- (2) Members shall not be allowed transfer expenses under paragraph 62(1) if, at their own request, they are transferred to a station and their transfer expenses have been paid within 3 years of appointment thereto in respect of any transfer for which they had applied. Such members must not use railway requisitions.
- (3) Where a member is transferred from one station to another and is entitled under paragraph 62(1) or allowed by the Chief Commissioner under paragraph 62(7) to receive transfer expenses, he shall also be paid the sum of $260 as compensation for accelerated depreciation and extra wear and tear on furniture and effects and for replacing or altering carpets, linoleums, curtains, blinds and household goods resulting from the transfer. Where the Chief Commissioner is of opinion, upon consideration of all the facts, the sum of $260 is not sufficient compensation, he may allow such further reasonable sum as he thinks fit.
- (4) Where members who are entitled to transfer expenses under this paragraph and who own motor cars, transport themselves and their substantially dependent spouse and/or substantially dependent children by car when on transfer, such members may claim the equivalent of first class rail fares or the kilometre rate, whichever amount is the lesser cost to the Government. Where a member is travelling to a station where he will be performing motor car duties or is travelling from a station where he has been performing motor car duties he shall be allowed the kilometre rates.
- (5) Subject to the provisions of other sub-paragraphs of this paragraph, a member who is entitled to transfer expenses as therein provided and who by reason of the transfer concerned is obliged to sell a residence occupied by him at his old location and to purchase or build another residence for permanent occupation by him at his new location, shall be entitled to reimbursement of stamp duty paid by him upon the purchase of such residence or land for the purpose of building upon it such a residence at that new location. Provided that such re-imbursement shall not be payable to the member unless and until he enters into occupation of such residence and within a period of 15 months after the effective date of such transfer as recorded in the relevant Notice of Transfer.
- (6) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 62(5) a member who is entitled to re-imbursement of Stamp Duty paid upon the purchase of a residence or land, shall likewise be entitled to re-imbursement of Stamp Duty paid, on the mortgage instrument, if any, in relation to such purchase.
- (7) Where there are special circumstances connected with any transfer the Chief Commissioner may, after considering all the facts, allow transfer expenses.
- 63(1) Where a member who maintains his substantially dependent spouse and/or substantially dependent children satisfies the Chief Commissioner that during the first 12 months of service or following any transfer he has made reasonable efforts to obtain housing accommodation for himself and his family at or near where he is stationed or employed, and has failed to do so and is therefore required to live away from the place where his family is so maintained, he shall be entitled to receive an allowance of $53.50 per week during the time he is so required to live away from his family and is unable to secure such accommodation. Provided that no member shall receive any such allowance for a period longer than 12 calendar months.

- (2) A member in receipt of an allowance under paragraph 63(1) shall not be entitled to travelling expenses under paragraph 45 for such living away, but if he travels on duty from the place at which he is living away, he shall be paid the appropriate travelling allowance for such travelling in addition to his living away allowance, but his living away allowance shall cease if he is absent travelling on duty for a period in excess of 1 week from the place where he is living away.
- (3) A member in receipt of an allowance under paragraph 63(1) who is on leave for any period of 1 week or less shall be paid such allowance, if he is on leave for any period in excess of 1 week, no portion of such allowance shall be paid.

64 A member who, in consequence of having been selected for appointment to the Police Force and who, at the time of his selection was resident interstate or overseas, has necessarily incurred expenditure on the conveyance of himself, his substantially dependent spouse and/or substantially dependent children and furniture and effects from such place of residence to another in Victoria shall:

- (i) where the member was resident overseas, be entitled to:
- (a) payment of economy class air fare for himself, his substantially dependent spouse and/or substantially dependent children;
  - (b) re-imbursement of 75 per cent of expenses reasonably incurred up to a maximum re-imbursement of $3550 for the removal of personal effects; and
  - (c) in the case of a member with a substantially dependent spouse and/or substantially dependent children payment of the allowance prescribed in paragraph 63(1) as compensation for temporary accommodation expenses; or
- (ii) where the member was resident interstate, be entitled to:
- (a) payment of economy class airfare or first class rail fare for himself, his substantially dependent spouse and/or substantially dependent children or, if the member has used his private motor vehicle, a car kilometre allowance as prescribed in paragraph 56 plus the actual reasonable accommodation and meal costs incurred whilst travelling;
  - (b) re-imbursement of 75 per cent of the cost of removal of furniture and effects, including the cost of comprehensive insurance cover for such furniture and effects whilst in transit up to a maximum cover of $25 000 up to the following maximum amount:

Relocation from	Maximum Reimbursement $
New South Wales, South Australia and Australian Capital Territory	2150
Queensland, Tasmania, Western Australia and Northern Territory	2850

- (c) in the case of a member with a substantially dependent spouse and/or substantially dependent children, payment of the accommodation expenses prescribed in paragraph 63(1) as compensation for temporary accommodation expenses.

- 65 Where a member is stationed and residing in a different part of the State from that in which he intends to make his permanent home on retirement, he shall before retiring on account of age or ill health be provided with free first class rail fare for himself, his substantially dependent spouse and/or substantially dependent children for the purpose of taking up residence at his proposed permanent home. Where such member uses his own motor car for such purposes for himself and his family, he shall be paid the equivalent of the first class rail fares or mileage rates, whichever amount is the lesser for such journey. In addition he shall be entitled to have his furniture and effects transported to such place at the expense of the Government and that accelerated depreciation under paragraph 62(3) also be paid. The Chief Commissioner shall arrange for such transport, and where practicable railway transport shall be used for the purpose.
- 66 Where a member intends making his permanent home outside the State of Victoria, he shall before retiring on account of age or ill health be entitled so far only as to the Victorian border to the benefits for himself, his substantially dependent spouse and/or substantially dependent children provided for in paragraph 65.
