EXEMPTION
Application No. 54 of 1996

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal
constituted by the President pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by, "Leaside" Rotary House Inc.
to permit the applicant to advertise for and employ a part time female worker.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to permit the applicant to advertise for and employ a part time female worker.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal
noted:

- "Leaside" Rotary House and Program was Australia's first residential program for rehabilitation of male perpetrators of domestic violence.
- The Project worker and Counsellor when endeavouring to communicate with the partners of men on the course, frequently receive negative reactions from the victims when approached by a male worker.
- The applicant has obtained a grant from Lance Reichstein Charitable Foundation to employ a part time woman worker to answer request for information from partners of the men on the courses about legal options,

intervention orders, and counselling re
negotiations with men.

- This worker will liaise with partners of men, and enquire about the needs of the women and children, networking where necessary through the women's domestic violence network.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to the applicant to advertise for and employ a female doctor this exemption to remain in force until 11 December 1999.

CATE McKENZIE
President

EXEMPTION
Application No. 55 of 1996

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal
constituted by the President pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has
considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by, Sally Ryan, Manager on behalf of Brotherhood of St Laurence to permit the Applicant to exclude people under the age of 50 from accommodation at Millott
House.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is
satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an
exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to permit the applicant to exclude people under the age of 50 from accommodation at Millott House.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal
noted:

- The Brotherhood of St Laurence has provided Rooming House Accommodation to older, often frail men and women at Millott House since 1983.
- The older residents seek housing at this facility because of its security and the opportunity it gives to share their accommodation with people of a similar age group.
- The current residents range from the age of 50 to 89 and many are impaired, either physically by frailty, loss of sight and hearing, or mentally, by intellectual capacity.

- The Rooming House is co-located with funded age specific facilities; a hostel and Day Centre, both of which provide support and emergency assistance, as required, to the residents of Millott House.
- Many of the tenants have specifically sought accommodation that has been targeted at an older age group of financially disadvantaged people, because they are able to maintain their sense of security, independence and privacy, with this support.
- In the City of Yarra, there are a number of private and public rooming house beds including over 300 rooms managed by the Yarra Community Housing Group. This organisation is auspiced by the Brotherhood of St Laurence and provides rooming house accommodation to all age groups.
- Millott House was established to provide rooming house accommodation to older people on low incomes who may have few or no social support and family networks. It is one of a range of services operated by the Brotherhood of St Laurence to give accommodation choices to older people.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to the applicant to exclude people under the age of 50 from accommodation at Millott House, this exemption is to remain in force until 11 December 1999.

PORT PHILLIP CITY COUNCIL Notice of Making a Local Law Entitled Port Phillip City Council Streets Roads and Other Public Places (Amendment No. 2) Local Law

The Port Phillip City Council Law made a Local Law entitled as above.

The purpose (objective) was to amend the Port Phillip City Council Streets Roads and Other Public Places Local Law No. 4 (the principal Local Law) to allow greater flexibility in the placement on footpaths of outdoor advertising and other signs and display of goods for sale and outdoor eating facilities in accordance with guidelines being developed by Council.

The general purport of the amending Local Law was to broaden the scope of Clauses L8.1 (5) and L8.2 (2) (b) and standards S13 and S14 as to the locations in which a person may display advertising signs, goods for sale and outdoor eating facilities with a view to enhancing the streetscape, beautifying the area and adding flexibility to the areas in which such facilities may be located.

The amendment ensures that a clear pedestrian access along the footpath is maintained but will allow authorised officers of Council to exercise discretion concerning permitted location of facilities including location outside adjacent shop occupiers premises where consented to by those adjacent shop occupiers. The amendment will also introduce a definition of Dining Zone in relation to footpaths.

A copy of the Local Law may be inspected at the Council offices at the corner of Carlisle Street and Brighton Road, St Kilda or South Melbourne Town Hall, Bank Street, South Melbourne. A copy of the original Local Law may also be inspected at these offices.

Application No. 53 of 1996

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Mr Bob Anderson, Executive Officer, on behalf of the Moonee Valley YMCA which manages the Ascot Vale Sports and Fitness Centre, a Centre owned by the Moonee Valley City Council.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application and hearing Mr Anderson, the applicant's Executive Officer, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to permit the applicant to establish an additional modified gymnasium area at the Centre and to enable that area and one of the sauna and spa areas associated with it, to operate at certain times as a female only area and at other times as a male only area. This service is additional to the "mixed" services already operated by the applicant at the Centre, for both males and females.

This exemption is granted for the reasons stated by the Tribunal in its reasons for decision dated 9 December 1996. A copy of those reasons for decision is available from the Registrar of the Anti-Discrimination Tribunal.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to the applicant to permit the applicant to establish an additional modified gymnasium area at the Centre and to enable that area and one of the sauna and spa areas associated with it, to operate at certain times as a female only area and at other times as a male only area.
