smith.

AMENDMENT OF GAOLS REGULATIONS 1931.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Gaols Act 1928 and all other powers him thereunto enabling, His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the State of Victoria in the Commonwealth of Australia by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said State, doth hereby amend the Gaols Regulations 1931 as follows:—

Under Part IX.—Prisoners' Earnings and Gratuities of the said Regulations—clauses sixty to seventy-four inclusive are hereby revoked and the following clauses substituted therefor:—

60. A prisoner may earn credits of money (hereinafter referred to as earnings) for work performed in accordance with scales determined from time to time by the Inspector-General not exceeding a rate of 4s. per day.

61. A prisoner employed otherwise than at an industry may be eligible for earnings if the nature of the work performed by him is considered by the Inspector-General to merit payment.

62. The earnings of a prisoner shall, in the discretion of the Inspector-General, be applied—

- (a) towards the maintenance, during the detention of the prisoner, of his wife and family (if any);
- (b) in repayment to the Children's Welfare Department of any amount expended for the maintenance and support of his children during his detention;
- (c) in satisfaction of costs to the Crown on any appeal or question of law raised by the prisoner;
- (d) in satisfaction of expenses and costs involved in re-arrest and trial after escape or attempted escape;
- (e) towards payment of fees for education and training;
- (f) towards supplying personal needs of the prisoner.

63. Earnings shall be forfeited for absconding; attempting to abscond; or for any indictable offence; or in the event of deportation from the Commonwealth.

64. A deduction may be made from earnings for the value of Government property damaged or destroyed and for repeated acts of misconduct as directed by the Inspector-General.

65. An account of the earnings of each prisoner, and of all disbursements and deductions made under the provisions of these Regulations, shall be kept in the prison in which he is detained and the balance remaining to his credit shall be paid to him on release.

66. A prisoner under a life sentence shall not be eligible for earnings. With the approval of the Inspector-General, he may be allowed to take a correspondence course, payment for which will be made by the Crown, provided that the cost thereof does not exceed the amount of his earnings had he been eligible therefor at a rate determined by the Inspector-General being not higher than the maximum rate fixed by these Regulations. In the event of the release of the prisoner at any time, he may, with the approval of the Chief Secretary, be paid a gratuity not exceeding £50, provided that such gratuity, together with the cost of any educational course, does not exceed the amount of his earnings had he been eligible therefor at a rate determined by the Inspector-General being not higher than his maximum rate fixed by these Regulations.

67. Any prisoner confined in a gaol who is entitled to discharge and destitute of funds may be permitted to remain and labour in such gaol for any period not exceeding sixteen working days after the day on which he is entitled to liberation. On discharge he may be paid in respect of each such working day a sum not exceeding 4s. less, if necessary, the fare by rail or otherwise to his place of destination.

68. Each prisoner so remaining shall be subject to the rules, regulations, and discipline in operation in such gaol, and for any breach of the rules, regulations, or discipline may be summarily ejected from the gaol and forfeit any earnings.

69. Each prisoner desirous of being permitted to remain as aforesaid shall sign a document in the following form:—

I hereby request permission to remain and work at the gaol at _____ for a period of _____ days, and agree to abide by all the rules, regulations, orders, and customs now in operation there, and to waive all right of action for detention or otherwise.

Dated this _____ day of _____ 19 _____
(Witness) _____ (Signature).

70. A prisoner, not in receipt of earnings in accordance with these Regulations, may receive a gratuity at the discretion of the Inspector-General, or the gaoler, who shall inquire into the merits of each case, but on no account shall the maximum amount of the following scale be exceeded by the gaoler:—

Period of Sentence.	First Conviction.	Second Conviction.	Subsequent Conviction.
One month and not exceeding three months	0 5 0	0 4 0	0 3 0
Over three months and not exceeding six months	0 10 0	0 7 0	0 5 0
Over six months and not exceeding twelve months	1 0 0	0 15 0	0 10 0
Over twelve months and not exceeding 24 months	1 10 0	1 0 0	0 15 0
Over 24 months	2 0 0	1 10 0	1 0 0

In very special circumstances the Inspector-General may exceed the scale to the extent of 50 per cent.

71. A prisoner who has funds at his disposal or friends to assist him shall not be granted a gratuity.

72. Good conduct and industry in gaol shall be indispensable conditions for the granting of a gratuity.

And the Honorable Archibald McDonald Fraser, for and on behalf of Her Majesty's Chief Secretary for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. MAHLSTEDT,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

CRIMES ACT 1928.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the sixth day of October, 1953.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the State of Victoria.

Mr. Holt | Mr. Smith.

AMENDMENT OF INDETERMINATE SENTENCES REGULATIONS 1931.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Crimes Act 1928 and all other powers him thereunto enabling, His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the State of Victoria in the Commonwealth of Australia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said State, doth hereby amend the Indeterminate Sentences Regulations 1931 as follows:—

Clauses twenty-nine, thirty, and thirty-one of the said Regulations are hereby revoked and the following clauses substituted therefor:—

29. Every inmate shall work at some trade or vocation or be employed at some labour as may be directed by the Inspector-General and may earn credits of money (hereinafter referred to as earnings) for work performed in accordance with scales determined by the Inspector-General not exceeding a rate of 4s. per day.

30. The earnings of an inmate shall, in the discretion of the Inspector-General, be applied—

- (a) towards the maintenance, during his detention, of his wife and family (if any);
- (b) in repayment to the Children's Welfare Department of any amount expended for the maintenance and support of his children during his detention;
- (c) in satisfaction of costs awarded to the Crown on any appeal or question of law raised by the inmate;
- (d) in satisfaction of expenses and costs involved in re-arrest and trial after escape or attempted escape;
- (e) towards the payment of fees for education and training of the inmate;
- (f) towards supplying the personal needs of the inmate;
- (g) towards the purchase, of any article specified in Regulation 42 hereof.

31. Earnings shall be forfeited for absconding, attempting to abscond, or for committing any indictable offence, in the event of deportation from the Commonwealth, or when and to the extent directed by the Board under the powers conferred by sub-section (5) of Section 525 of the Act.

And the Honorable Archibald McDonald Fraser, for and on behalf of Her Majesty's Chief Secretary for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. MAHLSTEDT,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

SHIRE OF MULGRAVE.

BY-LAW No. 58.

A By-law of the Shire of Mulgrave, made under the provisions of section 197 of the Local Government Act 1946, and section 80 of the Health Act 1928, and numbered 58, for suppressing nuisances; for regulating and prohibiting of the keeping of animals (including birds) in the opinion of the Council offensive, injurious to health, or dangerous; for preventing the deposit of refuse and generally for maintaining the good rule and government of the municipality.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Local Government Act 1946 and the Health Act 1928, the President, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the Shire of Mulgrave order as follows:—

1. In this By-law, unless inconsistent with the context or subject-matter—"Cattle" means and includes horses, mares, foals, geldings, colts, fillies, bulls, bullocks, cows, heifers, steers, calves, asses, mules, sheep, ewes, wethers, rams, lambs, goats, and swine.

"Domestic Bird" means turkey, goose, duck, fowl, squab, and pigeon.

"Pen or Shed" means any building, erection or structure used and intended to be used for the purpose of confining or protecting poultry and animals.

2. No person shall keep or allow to be kept any cattle within a distance of 40 feet from any shop or dwelling.

3. No person shall keep or allow to be kept any cattle on any land having an area of less than 1 acre, without the consent, in writing, of the Council.

4. No persons shall within any part of the municipal district keep or permit to be kept more than 25 head of domestic bird or poultry on any site, or allotment of land with an area of less than 7,500 square feet nor within a distance of 150 feet from any dwelling-house or shop.

5. No person shall keep or allow to be kept any domestic bird or poultry other than in a pen, shed, run or yard, securely fenced with fowl-proof fencing, or in a bird-house made secure against the escape of such bird, and so constructed as to be rat-proof.

6. Every person keeping or allowing to be kept any domestic bird or cattle or any dog shall keep the pen, shed, run, yard or house where such bird or animal is kept, in a clean wholesome and sanitary state.

7. No person shall have, keep or allow to be kept on any property any noisy animal or bird which shall be or cause a nuisance or annoyance to any person residing in the neighbourhood of such property.

8. (1) This clause shall apply in respect of any premises whenever—

(a) at least six persons lodge with the Shire Secretary a complaint, in writing, signed by them, in which they state that they are ratepayers residing within hearing of the sound of any animal or bird on any premises, and that the noise made by such animal or bird is a nuisance or annoyance to persons who reside in the neighbourhood of such premises; and

(b) the Council is satisfied that a prima facie case exists for the suppression of such a nuisance or annoyance; and

(c) the Shire Secretary gives to the occupier or one of the occupiers of the premises a notice stating that under this By-law there has been made a complaint that the noise made by any animal or bird on the premises is a nuisance or annoyance to persons who reside in the neighbourhood thereof and calling on the occupier or occupiers of the premises to cause the nuisance or annoyance to be abated within seven days after the service of such notice.

(2) Upon the expiration of seven days from the service of a notice given pursuant to this clause, no person shall have or keep or allow to remain on the premises any animal or bird making noises so as to be a nuisance or annoyance to any person residing in the neighbourhood of the premises.

9. (1) This clause shall apply in respect of any premises whatever:

(a) The Council resolves that, in its opinion, any dog or dogs that are upon or are kept or are allowed to remain on any premises are offensive or injurious to health or dangerous, and

(b) the Shire Secretary gives to the occupier or one of the occupiers of the premises a notice setting out the resolution of the Council, and calling on the occupier or occupiers of the premises, within seven days after service of such notice, to remove any dog on the premises resolved offensive or injurious to health, or dangerous.

(2) After the expiration of seven days from the service of a notice given pursuant to this clause, no person shall have or keep or allow to remain on the premises any dog to which the resolution of the Council refers.

10. Any notice to an occupier of any premises for the purposes of this By-law shall be deemed to be properly given and served if the notice—

(a) is signed by the Shire Secretary or by any person acting as Shire Secretary, and

(b) is addressed either to the occupier by name or to the occupier described as such without his name, and

(c) is left at any dwelling-house on the premises, or at the place of residence of the person who is the occupier or is sent by registered letter directed to the occupier either by name or described as such without his name at the premises or at his place of residence, and any notice so given and served shall be deemed to have been served on the day on which it is so left, or, if posted, the day following the day of posting.

11. No person upon any street or footway shall to the obstruction or annoyance of any other person thereon or to the obstruction and annoyance of any occupier of any premises, shop, or dwelling thereon—

(a) make or cause to be made any violent outcry, noise, disturbance, or sound,

(b) sound or play upon any instrument,

(c) sing or harangue, or

(d) beg or solicit alms verbally or by motion or by the use of any, written sign, notice, or placard.

12. No person shall either by himself or his agent, servant, employee, or otherwise upon any land or premises or upon any street or footway create or cause to be occasioned an amount of noise sufficient to be an annoyance or nuisance to users of any public highway—

(a) by shouting or haranguing with any loud speaker, microphone or other device; or

(b) by operating or controlling any broadcasting set, radio set, gramophone, piano, player or other instrument or contrivance.

13. No person in any street, road or public place shall sell or offer for sale any goods in a manner calculated to obstruct or hinder members of the public in the free or proper use of such street, road, or public place.

14. No person shall carry upon any vehicle any sawdust, wood shavings, manure, or similar material, unless the same be covered in such a manner as will prevent it falling upon or being blown on to any part of a street, footway, lane or alley, whether public or private.

15. No person shall write, paint, print, stencil, place or affix any letter, figure, device, poster, sign or advertisement upon any footpath, street, road, lane or alley, or upon any building, fence or other property vested in the municipality or under the control and management of the Council thereof.

16. No person shall erect any hoarding on any land within the municipal district.

"Hoarding" means any structure greater in any dimension than 4 feet used for the exhibition of any advertisement.

17. No person being the owner or occupier of any land within the municipality shall accumulate or deposit or allow to be accumulated or deposited thereon any refuse or rubbish or matter whatsoever which is dangerous to health or offensive.

18. No person shall deposit or leave any rubbish or refuse on any street, road, lane or passage.

19. No person shall deposit or leave any rubbish or refuse on any land.

20. This By-law shall have operation throughout the whole of the municipal district of the Shire of Mulgrave.

Resolution for passing this By-law agreed to by the Council on the 29th day of January, 1953, and confirmed the 26th day of February, 1953.

SHIRE OF RUTHERGLEN.

BY-LAW No. 11.

A By-law of the Shire of Rutherglen made under the provisions of section 197 of the Local Government Act 1946, and numbered 11, for or with respect to regulating traffic, prohibiting or regulating cattle being allowed to graze on roads and the good rule of the municipality.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Local Government Act 1946, the President, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the Shire of Rutherglen, order as follows:—

1. Every person who drives cattle upon or along any road in the Shire shall proceed with them along a direct route, as far as practicable, from the point of commencement to their destination, a distance of not less than six miles in the case of sheep and of not less than ten miles in the case of other cattle, on each day while proceeding by or along such road and failure to do so shall be an offence.

2. Every person who drives cattle from any point not within the Shire of Rutherglen on to or along any road in the Shire shall, prior to so doing, notify the Council's herdsman of his intention to do so and shall state the number and kind of cattle, the names and addresses of the owner and drover of such cattle, the starting point and time of the journey within the Shire, the destination and route to be traversed. Every person who fails to notify all or any of these particulars shall be guilty of an offence.

3. Every person guilty of an offence against this By-law shall be liable to a penalty of not more than Ten shillings for each head of cattle, and not more than Five shillings for each head of sheep so driven, provided that the aggregate maximum penalty shall not exceed Twenty pounds in any one case.

4. This By-law shall come into operation on the day after its publication in the Government Gazette.

The Resolution for passing of this By-law agreed to by the Council of the Shire of Rutherglen on the 7th day of August, 1953, and confirmed on the 11th day of September, 1953.

A copy of the Gazette filed at each place for public reference.

THE "VICTORIA GOVERNMENT GAZETTE."

ATTENTION is invited to the following procedure in relation to the publication of official matter in the Government Gazette:—

1. Matter submitted to the Executive Council.
Matter submitted to the Executive Council which requires gazettal will normally be published in the issue of the following week.
Where urgent gazettal is required, special arrangements should be made with the Gazette Officer.
Publication will be facilitated by the submission of carbon copies for the use of the Gazette Officer.
2. Other matter.
  - (a) All other matter duly certified by a responsible officer for publication should be lodged with the Gazette Officer not later than half-past Ten a.m. on Tuesday.
  - (b) Lengthy or involved notices should be forwarded several days before publication.
  - (c) Proofs, which will be supplied only when specifically requested, or at the direction of the Gazette Officer, should be returned promptly to avoid delay in publication.
  - (d) No additions or amendments to matter for publication will be accepted by telephone.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.—The subscription, including postage, is £2 5s. per annum, £1 2s. 6d. half-yearly, or 11s. 3d. per quarter, payable in advance.

Subscriptions are required to commence and terminate with a month.

A lesser period than three months cannot be subscribed for.

Subscribers do not receive the Acts of Parliament with the GAZETTE.

ADVERTISEMENTS are charged at the rate of 1s. 4d. per line single column, and 2s. 8d. per line double column.

The title (£5 Reward, Dissolution of Partnerships, &c.) forms one or more lines as a heading.

On an average, ten words make a line.

Every signature must likewise be counted as a line.

The final words of a paragraph, though only portion of a line, must be counted as one line.

SIGNATURES (in particular) and proper names must be written very plainly in the text; ONE SIDE ONLY of each slip of paper should be WRITTEN UPON.

ALL COMMUNICATIONS should be addressed to "The Government Printer, Melbourne."

ALL DOCUMENTS illegibly written will be returned unpublished, and, where brands occur unprovided for by the ordinary letters of the alphabet, a worded explanatory description must be furnished.

THE VICTORIA GOVERNMENT GAZETTE is published on WEDNESDAY EVENING in each week, and Notices for insertion will be received by the Government Printer at or before Two p.m. at ordinary rates; and late advertisements between Two p.m. and Five p.m. at double rates on the day preceding the day of publication.

Single copies of the VICTORIA GOVERNMENT GAZETTE are Nine pence, posted One shilling, each.

No GAZETTES prior to January, 1942, in stock.

***ALL PAYMENTS ARE REQUIRED IN ADVANCE.—Remittances should be made by postal note, money order, or draft in favour of the Government Printer. Advertisements unaccompanied by a remittance sufficient to cover the cost of insertion will be returned unpublished.
