(a) By deleting paragraph 13 (a) and substituting therefor the following:—

“13. (a) There shall be paid to a member while performing duties as a member of the Fingerprint-Records Section of the Information Bureau, an allowance at the following rate:—

Rank or Position.	Allowance per Day.
	s.	d.

If in any case the total allowance payable under this sub-paragraph for any period of 24 hours exceeds the full daily rate, he shall be paid the lesser amount. The provisions of paragraph 65 hereof shall not apply to this sub-paragraph.”

(c) By deleting paragraphs 52, 53, 54, 55 and 56 and substituting therefor the following:—

“52. Subject to the provisions of this Sub-Division, members shall be entitled by way of reimbursement to travelling expenses under the scale and conditions following:—

(1) A member travelling on duty outside the State of Victoria:—

(a) (i) In all capital cities, including Canberra, in respect of each visit, for each day, but not more than three weeks, 100s. a day, and thereafter, three-quarters of the daily rate.

(ii) In all places other than capital cities, in respect of each visit, for each day, but not more than three weeks, 70s. a day, and thereafter, three-quarters of the daily rate.

(b) A member engaged on interchange duty in another State of the Commonwealth shall be paid 95s. a day during the period when so engaged.

(c) A member travelling on duty to and from and whilst engaged on duty in New Zealand shall be paid 120s. per day during the period when so travelling or engaged.

(d) If the said period of absence is less than a complete day or includes a portion of a day, the member shall be allowed in respect of any of the above periods, an amount of the appropriate daily rate calculated in the proportion of the number of hours in the part of the day for which the claim is made, to 24 hours.

- (2) A member travelling on duty elsewhere:—

- (e) After the first night and up to three weeks inclusive, he shall be paid for each full day—70s.; for part of a day—2s. 11d. an hour.
- (f) After three weeks in one place, he shall be paid for each full day three-quarters of the daily rate prescribed in clause (e) hereof; for part of a day—2s. 11d. an hour.

(3) (a) In any case provided for in clauses (e) and (f) of sub-paragraph (2) hereof, if adequate accommodation, free of charge, is provided to a member, he shall be entitled to the sum of 30s. for each full day. If an adequate meal or meals is or are provided to him free of charge, the said sum shall be reduced pro rata.

(b) In no case shall the total allowances payable under sub-paragraph (2) for any period of 24 hours exceed the full daily rate.

(4) (a) Subject to the provisions of other clauses of this sub-paragraph, transfer expenses of members, their wives and children, and reasonable costs of removing furniture and effects shall be allowed when such members are transferred from one station or district to another station or district. In cases of transfer of members or their furniture and effects to and from country districts, or from one country district to another (if the cost of removal is paid for or to be borne by the Government), the railways shall be utilized wherever such facilities are available.

(b) Members shall not be allowed transfer expenses under clause (a) of this sub-paragraph if, at their own request, they are transferred to a station and their transfer expenses have been paid within three years of appointment thereto in respect of any transfer for which they had applied. Such members must not use railway requisitions.

(c) Where a member is transferred from one station to another and is entitled under clause (a) or allowed by the Chief Commissioner under clause (e) of this sub-paragraph to receive transfer expenses, he shall also be paid the sum of £25 as compensation for accelerated depreciation and extra wear and tear on furniture and effects, and for replacing or altering carpets, linoleums, curtains, blinds and household goods resulting from the transfer. If the Chief Commissioner is of opinion, upon consideration of all the facts, that the sum of £25 is not sufficient compensation, he may allow such further reasonable sum as he thinks fit.

(d) If members who are entitled to transfer expenses under this sub-paragraph and who own motor cars transport themselves and families by car when on transfer, such members may claim the equivalent of first class rail fares or the mileage rate, whichever amount is the lesser cost to the Government. If a member is travelling to a station where he will be performing motor car duties or is travelling from a station where he has been performing motor car duties he shall be allowed the mileage rates.

(e) If there are special circumstances connected with any transfer the Chief Commissioner may, after considering all the facts, allow transfer expenses.

53. If a member is supplied, free of cost, with sleeping accommodation in respect of a journey made by rail, there shall be deducted from any expenses payable to him the sum of 40s. in respect of each night when such accommodation is provided.

54. If a member travels by air, boat, rail or other facility and food and sleeping accommodation or either of them is provided and charged for in the fare, he shall not be entitled to any of the expenses hereinbefore prescribed, but shall be entitled during such travel to receive an allowance of 7s. 6d. per day or for any part thereof.

55. If a member attends any Court or inquiry of a similar nature, in an official capacity and cannot reasonably return to his station for his midday meal, he shall be paid, by way of reimbursement, a meal allowance of 7s. 6d.

56. (1) (a) If a member is required to remain on duty later than 8 a.m. and thereby extends his usual or prescribed hours of duty by at least two hours, he shall be paid, by way of reimbursement, a meal allowance of 7s. 6d.

(b) If a member is required to remain on duty later than 1.30 p.m. and thereby extends his usual or prescribed hours of duty by at least two hours, he shall be paid, by way of reimbursement, a meal allowance of 7s. 6d.

(c) If a member is required to remain on duty later than 6.30 p.m. and thereby extends his usual or prescribed hours of duty by at least two hours, he shall be paid, by way of reimbursement, a meal allowance of 10s.

(2) If a member is required to commence duty at least two hours before his usual or prescribed starting time, and is thereby required to perform duty continuously for a period covering two or more meal hours and being not less than ten hours in duration, he shall be paid, by way of reimbursement, the appropriate meal allowance."

(d) By deleting paragraph 64 and substituting therefor the following:—

"64. Under this Sub-Division the day shall be reckoned to commence at 6 a.m. and end at midnight, and the night to commence at 12 midnight and end at 6 a.m., but if unavoidable circumstances necessitate an earlier departure than 6 a.m., the day shall be reckoned as commencing from such starting time. If such circumstances prevent a return to station until after midnight, the day shall be reckoned as ending at the hour of such arrival on return to the station. The daily rates under clauses (e) and (f) of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 52 hereof shall be considered to begin at 6 a.m. of the day following the only or last night claim, and any period thereafter short of a complete 24 hours shall be charged at the hourly rate. In any claim at the hourly rate, a period of half an hour or over may be reckoned as an hour, but no claim shall be allowed for any period less than half an hour."

2. This Determination shall come into operation upon the 27th December, 1964.

Dated at Melbourne this 23rd day of December, 1964.
