Department of Labour
OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY
(ISSUE RESOLUTION) REGULATIONS
1989

In accordance with the provisions of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1962, notice is given of the proposed Regulations for the resolution of health and safety issues, pursuant to section 26 (1) and section 59 of the Occupational Health and Safety Act 1985.

A Regulatory Impact Statement has been prepared as required by the Subordinate Legislation Act 1962.

The reason for the proposed Regulations is to prescribe a procedure for resolving health and safety issues which will apply to all Victorian workplaces where there is no agreed procedure under section 26 (1) of the Occupational Health and Safety Act 1985.

The objective of the proposed Regulations is to prescribe a procedure for the effective resolution at workplaces of health and safety issues as they arise, where there is no agreed procedure for resolution.

The Regulatory Impact Statement provides a summary of the proposed Regulations and outlines the costs and benefits for industry, employees and Government of the proposed Regulations and alternative options. It concludes that the proposed Regulations will be the most effective and least costly means for ensuring an issue resolution procedure is available in all workplaces.

Comments and submissions are invited from interested parties. Copies of the Regulatory Impact Statement may be obtained by writing to Ms Clare Gallagher, Workplace Health and Safety Branch, Department of Labour, Level 14, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne, Vic. 3000 or by phoning the Department on 655 6060 during business hours.
