The Freedom of Information Act, in particular:

- (a) examination of
- whether certain statutory officers are being adversely affected in the proper performance of their public duties by the accessibility of the documents of their agencies, and
  - whether there should be provision for exemption of agencies from the application of the Act and if so, which agencies,
- (b) problems posed by voluminous and expensive applications and in particular whether limits need to be placed on such applications and especially
- whether access charges should be related to the cost of providing that access
  - whether members of Parliament should continue to have free access,
  - whether the Act should provide a power to agencies to limit unreasonably voluminous requests, and
  - the extent to which departmental priorities are being affected by Freedom of Information requests including relevant comparisons with the Commonwealth Freedom of Information Act,
- (c) consideration of the means to preserve Cabinet confidentiality and to safeguard the confidentiality of working and other documents leading up to or forming part of the Cabinet process to ensure effective Government administration, and
- (d) consideration of the interrelationship between the Freedom of Information Act and the Public Records Act for access to public records and in particular, the introduction of a general open access right for all non-personal documents based on the ten-year time limit referred to in section 28 (2) of the Freedom of Information Act.

CITY OF ESSENDON

Hilda, Gordon and Lawson Streets, Essendon
R.O.W. No. 214

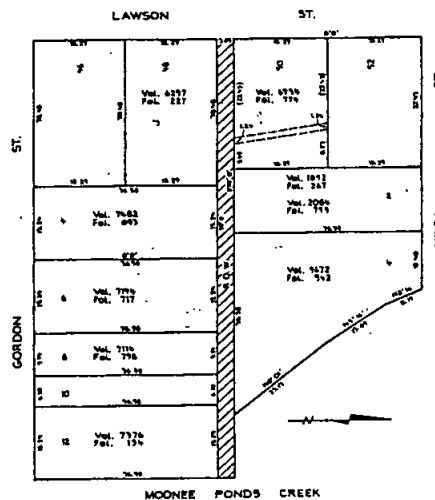

Whereas it is provided in section 528 (2) (a) of the Local Government Act 1958, that where a road (whether or not a public highway but not being a road set out on land of the Crown) or any part thereof is not required for public use of the Council of the municipality in which such road is situated made not less than one month after publishing in a newspaper generally circulating in the district and posting to the registered proprietor (if any) of the land and to the owners and occupiers (if any) of lands abutting or immediately adjacent to the road notice of intention to pass such a resolution may by resolution published in the Government Gazette direct that such a road or part shall be discontinued and thereupon such road or part shall be discontinued accordingly.

And whereas the Council of the City of Essendon on 30 November 1987 resolved that the road be discontinued and not less than one month previously has published in a newspaper generally circulating in the district and posted to the registered proprietors of the land in the roads and to the owners and occupiers of lands abutting or immediately adjacent to the roads notice of intention to make such a resolution.

Now therefore the Mayor, Councillors and Citizens of the City of Essendon by resolution dated 30 November 1987 hereby directs:

- (a) that the said road which is shown by hatching on the plan hereunder, shall be discontinued;
- (b) that notwithstanding such discontinuance the Melbourne and Metropolitan Board of Works and the Mayor, Councillors and Citizens of the City of Essendon shall continue to have and possess the same right, title, power, authority or interest in or in relation to the whole of the land shown by hatching on the said plan as they had or possessed prior to such discontinuance with respect to or in connection with any drains or pipes laid or erected in, on or over such land for the purposes of drainage or sewerage; and
- (c) that, subject to any such right, title, power, authority or interest the land in the said roads may be sold by the Council of the City of Essendon by agreement.
