A. 3 p.m. to 11 p.m.

N. 11 p.m. to 7 a.m.

- (i) The roster may be varied for firemen on special duties and to provide that during the first year of service a fireman may be rostered for up to five consecutive day duties.
- (ii) The roster when once compiled shall not be departed from except to meet an emergency due to sickness or other unexpected or unavoidable cause. The roster may be departed from when a member of the band is requested by the Employing Authority provided that any time taken when off duty shall be made up as mutually arranged between the said Authority and the member concerned.
- (iii) In the event of an alarm requiring any station to stand by or turn out for a fire being received at the station during roll call the oncoming shift shall man the appliances, and if required, proceed to the fire, and the offgoing shift shall remain on duty if required until the other shift returns or until otherwise directed, when it shall be dismissed.
- (iv) If, when the oncoming shift reports at a station at the time prescribed for the change of shift, the other shift is proceeding to, or attending a fire or alarm, the oncoming shift, if so ordered, shall, after roll call, proceed to the fire; and the officer or senior member of the shift shall report the arrival of the shift to the Officer-in-charge of the fire without delay. The offgoing shift shall remain on duty at the fire until relieved. The Officer-in-charge at the fire may if in his judgment it is expedient, hold both the oncoming and offgoing shifts for duty at the fire. If the offgoing shift is not held at the fire or detailed at the fire for duty elsewhere, it shall report back to the station and remain available until the other shift returns or until otherwise directed, when it shall be dismissed.
- (v) In the event of one or more members of the oncoming shift being absent, an equal number of members in the shift on duty may be detained on duty until such time as he or they may be relieved. Nothing herein contained is to be deemed to sanction an unauthorized absence, or to relieve the absent member from a liability to be charged with being absent without leave and dealt with accordingly.
- (vi) Notwithstanding anything contained in this clause, in the case of fire, all firemen off duty shall be liable to be called upon to report for duty, and if called upon shall report for duty immediately.
