4. Your petitioner further says that Cunningham in September and October 1980 and at all material times was a member of the Australian Labor Party and was selected and endorsed by the said Australian Labor Party as its candidate for the said Electoral Division of McMillan.

5. And your petitioner further says that in September and October 1980 one David Combe was the National Secretary of the Australian Labor Party.

6. And your petitioner further says that in or about September or October 1980 an agreement, arrangement or understanding was made between the said Cunningham and the said David Combe and other officers of the Australian Labor Party that the said David Combe, either alone or in association with other persons authorised on his behalf or on behalf of the Australian Labor Party, would prepare and issue advertising material for publication on behalf of, inter alia, Cunningham in daily and weekly newspapers, television stations and radio stations for circulation and/or dissemination, inter alia, on behalf of the said Cunningham in the said Electoral Division of McMillan and generally on behalf of the endorsed candidates standing for election on behalf of the Australian Labor Party.

7. Your petitioner further says that in September or October 1980 the said David Combe for and on behalf of the Australian Labor Party and candidates endorsed on its behalf including the said Cunningham prepared for publication and dissemination advertising material which is more fully described in the following paragraphs.

8. Your petitioner further says that on the authorisation of the said David Combe on behalf of the said Australian Labor Party there was caused to be published, inter alia on the following dates and in the following newspapers circulating extensively in the said Electoral Division of McMillan, an advertisement which consisted of nine newspaper posters with various headings appearing on them as are more fully described below under which appeared in large type the words "Bad News from Mr Fraser" which were then followed by further words in small type which are also more fully described below:—

Newspaper; Date

Sun News Pictorial; 15 October 1980

The Age; 16 October 1980

The newspaper posters, from left to right and down the page contained the following words:—

1. "Late Final: Up go tax, smokes, drink, petrol. Out goes Medibank. It's a Horror."
2. "City Extra: New Health Slug."
3. "City Extra: Petrol Price Spirals."
4. "City Extra: Tax Cuts: Families Miss Out."
5. "City Extra: $9 a week on your bills Slugged!"
6. "Late Final: Tax Levy stays, Health aid goes. Lies, Lies, Lies."
7. "Late Final: Home Loan costs to rise again."
8. "City Extra: 5.2 cents increase Petrol: New Shock."
9. "City Extra: One in five teenagers out of work. Jobless Hits Record."

Under those newspaper posters, which occupied approximately five sixths of the advertisement, appeared the following words in large type:

"Bad News from Mr Fraser."

Under the words appearing above appeared the following words:

"Over the last two years, income tax has gone up an incredible 31 per cent. On top of that we pay a crippling petrol tax. So today, the average Australian family is sixteen dollars a week worse off. For five years the Fraser Government has been taking, without giving anything back. And that's really not good enough."

There then appeared a photograph of Mr William Hayden, the Parliamentary leader of the Australian Labor Party together with a representation of the Australian flag under which appeared the words:

"Raise the Standard. Vote A.L.P."

In the advertisement in small type appeared the following words:

"(Advertisement) Authorised by David Combe, John Curtin House, Canberra."

Under that newspaper poster appeared the following words in large type:—

"Good News from Mr Hayden."

Under the words appearing above appeared the following words:—

"In a country as rich as Australia, we shouldn't pay more tax every year. Bill Hayden's tax cuts mean an extra $3 a week in everyone's pay packet. And he'll freeze the price of our Australian oil. Responsible tax cuts and cheaper petrol will lead to a better economy and to less inflation. And that's something we can all afford."

There then appeared a photograph of Mr Hayden, the Parliamentary leader of the Australian Labor Party together with a representation of the Australian flag under which appeared the words:—

"Raise the Standard. Vote A.L.P."

In the advertisement in small type appeared the following words:—

Over the last two years tax has gone up 31 per cent and we pay a crippling petrol tax. Today the average Australian family is sixteen dollars a week worse off. In a country as rich as Australia we shouldn't pay more tax each and every year. "Family Allowance
Since 1976, the Family Allowance has not been increased by one cent. In the same period, prices have risen 40 per cent, while disposable incomes have risen only 30 per cent. Under Bill Hayden's family assistance plan, families earning between $8000 and $14000 will receive increases in their family allowances of up to $4.00 per week per child."

Your petitioner has not set out in full the whole of the words contained in the said leaflet and craves leave to refer in full to all of the words contained in the leaflet when produced at the hearing.

13. Your petitioner further says that the said advertisements and pamphlet and each of them referred to in paragraphs 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 contained untrue and incorrect statements and were intended to and/or were likely to mislead the electors in the Electoral Division of La Trobe in or in relation to the casting of their votes.

14. Your petitioner further says that in particular and without limiting the generality of paragraph 13 the following statements contained in the said advertisements were untrue and incorrect and were intended to and/or were likely to mislead the electors:

- (a) In the advertisements referred to in paragraph 8:
 - (i) "Over the last two years, income tax has gone up an incredible 31 per cent"
 - (ii) "So today, the average Australian family is sixteen dollars a week worse off"
 - (iii) "For five years the Fraser Government has been taking, without giving anything back".
- (b) In relation to the advertisements referred to in paragraph 9 of this petition:
 - (i) "Cheaper petrol"
 - (ii) "And he'll freeze the price of our Australian oil".
- (c) In relation to the advertisements referred to in paragraph 11:
 - (i) "Over the last two years tax has gone up 31 per cent"

- (ii) "Today the average Australian family is sixteen dollars a week worse off"
- (iii) "For too long the Fraser Government has been taking without giving anything back"
- (iv) "We'll freeze the price of Australian oil"
- (v) "Cheaper petrol".

(d) In relation to the pamphlet referred to in paragraph 12:

"In the same period, prices have risen 40 per cent while disposable incomes have risen only 30 per cent."

15. Your petitioner further says that in particular, without limiting the generality of paragraph 13, the said advertisements referred to in paragraphs 8, 9 and 10 contained or constituted untrue and incorrect statements in that:

- (a) they falsely represented that the newspaper posters appearing in those advertisements were authentic and were true copies or photographs of newspaper posters which had appeared during the preceding years when the Right Honourable Mr Malcolm Fraser was the Prime Minister of the Commonwealth of Australia;
- (b) the copies or photographs of the said newspaper posters referred to were not copies or photographs of any such newspaper posters which had appeared during the period referred to in sub-paragraph (a);
- (c) the said newspaper posters referred to in the advertisements were never published.

16. Your petitioner claims that by reason of the matters hereinbefore mentioned illegal practices were committed in connection with the said election contrary to section 161 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act. Your petitioner further claims, and the fact is, that the said illegal practices were committed by David Combe and the said Milton and each of them.

17. Your petitioner further says that the said illegal practices were committed with the knowledge and authority of the said Milton.

18. Further, or in the alternative, your petitioner says that the result of the election was likely to be affected by the advertisements (being or constituting illegal practices) hereinbefore referred to and each of them within the meaning of section 191 (3) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act.

19. Your petitioner further says that it is just that the said Milton should be declared not to be duly elected and that his said election should be declared void.

Your petitioner therefore prays:

1. That it may be declared that the said Milton was not duly elected and that his election be declared void.
2. That it be declared that your petitioner was duly elected and ought to have been returned.
3. In the alternative, that it may be ordered that a new election be held for the Electoral Division of La Trobe in the State of Victoria.

4. That the said Milton be ordered to pay the costs of this petition.

5. That such further or other order may be made as the nature of the case may require.

MARSHALL BAILLIEU, Petitioner (A person qualified to vote at the said election referred to in paragraph 1 hereof).

The Petition herein was signed by the petitioner Marshall Baillieu in our presence and in the presence of each of us.
