EXEMPTION

Application No. 2 of 1988

On 6 May and 3 June 1988, the Equal Opportunity Board considered an application made under section 40 (1) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 by Healthsharing Women for an exemption from the provisions of the Act to enable Healthsharing Women to advertise for and appoint women only in the management and provision of a statewide women's health information service.

The Board had regard to the applicant's solicitors' submission which informed the Board that—

- (i) in 1985 the Victorian Minister for Health established a women's health policy working party to investigate women's health issues and to recommend ways to improve health services for women;
- (ii) the working party prepared a discussion paper and conducted a series of public meetings throughout Victoria from December 1985 to February 1986, met with sixteen (16) women's community groups, met with eighteen (18) Government and quasi-Government agencies, and conferred extensively with women's health organisations in South Australia and New South Wales;
- (iii) the working party produced an interim report in 1986 and its final report in August 1987;
- (iv) the working party concluded that there is a recognised need for women to have adequate information about their bodies and that such a need is not being met by the existing sources of health information, especially in regard to particularly disadvantaged groups, including non-English speaking and Aboriginal women, women living outside metropolitan or regional centres, elderly, disabled and adolescent women; and determined that the exemption requested was desirable to enable the applicant to establish a women's health information service to provide information to women on health issues of particular concern to women.

The Board hereby grants an exemption from the operation of section 21 (1) (a) and (c) and section 59 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 to permit Healthsharing Women to advertise for and appoint women to the following positions with Healthsharing Women's Health Information Service:

1. Co-ordinator;
2. Library/Publications Officer;

Victoria Government Gazette

3. Administrative Assistant—Finance;
4. Administrative Assistant—Records;
5. Ethnic Community Education Officer;
6. Education and Training Officer—2 positions;
7. Research and Information Analyst—2 positions.

This exemption shall remain in force until 3 June 1989

I.R.C. Case No. 88/0973

Following a reference to the Industrial Relations Commission of Victoria of claims by various health industry unions for a 4 per cent Second Tier increase in various Non-Government agencies funded by Community Services Victoria the following Awards were subject to a decision made by the Commission on 13 May 1988.

Day Child Care Workers; Health Professional Services; Hospital Administrative Officers; Hospital and Benevolent Homes; Hospital Scientists; Mothercraft Nurses; Psychologists; Registered Nurses; Residential Child Care Workers; and Social and Community Services.

In that decision the Commission stated, amongst other things, that it approved an initial increase of 2 per cent in rates of pay to operate from the beginning of the first pay period to commence on or after 13 May 1988.

The Commission approved a further 2 per cent increase which is to operate from the beginning of the first pay period to commence on or after 1 July 1988 subject to sufficient progress being made in relation to the agreement between the parties.
