Amendment No. 132

Notice is hereby given that the Geelong Regional Commission in pursuance of its powers under the Town and Country Planning Act 1961, has prepared an Amending Scheme for inclusion in the Planning Scheme Ordinance. The Ordinance changes are as follows:

Item No.

0.1 In Clause 4 in the interpretation "Animal Husbandry" insert the following:

"Animal Park means building works and land ordinarily open to the public whether with or without the payment of a fee, used for the purposes of the keeping, breeding and exhibition of animals, birds or reptiles."

0.2 In Clause 4 in the interpretation "Tourist Establishment" after the words "or shop" add the words "or animal park".

0.3 In the Table to Clause 10

in Section 1—Rural General Farming Zone insert "Animal Park" in Column 4.

in Section 2—Rural Intensive Farming Zone insert "Animal Park" in Column 4.

in Section 3—Rural Natural Features Zone insert "Animal Park" in Column 4.

in Section 7—Rural Floodland Zone insert "Animal Park" in Column 4.

0.4 In Sub-Clause 18 (8) delete all of paragraph (b) and replace it with the following:

"(b) In considering any application made pursuant to Paragraph (a) of this Sub-Clause or any application for the use and development of any land in a Rural Floodland Zone the Responsible Authority shall have regard to:

- (i) the compatibility with the known flood risk;
- (ii) the likelihood of causing undesirable redistribution or rise in level of flood flows;
- (iii) the possible adverse affect on the health and safety of people or animals;
- (iv) the likelihood of placing unreasonable demands on the community for restoration of losses or emergency evacuation;
- (v) the degree to which the selected building site is subject to inundation;
- (vi) the necessity of carrying out works to avoid the inundation of building by flood;
- (vii) the design of footings and the level of internal floor surfaces relative to flooding levels;
- (viii) any important landscape characteristics of the area and the suitability of the selected building site in relation thereto."

A copy of the Amending Scheme has been deposited at this office—Geelong Regional Commission, State Government Offices, corner of Little Malop and Fenwick Streets, Geelong, at the offices of the Shire of Corio, Osborne House, Swinburne Street, North Geelong; Shire of Bannockburn, 12 Pope Street, Bannockburn; City of Newtown, 263 Pakington Street, Newtown; Shire of Barrabool, 441 Moorabool Street, South Geelong; City of South Barwon, 2 Colac Road, Belmont; City of Geelong, Gheringhap Street, Geelong; Borough of Queenscliffe, 50 Learmonth Street, Queenscliff; City of Geelong West, 12 Albert Street, Geelong West; Shire of Bellarine, Collins Street, Drysdale and at the office of the Ministry for Planning and Environment (Plan Inspection Section), 5th Floor, 235 Queen Street, Melbourne, and will be open for inspection during office hours by any person free of charge.

Any persons affected by the Amending Scheme are required to set forth in writing any submissions they may wish to make with respect to the Amending Scheme addressed to the Secretary, Mr G. R. Cowling, Geelong Regional Commission, P.O. Box 770, Geelong, by Monday, 19 August 1985, and to state whether they wish to be heard in respect of their submission.

Hospitals and Charities Act 1958

PETITION TO INCORPORATE

Swan Hill and District Alcohol and Drug Awareness Centre

It is notified in accordance with the provisions of sections 46 and 64 of the Hospitals and Charities Act 1958 that the Health Commission of Victoria has received a petition signed by thirty four contributors to an organization known as Swan Hill and District Alcohol and Drug Awareness Centre praying that the organization be incorporated as a benevolent society under the provisions of the said Act.

The organisation will have for its objects—

- to provide a Centre for physical and social rehabilitation of alcoholics and drug addicts;
- to provide facilities for the carrying out of investigations into all aspects of alcohol and drug abuse;
- to conduct a continuing education program in the community on alcohol and drug abuse;
- to provide facilities for the training of personnel concerned with alcohol and drug dependent persons;
- to provide a Centre for any other urgent needs within the community.

If a counter petition signed by an equal or greater number of contributors is not lodged with the aforesaid Commission at 555 Collins Street, Melbourne, within one month of publication of this notice the Governor in Council may, by order pursuant to the Hospitals and Charities Act 1958, declare the contributors for the time being to Swan Hill and District Alcohol and Drug Awareness Centre to be a body corporate by the name set forth in such order.

SOLICITORS' (AUDIT AND PRACTISING CERTIFICATES) RULES 1985

Part 1—Preliminary

1. These Rules may be cited as the Solicitors' (Audit and Practising Certificates) Rules 1985 and shall come into operation on 1 August 1985.

2. The Solicitors' (Audit and Practising Certificates) Rules 1965* and all Rules amending those Rules are hereby repealed.

3. (1) In these Rules, unless inconsistent with the context or subject matter—

“Act” means the Legal Profession Practice Act 1958.

“Audit date” means 31 March.

“Auditor” means—

- (a) a practising public accountant; or
- (b) a competent accountant or other competent person approved by the Council pursuant to section 81, employed by a solicitor, or appointed by the Council, to make an examination or audit of a solicitor's trust accounts.

“Form” means a form in the Schedule.

“Notify” means notify in writing.

“Section” means section of the Act.

“Solicitor” has the same meaning as in section 15 (1).

“Trust bank account” means an account at a bank into which trust money is, or is required by law to be, paid.

(2) A reference in these Rules to money received by a solicitor includes a reference to money received in the course of, or in connexion with, the practice of that solicitor by—

- (a) any partner of that solicitor;
- (b) any of the clerks or servants of that solicitor or that solicitor's firm; or
- (c) any practitioner with whom that solicitor or that solicitor's firm shares remuneration for any business.

* Published in the Victoria Government Gazette, 24 March 1965, p. 692.

Part 2—Notification Relating to Practice

4. A practitioner who becomes an employee of a solicitor in connexion with the practice of that solicitor shall—

- (a) within 14 days after the beginning of that employment, notify the Council of the solicitor's name and address; and
- (b) within 14 days of any change in that employment or of the cessation thereof, notify the Council of that change or cessation.

5. (1) A solicitor who—

- (a) whether by himself or in partnership and whether or not he has previously been or remains in practice in any other place in Victoria, commences or recommences practice as a solicitor or establishes a branch of his practice as a solicitor;

(b) amalgamates his practice or a branch of his practice as a solicitor with the practice or a branch of the practice of another solicitor;

(c) ceases to carry on his practice or a branch of his practice as a solicitor, whether or not he continues to carry on any other branch thereof; or

(d) is a member of a partnership which is dissolved or a member of which dies or retires or which admits a new partner, shall notify the Council within 14 days after that commencement, recommencement, establishment, amalgamation, cessation, dissolution, death, retirement or admission, as the case may be.

(2) The legal personal representative of a solicitor who dies while engaged in practice on his own behalf and not in partnership shall notify the Council within 14 days after the grant of probate or letters of administration, as the case may be.

(3) A solicitor who acquires the practice or a branch of the practice of another solicitor shall notify the Council within 14 days after that acquisition.

6. A solicitor shall—

(a) within 14 days after commencing or recommencing practice or establishing a branch of his practice and thereafter annually at the time of making application for a practising certificate, notify the Council of each address at which he carries on his practice or a branch of his practice; and

(b) notify the Council within 14 days after any alteration of any such address.

Part 3—Employment of Auditors

7. (1) Subject to the Act and these Rules, a solicitor who receives trust money shall, within one month after first receiving any trust money, appoint an auditor to audit his trust accounts.

(2) The Council may require a solicitor to terminate the appointment of an auditor if the Council is of the opinion that for any reason the auditor may not properly perform his duties, but the solicitor and the auditor shall first be given an opportunity to show cause why the Council should not require the appointment to be terminated.

(3) A person shall not, without the prior written approval of the Council, be appointed or continue as an auditor of a solicitor's trust accounts if he carries out work for that solicitor, other than—

(a) the auditing of any other accounts maintained by that solicitor on his own behalf or on behalf of other persons in connexion with his practice; and

(b) advisory or consulting duties consequential upon his function as an auditor, which may include the preparation of income tax returns for the solicitor in his private capacity.

8. An auditor is not qualified to audit any of the trust accounts of a solicitor if—

(a) he is, or at any time within two years before his appointment has been, engaged in keeping any of those trusts accounts;

- (b) a member of any firm of which he is a member is, or within two years before his appointment has been, engaged in keeping any of those trust accounts;
- (c) a member of his staff is engaged in keeping any of those trust accounts;
- (d) he is, or at any time within two years before his appointment has been, a clerk, servant or partner of the solicitor;
- (e) he is a person closely related to the solicitor by blood or marriage;
- (f) he is a solicitor in practice on his own account or in partnership; or
- (g) he is a clerk, servant or partner of another solicitor, whether in practice on his own account or in partnership.
9. (1) A solicitor who appoints an auditor to audit his trust accounts shall, within 14 days after that appointment—
- (a) notify the Council of the appointment; and
- (b) deposit with the Council the written consent of the auditor in or to the effect of Form 14.
- (2) An auditor who ceases for any reason to be employed, or to be qualified, to audit the trust accounts of a solicitor shall notify the Council within 14 days after that cessation.
10. (1) A solicitor shall not cease to employ an auditor with a view to engaging another auditor unless he first satisfies the Council, by such evidence as the Council requires in that particular case, that it is reasonable in the circumstances to do so.
- (2) Sub-rule (1) does not apply where an auditor resigns, dies, retires from practice or ceases to be qualified to audit the solicitor's trust accounts.
- (3) Where—
- (a) an auditor resigns, dies, retires from practice or ceases to be qualified to audit a solicitor's trust accounts; or
- (b) the employment of an auditor by a solicitor otherwise ceases,
- the solicitor shall appoint another auditor in his place within one month after that resignation, death, retirement or cessation, as the case may be.
- Part 4—Requirements of an Audit
11. A solicitor who receives trust money shall cause his trust accounts to be audited, and an auditor appointed to audit the trust accounts of that solicitor shall conduct the audit, in the manner prescribed by—
- (a) the Act and these Rules; and
- (b) in so far as they apply, the Statement of Auditing Standards and Statements of Auditing Practice issued jointly by the Australian Society of Accountants and the Institute of Chartered Accountants.
12. (1) In carrying out an audit under the Act, other than an audit under section 74, an auditor shall—
- (a) ascertain whether any trust bank accounts were kept by the solicitor during the period covered by the audit;
- (b) make test examinations of those trust bank accounts and any statements relating thereto during that period;
- (c) make test examinations of trust securities and investments and of the registers referred to in Rule 27;
- (d) make a comparison as at two or more days (one to be the audit date and the other or others to be a date or dates during the period covered by the audit selected by the auditor without notice to the solicitor) between—
- (i) the liabilities of the solicitor to his clients and to other persons in connexion with his practice as a solicitor as shown by his trust accounts; and
- (ii) the balance standing to the credit of his trust bank accounts; and
- (e) make such checks and examine such number of files representative of every part of the solicitor's practice as the auditor considers reasonable in the circumstances,
- to enable the auditor to express an opinion as to whether the solicitor has complied with the requirements of the Act and these Rules during the period covered by the audit.
- (2) On or within 14 days after the date or dates selected by the auditor for the making of the comparison referred to in paragraph (1) (d), the auditor shall, without notice to the solicitor, visit the solicitor's principal place of business and there examine the trust accounts and the books and papers relating thereto.
13. (1) An auditor shall report to the Council forthwith if at any time he—
- (a) considers that any trust accounting records of a solicitor are not being kept in such a manner as to enable them to be conveniently and properly audited;
- (b) becomes aware of a loss or deficiency of trust money or a failure by a solicitor to pay or account for any trust money;
- (c) becomes aware of any failure by a solicitor to comply with any of the provisions of the Act or these Rules; or
- (d) considers any other matter arising in the course of an audit should be communicated to the Council.
- (2) A report of a loss or deficiency under this Rule shall provide at least the following information:
- (a) the date on which it occurred;
- (b) the amount;
- (c) how it occurred; and
- (d) the date and manner of any restoration.
14. (1) Upon completion of the audit of a solicitor's trust accounts and not later than four months after the audit date, the auditor shall—
- (a) sign a certificate in or to the effect of the certificate in Form 1;
- (b) sign a report in or to the effect of Form 2;
- (c) lodge the originals thereof with the Secretary; and
- (d) forward signed copies thereof to the solicitor.
- (2) The auditor's lodging of the report and certificate with the Secretary shall be deemed to be a lodging thereof by the solicitor.

(3) Where two or more solicitors practise in partnership, it is sufficient compliance with this Rule in respect of each of them if one audit report is lodged with the Secretary—

- (a) naming each solicitor individually; and
- (b) covering not only the trust accounts of the partnership but also the trust accounts of the individual solicitors concerned.

15. The auditor's report on a solicitor's trust accounts for any year shall, at all times at which the office of the Institute is open for business, be available there for inspection by the auditor appointed to audit that solicitor's trust accounts for the next succeeding year.

Part 5—Special Duties of Solicitors

16. A solicitor who receives trust money shall upon reasonable request of a client during the course of or after the completion of a matter furnish to the client within a reasonable time after receiving such request a statement of account showing therein, or by reference to another statement of account, particulars of all trust moneys in connexion with the matter—

- (a) received by the solicitor from the client;
- (b) received by the solicitor from any other person;
- (c) disbursed by the solicitor; and
- (d) remaining undisbursed.

17. A solicitor may apply trust money for his own use if, but only if, he applies that money—

- (a) by way of re-imbusement of money already paid by him on behalf of the relevant client; or
- (b) for or towards payment of his cost for work which has been performed for that client and details of such costs, together with a statement of account showing the particulars referred to in Rule 16, have been delivered to that client.

18. (1) Within two months after the dissolution of a partnership, the solicitors who were partners at the time of dissolution shall, unless exempted by the Council pursuant to Rule 45, cause their trust accounts to be audited and reported upon pursuant to the Act and these Rules for the period beginning on 1 April immediately preceding the dissolution and ending on the date of dissolution.

(2) The provisions of the Act and these Rules apply to an audit and report pursuant to sub-rule (1) except that the date of dissolution shall be substituted for the audit date.

19. A solicitor shall keep all his trust accounts in such a manner as to disclose to his auditor the true position of the funds recorded therein and to enable them to be conveniently and properly audited.

20. Where a loss or deficiency occurs in any of his trust accounts, a solicitor shall forthwith notify his auditor.

21. Where a solicitor who has ceased to practise, or the personal representative of a solicitor who has died, is required by section 81A to cause to be lodged with the Secretary a statutory declaration in the prescribed form, that declaration shall be in or to the effect of Form 12 or 13 as the case may require.

22. Where during the year ending on the preceding audit date, a solicitor has not, whether as practising on his own account or as a member of a firm, held or received any trust money, that solicitor shall, not later than 21 April following, or within such extended time as the Council considers reasonable, deliver to the Secretary a Statutory Declaration in or to the effect of Form 3.

23. (1) Except where he has delivered a Statutory Declaration under Rule 21 or 22 to the Secretary in respect of the year ending on the preceding audit date a solicitor or his personal representative shall, not later than one month after that audit date, prepare, certify and sign a statement in quadruplicate in or to the effect of Form 1 setting forth in detail, as at that audit date—

- (a) the total of all trust money held by him, including any amount standing on deposit with the Institute in accordance with section 40;
- (b) the names of the trust bank accounts in which that trust money was lodged, the balance of those bank accounts and, where the bank balances were not in agreement with the solicitor's cash book balance, a statement reconciling those balances;
- (c) the names of all persons on whose behalf the solicitor was holding money in his trust bank accounts and the amount to the credit of each such person;
- (d) a list showing in respect of each ledger account balance which has remained unchanged during the preceding period of 12 months, the date of the last transaction and the reasons why no change has taken place; and
- (e) all current investments and securities contained in the register referred to in Rule 25, and shall deliver the original and one signed copy of that statement to his auditor and another signed copy to the Secretary.

(2) Where two or more solicitors practise in partnership, it is sufficient compliance with this Rule in respect of each of them if—

- (a) the statement contains—
 - (i) particulars of the whole of the trust accounts of the firm; and
 - (ii) separate particulars of any trust money of which any of those solicitors is a trustee apart from his partner or partners; and
- (b) the certificate in the statement is signed by each solicitor individually and by the auditor in respect of each of them.

24. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2), a solicitor shall not pay to the credit of an interest-bearing account or deposit any trust moneys held by him for more than one person.

(2) The provisions of sub-rule (1) shall not apply where—

- (a) a solicitor pays to the credit of an interest-bearing account or deposit any trust moneys held by him for two or more persons and has the written authority of those persons to do so; and

(b) the Council has determined, in respect of that interest-bearing account or deposit or interest-bearing accounts or deposits of a class which includes that interest-bearing account or deposit, that satisfactory arrangements exist to ascertain, at any time, the respective entitlements of those persons to the moneys to the credit of that account or deposit, and to the interest on those moneys.

(3) For the purposes of this rule, trust moneys held by a solicitor for two or more persons jointly shall be deemed to be held by him for one person.

25. (1) A solicitor shall keep a Register of Investments and Securities recording all investments and securities (other than securities required to be entered into the Mortgage Register pursuant to the Mortgage Register and Nominee Company Rules 1977) held by him, or over which he or his firm has or may exercise exclusive control, for or on behalf of or in trust for other persons.

(2) The Register shall include the following particulars:

- (a) The name of the person for whom the security is held or the investment is made;
- (b) The date upon which the security was received or the investment was made;
- (c) The amount of the security or investment;
- (d) The rate of interest and interest received;
- (e) Details (including the cheque book number or other means of identification) of the payment whereby the investment was made;
- (f) The description of the security or investment;
- (g) The date on which the security was delivered or the investment was redeemed; and
- (h) Details of disposal of the security or redemption of the investment.

(3) Each of the particulars mentioned in sub-rule (2) shall be entered in the Register as soon as possible.

26. (1) Where a solicitor receives any trust money and does not forthwith pay it into a trust bank account, he shall forthwith—

- (a) if the money is in the form of cash, pay the money in cash to the client or other person due to receive it and obtain and retain a proper receipt for it; and
- (b) if the money is in the form of a cheque or draft—
 - (i) where the cheque or draft is payable to the solicitor, properly endorse it; and
 - (ii) transmit it or hand it over to the client or other person due to receive it; and
- (c) make the following entries in a trust ledger account for the matter in respect of which that money was received and a Transit Register kept for that purpose:
 - (i) In the trust ledger—
 - (A) the date on which the money was received;
 - (B) from whom the money was received;
 - (C) the amount received (which may be recorded in the narration column only);

(D) the identity of the person to whom the money was paid;

(E) the date on which the money was paid, and;

(ii) In the Transit Register—

(A) the date on which the money was received;

(B) the name of the client and sufficient particulars to identify the matter in respect of which the money was received;

(C) from whom the money was received;

(D) whether the money was in the form of cash, a cheque or draft;

(E) in the case of a cheque or draft, the name of the drawer;

(F) the amount received;

(G) brief particulars sufficient to identify the relevant transaction and any purpose for which the money was received;

(H) the identity of the person to whom the money was paid; and

(I) the date on which the money was paid.

(2) In this Rule "Transit Register" means any book or other record established for the recording of the information required by sub-rule (1) (c) (ii) whether or not that book or other record is established solely for that purpose.

(3) Transactions to which this Rule applies are not subject to Rule 30 or 31.

27. The Register of Investments and Securities, Mortgage Register and Transit Register form part of a solicitor's trust accounts within the meaning of Rule 11 and are subject to audit accordingly.

28. A solicitor shall notify his auditor within 14 days after the opening of any new trust bank account.

29. A solicitor shall, at the end of every month, prepare a statement reconciling—

(a) the balance in his trust bank accounts with his cash books; and

(b) the balance in his trust ledgers (identified by name or code number) with the balance of his trust cash books, and shall retain the statement in an appropriate book.

Part 6—Trust Records

30. A solicitor shall, for each sum of trust money received by him, forthwith write a numbered receipt identified as his trust account receipt and specifying—

(a) the date the money was received;

(b) from whom the money was received;

(c) whether the receipt was by cash, cheque or draft;

(d) in the case of a cheque or draft, the name of the drawer;

(e) the amount of the receipt;

(f) the person for whose benefit the money was received; and

(g) brief particulars sufficient to identify the relevant transaction and any purpose for which the money was received,

and shall retain a legible duplicate identically numbered with the original in proper sequence and in a secure manner.

31. A solicitor shall, for each sum of trust money paid by him, complete his cheque duplicate or butt in relation to that payment specifying—

- (a) the date of the payment;
- (b) to whom the cheque is made payable and, in the case of a bank cheque, the name of the person entitled to the proceeds;
- (c) the amount of the payment;
- (d) the trust ledger account to which the payment is to be debited; and
- (e) brief particulars sufficient to identify the relevant transaction and the purpose for which the money was paid, and shall retain the cheque duplicate or butt in proper sequence and in a secure manner.

32. (1) A trust account cheque shall not be made payable to cash.

(2) All trust account cheques shall be crossed generally or specifically and marked "not negotiable".

33. Sufficient details shall be entered in the Cash Receipts Journal or backing sheet and also in the Cash Payments Journal or backing sheet to enable adequate details of the transactions to be posted into the trust ledger account.

34. A solicitor shall authorize in writing each transfer of money from one trust ledger account to another trust ledger account, and shall enter in a journal at least the following information:

- (a) the date of the transfer;
- (b) the trust ledger account from which the money is transferred;
- (c) the trust ledger account to which the money is transferred;
- (d) the amount transferred; and
- (e) the purpose of the transfer, and shall retain those journal entries in proper sequence and in a secure manner.

35. (1) A separate ledger account shall be opened in the name of each client for each matter to be conducted on behalf of that client and shall contain—

- (a) the name and address of the client;
- (b) the name of any other party or other sufficient particulars to identify the matter; and
- (c) a brief description of the nature of the matter.

(2) Sufficient details shall be posted into the trust ledger to enable the nature of the transactions to be clearly understood and shall include at least the following information:

- (a) the date of each transaction;
- (b) the name of the person from whom the moneys were received or to whom they were paid;
- (c) the purpose of the receipt or payment;
- (d) the amount received or paid;

(e) the cheque number, receipt number or transfer journal folio number; and

(f) the balance after each entry.

36. Trust account records shall be retained for not less than the following periods from the date of the final entry:

- (a) trust ledger accounts—15 years;
- (b) cash books and journals—7 years;
- (c) copy of receipts issued—7 years;
- (d) cheque duplicates or butts—7 years;
- (e) bank statements—7 years;
- (f) files relating to trust transactions or a microfilm of those files if the microfilm is made in accordance with a system approved by the Council—7 years; and
- (g) all registers—7 years.

37. Whenever an auditor so requires in the course of or for the purpose of an audit or examination of a solicitor's trust accounts, the solicitor shall produce to the auditor all books of receipts used and unused supplied to the solicitor.

38. A solicitor engaged in practice on his own behalf and not in partnership who ceases to carry on his practice shall forthwith destroy any unused trust account receipt forms in his possession.

39. The legal personal representative of a solicitor who dies whilst engaged in practice on his own behalf and not in partnership shall as soon as possible take charge of any unused trust account receipt forms and forthwith destroy them.

Part 7—Annual Practising Certificates

40. An application for a practising certificate shall be in or to the effect of Form 4, 5 or 6 as the case requires.

41. (1) Subject to sub-rule (2), the fee payable on an application for a practising certificate shall be equal to the subscription payable pursuant to section 24 in respect of membership of the applicant's class as defined by the Council.

(2) A member of the Institute who has paid his subscription to the Institute for the year to which or any part of which the practising certificate would relate need not pay a fee under sub-rule (1).

42. The declaration to be lodged with the Secretary pursuant to section 82 by a practitioner who has not previously practised, as a solicitor or who, having previously so practised, is not so practising at the time of the application shall be in or to the effect of Form 7.

43. (1) A practising certificate issued to a solicitor who intends to practise as a solicitor on his own account or in partnership with another solicitor or upon terms of sharing remuneration for any business with another practitioner shall be in or to the effect of Form 8.

(2) A practising certificate issued to a solicitor who intends to practise as an employee of another solicitor and not otherwise shall be in or to the effect of Form 9.

- (3) A practising certificate issued to a solicitor who—
 - (a) intends to be employed by a person other than a solicitor within the meaning of the Act and in the course of that employment to do any legal work for his employer; but

(b) does not intend to practise as an employee of another solicitor, shall be in or to the effect of Form 10.

(4) The Notice to be lodged with the Court by a practitioner who intends to appeal to the Court pursuant to section 87 shall be in or to the effect of Form 11.

Part 8—Notices and Forms

44. (1) A notice for the purposes of these Rules shall be in writing and signed by the person giving it.

(2) Any such notice to be given by a firm of solicitors may be signed by any member of the firm.

(3) Any such notice may be given—

(a) by personally serving it on the Secretary or the solicitor or any member of the firm of solicitors to whom it is addressed, as the case requires;

(b) by sending it by post to the Secretary addressed to him at the office of the Institute or to the solicitor or firm of solicitors to whom it is addressed at his or their principal place of business; or

(c) by leaving it with any person apparently of or over the age of 16 years at the office of the Institute or the principal place of business of the solicitor or firm of solicitors to whom it is addressed.

45. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, the Council may—

(a) exempt a solicitor from complying with any of the provisions of these Rules subject to such conditions as the Council may impose; and

(b) at any time vary those conditions or revoke that exemption.

(2) Where a solicitor applies to be exempted from complying with any of the provisions of these Rules, the Council may require that solicitor to furnish to it such information relating to the application as it may require.

POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION ACT 1978

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the ninth day of July 1985

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Governor of Victoria
Mrs Hogg | Mr McCutcheon

Whereas sub-section (1) of section 38 of the Post-Secondary Education Act 1978 provides that the Governor in Council on the recommendation of the Victorian Post-Secondary Education Commission may by Order published in the Government Gazette confer upon the governing body of a post-secondary education institution the power to award a degree or diploma specified in the Order.

And whereas sub-section (2) of section 38 of the said Act provides that the Governor in Council may in an Order under sub-section (1) make the power to award a specified degree or diploma subject to such terms and conditions as he thinks fit.

And whereas sub-section (3) of section 38 of the said Act provides that the Governor in Council shall not make an Order under this section unless he has received from the Commission a certificate to the effect that the course of study which leads to the degree is comparable in standard to those which lead to the award of a degree at a university.

And whereas the Victorian Post-Secondary Education Commission recommends that the institution specified in column 1 of the Schedule hereto be given power to award the degree specified in relation to that institution in column 2 of the said Schedule, subject to the condition that the institution does not award the degree to any person whose name is not specified in relation to that degree and that institution in column 3 of the said Schedule.

And whereas the Victorian Post-Secondary Education Commission has certified that the course of study undertaken by the person specified in column 3 of the Schedule hereto is comparable in standard to those which lead to the award of a degree at a university.

Now therefore His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof and on the recommendation of the Victorian Post-Secondary Education Commission doth by this Order confer upon the governing body of the institution specified in column 1 of the Schedule hereto power to award the degree specified in relation to that institution subject to the condition that the institution does not award the degree to any person whose name is not specified in relation to that degree and that institution in column 3 of the said Schedule.

SHIRE OF ELTHAM

Discontinuance of an unopened road reserve
Whereas the Council of the Shire of Eltham—

- (1) is of the opinion that part of the unopened road reserve set aside on L.P. 5729 Hurstbridge which is shown by hatching on the plan below is not reasonably required as a road for public use;
- (2) has consulted with the public statutory corporations referred to in section 528 (2) (e) of the Local Government Act 1958;
- (3) has, not less than one month after publishing a public notice in The Age newspaper and given written notice to registered proprietors of the land and the owners and occupiers of the land abutting or immediately adjacent to the road in accordance with section 528 (2) (a) (iii) of the Act; and
- (4) has noted there were no objections to the proposal in accordance with section 193A of the Act.

Now the Council does hereby direct that—

- (1) the road reserve which is shown by hatching on the plan below shall be discontinued on publication of this resolution in the Government Gazette; and
- (2) the land in the said road reserve shall vest in the municipality for municipal purposes.

Transport (Speed Trials) Regulations (No. 3) 1985

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the sixteenth day of July 1985

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Governor of Victoria
Mr Wilkes | Mr Cathie
Mr Jolly

IN PURSUANCE of the powers in that behalf conferred by the Transport Act 1983 and all other powers him thereunto enabling, His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said State, hereby makes the following Regulations:

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Transport (Speed Trials) Regulations (No. 3) 1985.

2. (1) These Regulations (other than Regulation 7) shall come into operation on the day on which they are made.

(2) Regulation 7 shall come into operation on Monday, 22 July 1985.

3. (1) The objective of these Regulations is to enable a trial of speed to be conducted on Leg of Mutton Road in the Shire of Beechworth on 21 July 1985.

(2) These Regulations are made under Section 93 (1) of the Transport Act 1983.

4. The provisions of the Transport (Road Traffic) Regulations 1984 shall not apply to a section of road within the Stanley Pine Plantation of the Department of Conservation Forests and Lands, Beechworth Forestry District within the Shire of Beechworth known as the Leg of Mutton Road between Wooden Gate Road in the West and Wooden Gate Road in the East on Sunday, 21 July 1985 between the hours of 10.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m.

5. (1) No person shall park or leave standing any vehicle on the roadway referred to in Regulation 4 on the day and during the period referred to in Regulation 4.

Penalty: 1½ penalty units.

(2) The provisions of this Regulation shall not apply to any vehicle used in connection with the conduct of trials of speed.

6. (1) Any member of the Police Force may move or cause to be moved any vehicle which is parked or left standing contrary to Regulation 5.

(2) A member of the Police Force acting under this Regulation may—

(a) enter any vehicle (whether locked or not) for the purpose of conveniently or expeditiously moving it; and

(b) park or place the vehicle in any convenient place.

7. These Regulations are revoked.

And the Honourable Thomas William Roper, Her Majesty's Minister for Transport for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
