Subordinate Legislation Act 1962

PROPOSED FORESTS (PART 1—FIRE PROTECTION) (AMENDMENT)
REGULATIONS 1988

Notice is given of the proposal to make regulations to be known as the Forests (Part 1—Fire Protection) (Amendment) Regulations 1988.

The reason for the proposed regulations is to prohibit camping in reserved forest in the north of the Township of Echuca and adjoining the Murray River, except where a special authorisation has been granted.

The objective of the proposed regulations is to enhance and preserve the land for day visitor use by prohibiting camping and the parking of caravans.

A regulatory impact statement has been prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1962. The results of the regulatory impact statement are that camping and the parking of caravans should be prohibited on the land to make the area more accessible to day visitors. Regulations are necessary to prohibit camping.

Copies of the regulatory impact statement and plans showing the area to be covered by these regulations are available from the Conservation, Forests and Lands Bendigo Regional Office, 31 McKenzie Street, Bendigo, tel: (054) 43 8911; Conservation, Forests and Lands Office, 225 Pakenham Street, Echuca, tel: (054) 82 4493; and Mr F. Forte, Department of Conservation, Forests and Lands, 5/250 Victoria Parade, East Melbourne, tel: 651 4588.

Comments and submissions are invited and will be received up to 21 days from the publication of this advertisement.

POLICE AMENDMENT REGULATIONS 1988

Under the provisions of the Subordinate Legislation Act, the Ministry for Police and Emergency Services invites comments from members of the public on the proposed Police (Amendment) Regulations 1988. The regulations are concerned with the appointment of protective services officers for the protection of certain persons and places of public importance.

The objectives of the regulations are:

In relation to the appointment of officers, to—prescribe the criteria to be used in selecting for appointment persons as protective services officers; and:

In relation to the discipline of officers, to—prescribe a disciplinary code.

A regulatory impact statement has been prepared indicating that the benefit of making the regulations is that the community will have, and may have confidence in, an effective, efficient and co-ordinated workforce that is adequately trained and disciplined to implement Government policy concerning the protection of persons holding certain official or public offices, and the protection of certain places of public importance.

Copies of the regulatory impact statement and the regulations are available from the Ministry for Police and Emergency Services, Room 12, Ground Floor, Old Treasury Building, Spring Street, Melbourne 3000, or by telephoning 651 6121.

Comments, in writing, should be received at the Ministry within 3 weeks from today.
