The trade description to be applied to artificial or imitation leather (other than leather goods as defined by the Acts) which does not form a covering of upholstered furniture shall clearly indicate that the said artificial or imitation leather is not real leather and shall not include any word or words or phrase calculated to lead any person into a belief that such artificial or imitation leather is real leather.

MANNER OF APPLYING TRADE DESCRIPTIONS.

11. (1) The trade description to be applied to any article of bedding or upholstered furniture shall be applied thereto in a conspicuous position by securely sewing flagwise into a seam on each separate article a label—
