14. Save as is otherwise expressly provided in the Act or these Rules jurors from any pool who have been impanelled or selected for any inquest shall, when that inquest is concluded or jurors are no longer required therefor, return to the place of assembly of the pool unless the period for which the pool was summoned has expired or the jurors in the pool have been discharged, and upon their return those jurors shall again be for all purposes jurors in the pool.

Return of jurors to pool.

(i) that such person has applied to the sheriff to be excused as aforesaid and the sheriff has not excused such person, or that such person has not applied to the sheriff to be excused as aforesaid but that there was good reason for his failure to apply; and

(ii) that such person ought to be excused from attendance by reason of any illness or incapacity or any other matter of special urgency or importance—the Judge in charge of the pool may if he thinks fit discharge such person from further attendance as a juror or excuse such person from attendance for any period during the period of the pool."

(b) As if sub-section (3) of section 9 provided as follows:—

"(3) The following provisions shall apply:—

(a) At the conclusion of any inquest which has required the attendance of jurors for a lengthy period the court by which the inquest was tried or the Judge for the time being in charge of the pool from which the jurors were drawn may determine that the jurors are to be exempt from serving as jurors for such period as the court or Judge specifies, and the court or Judge shall notify the sheriff accordingly.

(b) On proof on oath or affidavit or statutory declaration to the satisfaction of the judge for the time being in charge of a pool to which a juror is summoned or of the court in which a juror so summoned is required to serve or of the sheriff that such person is suffering from a physical infirmity or disability which in the opinion of the court judge or sheriff (as the case may be) will permanently disable that person from serving as a juror, the judge, court or sheriff may determine that that person shall be permanently exempt from serving as a juror.

(c) Where pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this sub-section it is determined that any person is to be exempt from serving as a juror, either for a specified period or permanently, the sheriff shall issue to that person a certificate of exemption accordingly."

the pool, and the sheriff shall keep the cards so drawn out until the day for the attendance of jurors at the pool."

(e) As if section 24 provided as follows:—

"24. The sheriff shall return to the box the card bearing the number of any juror who does not attend when summoned as hereinafter provided and shall put the remainder of the cards into the box marked 'Jurors in Reserve'. The cards placed in the box marked 'Jurors in Reserve' shall remain in such box until all cards have been drawn from the box marked 'Jurors in Use' when such cards may be returned to the box marked 'Jurors in Use' for the purpose of being again used:

Provided that in excusing or discharging any person from attendance at a pool as a juror the Judge for the time being in charge of the pool or the sheriff (as the case may be) may direct that the card bearing the number of that person be returned to the box marked 'Jurors in Use' instead of being put into the box marked 'Jurors in Reserve'."

(f) As if sub-section (4) of section 25 provided as follows:—

"(4) A copy of every panel from which the jury is to be struck in any civil inquest shall be kept by the sheriff for inspection for three days before the day for the attendance of jurors at the pool and after the said days until the panel ceases to be operative and a copy shall be delivered to any person during that period on payment of the sum of Five shillings."

(g) As if sub-section (1) of section 26 provided as follows:—

Subject to this Act the jurors in the panel shall be the jurors to try all issues upon inquests in any of the courts to which the pool of jurors to which they are summoned relates, and all such proceedings may be taken before such juries in like manner and with the like consequences as before any jury summoned in pursuance of any writ or precept before the commencement of this Act; and on any trial no assessment of costs or damage by way of costs shall be made."

(i) As if sub-section (2) of section 30 provided as follows:—

"(2) The sheriff shall cause a jury to be struck from such jurors, the parties being entitled to challenge for cause and peremptorily in like manner in all respects as is herein prescribed in cases of juries for the trial of civil inquests, and shall cause the jury when so struck to view such place or property at some time to be named in the order, and the sheriff or some other officer approved by the court and two persons in the said order named and appointed by the court shall show such jurors the place or property in question, and no other person shall accompany such viewers. Jurors for such a jury may be drawn from the panel of any pool of jurors relating to the court in which the inquest is to be tried."

(j) As if sub-section (1) of section 33 provided:—

(k) As if section 34 provided as follows:—

“34. The officer on delivery of the panel for any pool of jurors shall call aloud the names of the jurors (but unless in any particular case the Judge for the time being in charge of the pool otherwise directs not their additions) one after another, and those who answer to their names may subject to the Melbourne Civil Jury Rules 1959 be sworn before the Judge for the time being in charge of the pool to the effect of the form in the Eighth Schedule applicable to civil inquests and being once sworn shall not need to be resworn unless either party or they that sue for the Queen so require, and the officer shall as each juror is so sworn make a minute thereof on the panel.”

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author details the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both manual and automated processes. The goal is to ensure that the data is as accurate and reliable as possible.

The third part of the document focuses on the results of the analysis. It shows that there is a clear trend in the data, which is consistent with the initial hypothesis. This finding is significant as it provides strong evidence for the proposed model.

Finally, the document concludes with a summary of the findings and some recommendations for future research. It suggests that further studies should be conducted to explore the underlying causes of the observed trends.
