Part 3—Objects of the Institute

301. The objects of the Institute are:

- (a) To serve the community by providing and promoting opportunities in post-secondary education;
  - (i) in all such fields of study as may from time to time be prescribed by the Council including without limiting the generality of the foregoing professional business, technical, technological, scientific artistic and liberal education; and
  - (ii) in such a way that the spirit of enquiry is fostered and opportunities are given to assist, by research and other means the advancement of knowledge and its practical application; and
  - (iii) so that post-secondary education can be seen to satisfy individual aspirations and the needs of the community;
- (b) To confer such degrees, diplomas, certificates and other awards as the Council shall from time to time determine.
- (c) To provide to members of the community such other services related to education, research and training as the Council thinks fit.
- (d) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

Part 4—Membership of Council

401. Council consists of twenty-two members.
402. The membership of Council is as follows:
- (a) The Director as a member ex officio; and
  - (b) One person appointed by the Minister administering the Act; and
  - (c) Six persons associated with or having a special interest in post-secondary education and its relationship with industry, commerce, government, professional bodies, local groups, trade unions, graduates of the Institute or any other identifiable groups relevant to the activities of the Institute; appointed by co-option by the Council; and

- (d) Six persons associated with or having an interest in post-secondary education and its relationship with science, technology, commerce, government, industry, trade unions, the arts, professional bodies, teaching or the community appointed by the Governor in Council; and
- (e) Two members of the academic staff elected by the academic staff in a manner prescribed; and
- (f) Two members of the general staff elected by the general staff and other staff at the Institute in a manner prescribed; and
- (g) Two students elected by the students in a manner prescribed; and
- (h) Two members of the Academic Board elected by the members of that Board in a manner determined by the Board.

403. The members appointed under clause 402 (c) and 402 (d) must include at least one from each area in which a campus of the Institute is established who by way of residence business or employment has an interest in the area.

404. No member of the academic staff or general staff or a student is eligible to be a member pursuant to clause 402 (b) or 402 (c) or 402 (d).

405. Members appointed by the Governor in Council may be removed by the Governor in Council.

406. A member appointed by the Minister administering the Act may be removed by that Minister.

407. Subject to clause 408 members of the Council (other than the Director) hold office—

- (a) for their first appointment to the Council a term of three years and thereafter for a term of three years in the case of members appointed pursuant to clauses 402 (b) and 402 (c) and 402 (d);
- (b) for a term of two years in the case of members elected pursuant to clause 402 (e) or 402 (f) or 402 (h); and
- (c) for a term of one year in the case of members elected pursuant to clause 402 (g).

408. The terms of office may be varied as follows:

- (a) In relation to members appointed pursuant to clause 402 (c) or 402 (d) the appointor may prescribe at the time of appointment that one or more of the members under each category holds office for a term of either one or two years;

- (b) In relation to members elected pursuant to clause 402 (e) or 402 (f) or 402 (h) the Council may require that one or more members in each category holds office for a term of one year;
- (c) In this part the reduced term of office of members elected or appointed in accordance with clause 407 (a) or 407 (b) is called a limited term of office; and
- (d) No member may serve two successive limited terms of office.

409. A member of Council is eligible to be re-appointed or re-elected (as the case may be) but no members may be elected or appointed for more than three successive terms.

410. If a member of the Council (other than the Director)—

- (a) gives written notice of resignation to the President of the Council or in the case of the President to the Director; or
- (b) becomes of unsound mind or becomes a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health; or
- (c) becomes bankrupt; or
- (d) is convicted of any indictable offence; or
- (e) without leave of absence previously granted by the Council is absent from four successive scheduled meetings of the Council; or
- (f) ceases to hold the qualification required for such member becoming or being a member of the Council; or
- (g) is properly removed from office in accordance with this Order; or
- (h) being a member appointed under clause 402 (b) or 402 (c) or 402 (d) becomes a member of academic staff, general staff or a student of the Institute; or
- (i) dies—

the office of such member becomes vacant and the vacancy is a casual vacancy.

411. Every vacancy in the office of any appointed or elected member of the Council arising otherwise than by the expiration of the term for which the member was appointed or elected shall be deemed a casual vacancy.

412. Elections of members must be conducted in accordance with the regulations which may provide for voting by post or by personal ballot and for optional preferential voting.

413. Elections to fill a vacancy caused by the retirement or resignation of an elected member shall be conducted to ensure as far as possible that the office of the elected member is filled within one month from the date of retirement or resignation of that elected member.

414. In the case where—

- (a) at any election of elective members of the Council any vacancy remains unfilled;
- (b) any election of elective members of the Council should have been held is not held.

The vacancies which should have been filled and are not filled shall each be considered to be casual vacancies and the members eventually elected to fill the vacancies shall be entitled to continue in office as if elected at the date of the original election.

415. (a) Any casual vacancy in the office of an elected or appointed member of Council must be filled by the election or appointment as the case may be of an eligible person but if any casual vacancy occurs in the three months before the expiration of a term of office the vacancy need not be filled for the remainder of such term;

(b) The member so elected or appointed shall have the like category (if any) as the member whose office has become vacant.

(c) The election or appointment shall be made by the person or body of persons by whom or which the member whose office has become vacant was elected or appointed.

(d) a member of the Council elected or appointed to fill a casual vacancy holds office during the residue of the term of the member replaced.

(e) For the purpose of clause 408 a limited term served by a member elected or appointed to fill a casual vacancy is not to be considered a term of office.

(f) If at any election for membership of the Council a vacancy is not filled or where an election for membership of the Council that should have been held is not held the vacancy which should have been filled is a casual vacancy.

416. Where for any reason the Council appoints a person to be Acting Director the person so appointed shall while holding such office be entitled to attend and vote at any meeting of the Council and for that purpose shall have all the rights and privileges of the Director.

417. Any member who reaches the age of 72 years during a period of office is not eligible for re-appointment or re-election for another term.

Part 5—Transitional Provisions

501. The governing body of the Institute in existence immediately prior to the making of this Order continues in existence and is to manage and control the Institute until the first meeting of the Council.

502. All resolutions passed by the governing body of the Institute in existence immediately prior to the making of this Order and in effect immediately prior to this Order continue in effect according to their tenor unless revoked or varied by the Council.

Part 6—Proceedings of Council

601. (1) At its first meeting the Council is to be constituted and to proceed in accordance with this clause.

(2) The members of the first meeting must be made up of members appointed by the Governor in Council and by the Minister administering the Act and if appointed the Chief Executive Officer of the Council.

(3) The Chairperson of the first meeting will be elected by the members.

(4) The first meeting must arrange for election of members pursuant to clauses 402 (e) and 402 (f) and 402 (g) and 402 (h).

602. (1) At its second meeting the Council is to be constituted and to proceed in accordance with this clause.

(2) The members at the second meeting must be made up of members eligible to attend the first meeting plus elected members.

(3) The Chairperson of the second meeting will be elected by the members.

(4) The second meeting must appoint the first members of the Council to be appointed pursuant to clause 402 (c).

603. For the first and second meetings of Council a quorum is 75 per cent of the number of members eligible to attend such meetings.

604. Subject to clauses 601, 602 and 603 the following provisions apply to Council—

- (a) the members of the Council must every two years elect one member from members appointed pursuant to clauses 402 (b) or 402 (c) or 402 (d) to be the President;
- (b) the members of the Council must every two years elect two of their members appointed pursuant to clauses 402 (b) or 402 (c) or 402 (d) to be Vice Presidents. The members of the Council will designate one of the two Vice Presidents to be the senior Vice President;
- (c) the term of office for the President and Vice Presidents is two years;
- (d) no member is eligible to serve in the same office for more than three consecutive terms;
- (e) in the absence of the President or during any vacancy in the office of the President or during the inability of the President to act the senior Vice President has all the powers and duties of the President;

- (f) in the absence of the President and senior Vice President or during the vacancies in the Office of the President and senior Vice President or during the inability of both the President or senior Vice President to act, the Vice President has all the powers and duties of the President;
- (g) in the absence from the Council meeting of the President and the senior Vice President and the Vice President the Council must elect one of its members appointed pursuant to clauses 402 (b) and 402 (c) and 402 (d) to act as chairperson of the meeting;
- (h) no questions shall be decided at a meeting unless more than half of the total number of members of Council are present of whom at least half the number are members appointed pursuant to clauses 402 (b) and 402 (c) and 402 (d), except that if the number of members is less than fifteen the Council may meet only to appoint a person or persons to fill a vacancy or vacancies;
- (i) the Council must meet at least six times in each year;
- (j) except as otherwise provided in this Order all questions arising at a meeting of the Council must be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting. The member presiding at the meeting has a deliberative vote and in the event of an equality of votes on any question the member presiding has a second or casting vote;
- (k) no member of the Council may vote by proxy;
- (l) no motion to make, revoke or amend any Regulation may be put at any meeting of Council unless the notice of intentions so to move and the contents of the proposal are circulated in writing to members of the Council at least seven clear days prior to the meeting but amendments arising out of the debate may be allowed at the discretion of the Council;
- (m) a decision of the Council or of a Committee of the Council is not invalid by reason only of a defect or irregularity in the appointment or election of a member or in the event of a vacancy on the Council;
- (n) any person who has a pecuniary interest, whether directly or indirectly, in any business of the Council or of any Committee of the Council of which such a person is a member must declare the nature of any personal interest on every occasion when the business is being considered at a meeting at which such person is present;

- (o) no person is entitled to vote at a meeting of the Council or any committee thereof on any subject in which that person holds a direct pecuniary interest but nothing in this clause disqualifies a staff member who is a member of Council or of a Committee of Council from voting on matters affecting the general terms and conditions of the staff of the Institute;
- (p) to the extent permitted by law members of the Council are entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Institute for any liability for loss or damage arising out of the bona fide execution or attempted execution or non-execution of the duties, powers, authorities and discretions conferred or imposed upon them under this Order. Members of Council are not entitled to be indemnified for liability incurred as a result of their fraudulent or reckless acts or omissions;
- (q) subject to this Order Council may regulate its own proceedings;
- (r) meetings of Council must be open to the public except where otherwise provided by the Council;
- (s) fifteen members of Council of whom at least half are members appointed pursuant to clauses 402 (b) and 402 (c) and 402 (d) constitutes a quorum at any meeting other than a meeting held solely to fill a vacancy for a member appointed by Council where not less than 60 per cent of the total members of Council at that time elected or appointed constitutes a quorum.

Part 7—Powers of Council

701. Subject to the Act the Council has the entire management and control of the affairs concerns and property of the Institute and without limiting the generality of the foregoing has the power to—

- (a) determine the educational programs to be offered by the Institute and conduct each educational program in such manner and in such place or places it sees fit;
- (b) validate the academic standard and content of the educational programs conducted by the Institute;

NOTICE OF AMENDMENT TO A
PLANNING SCHEME

The City of Nunawading has prepared Amendment No. L9 to the Local Section of the Nunawading Planning Scheme.

This amendment replaces and causes the abandonment of Amendment No. RL 125. This Amendment (L9) in no way alters the content or meaning of the previous Amendment (RL 125) however some minor corrections have been necessary to conform with the new format of the recently introduced "Plain English" version of the Nunawading Planning Scheme.

The amendment affects land to the south of the existing Blackburn Station shopping centre fronting South Parade in the City of Nunawading.

The amendment proposes to change the Planning Scheme by:

- (i) Rezoning that part of the site presently included in a Residential C zone to Restricted Business zone;
- (ii) Closing Gardenia Street between South Parade and the southern most boundaries of numbers 14 and 18 Gardenia Street;
- (iii) Closing the Right of Way adjoining the western most boundaries of numbers 8, 10 and 12 Gardenia Street, and
- (iv) Closing the Right of Way adjoining the eastern most boundaries of: part of number 1 Gardenia Street to a point opposite the southern most boundary of number 20c Blackburn Road, numbers 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13 and part of number 15 Gardenia Street to a point opposite the southern most boundary of number 30 Blackburn Road.

The amendment can be inspected at City of Nunawading, Civic Centre, 379 Whitehorse Road, Nunawading 3131; Ministry for Planning and Environment, The Oldfleet Buildings, 477 Collins Street, Melbourne 3000; The Eastern Office, Ministry for Planning and Environment, Suite 4, 38-40 Prospect Street, Box Hill 3128.

Please note that all submissions made with respect to the abandoned Amendment No. RL 125 will be accepted by the Council as legitimate submissions to Amendment L9 (unless otherwise notified).

Submissions about the amendment must be sent to City of Nunawading, Civic Centre, 379 Whitehorse Road, Nunawading 3131 by 22 December 1989.
