LEGAL PROFESSION PRACTICE
(ADMISSION FEE) REGULATIONS 1992
Regulatory Impact Statement

A Regulatory Impact Statement has been prepared in relation to the proposed Legal Profession Practice (Admission Fee) Regulations 1992.

The proposed regulations prescribe the admission to practise fee to be paid before a person is admitted to practise as a barrister and solicitor of the Supreme Court of Victoria.

The major objective of the proposed regulations is to achieve a better balance between the contributions made by the Government and users of the Library of the Supreme Court towards its maintenance and enhancement. The secondary objective is to restore the admission to practise fee to present day money value, in line with historical precedents and increases in the CPI since the fee was last fixed in 1983.

The proposed regulations provide for the imposition of an admission to practise fee of $500.

The alternative to the proposed regulations is to charge all members of the legal profession an annual fee.

The alternative to the proposed regulations would have the advantage of spreading the contribution made by the legal profession to Library of the Supreme Court across all its members on an annual basis, instead of levying an admission to practise fee on new entrants. The disadvantages of the alternative are that further amending legislation and additional administrative and accounting systems which would not result in any benefit to the Library or its users and are not considered to be cost-effective, would be required to implement it.

The Regulatory Impact Statement concludes that the proposed regulations are the best means of achieving the stated objectives.

Public comments and submissions on the Regulatory Impact Statement are invited. Copies of the Regulatory Impact Statement may be obtained by telephoning Ms Valda Fearn (03) 603 4535 or Mr Lindsay Gould (03) 603 4363.

Written submissions on the Regulatory Impact Statement and accompanying regulations will be received up to 21 days from the date of publication of this notice. All submissions will be treated as public documents.

Submissions should be addressed to Mr Lindsay Gould, Courts Management Division, Attorney-General's Department, Suite D, Level 20, 200 Queen Street, Melbourne 3000.
