REVIEW OF DISTRIBUTION OF TAXATION
POWERS BETWEEN COMMONWEALTH AND STATE GOVERNMENTS

Whereas section 4F (1) (a) (ii) of the Parliamentary Committees Act 1968 provides (inter alia) that the Governor in Council by Order published in the Government Gazette may refer any proposal, matter or thing relevant to the functions of the Joint Investigatory Economic and Budget Review Committee under the said Act for inquiry consideration and report to the Parliament:

Now therefore His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, and in the exercise of the powers conferred on him by the said Act, doth hereby refer to the said Committee the following matter, namely:

To inquire into, consider and report to Parliament, by 31 March 1986, on the Distribution of Taxation Powers between Commonwealth and State Governments in the following terms:

1. In view of the high degree of concentration of taxation powers in Australia at the Commonwealth level and the substantial expenditure responsibilities of the States; and

2. Bearing in mind the consequences of this high degree of vertical imbalance for the structure of State taxation and for the efficiency and accountability of both levels of government;

3. The Committee is requested to report on practical options for a redistribution of taxation powers between the two levels of government taking into account:

- (a) that any such redistribution should not lead to an increase in the overall taxation burden in Australia;
- (b) that any such redistribution should facilitate the restoration of a reasonable degree of vertical fiscal balance;
- (c) the respective roles of each level of government in respect of management of the economy, income redistribution and the efficient provision of community needs; and
- (d) the implications for revenue equalisation for the less populous States.

And the Honourable Robert Allen Jolly, Her Majesty's Treasurer for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
