EXEMPTION
Application No. 3 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Hamilton Jones Koller Pty Ltd to advertise for legal practitioners to fill positions in respect of which employers who are clients of the Applicant have authorised the Applicant to organise recruitment and to include in those advertisements requirements for minimum levels of legal experience (however expressed), if the advertisement states that the prospective employer has certified that he or she genuinely believes that the nature of the position reasonably requires the person who fills it to have that minimum level of experience.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42 and 195 of the Act to permit the applicants to advertise for legal practitioners to fill positions in respect of which employers who are clients of the Applicant have authorised the Applicant to organise recruitment and to include in those advertisements requirements for minimum levels of legal experience (however expressed), if the advertisement states that the prospective employer has certified that he or she genuinely believes that the nature of the position reasonably requires the person who fills it to have that minimum level of experience.

In accordance with its reasons for decision dated 12 May 1997, the Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to advertise for legal practitioners to fill positions in respect of which employers who are clients of the Applicant have authorised the Applicant to organise recruitment and to include in those advertisements requirements for minimum levels of legal experience (however expressed), if the advertisement states that the prospective employer has certified that he or she genuinely believes that the nature of the position reasonably requires the person who fills it to have that minimum level of experience. This exemption is to remain in force until 14 May 2000.

President

EXEMPTION
Application No. 29 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("The Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by TKD Australian Taekwondo Inc. to enable the applicant to require female competitors aged 15 years and over in its Taekwondo competitions to provide to the applicant, before they compete, a medical certificate stating they are not pregnant and to exclude from those competitions female competitors who are unable to provide that medical certificate.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 60, 65 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to require female competitors aged 15 years and over in its Taekwondo competitions to provide to the Applicant, before they compete, a medical certificate stating they are not pregnant and to exclude from those competitions female competitors who are unable to provide that medical certificate.

In accordance with its Reasons for decision dated 9 May 1997 the Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 60, 65 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to require female competitors aged 15 years and over in its Taekwondo competitions to provide to the Applicant, before they compete, a medical certificate stating they are not pregnant and to exclude from those competitions female competitors who are unable to provide that medical certificate. This exemption does not apply to Ms Lisa Blackett in respect of her complaint lodged with the Equal Opportunity Commission, Reference Number 23-8204/5.

This exemption is for a period of three years. This exemption is to remain in force until 14 May 2000.

Note: Copy of the reasons for decision may be obtained upon application to the Registrar of the Anti-Discrimination Tribunal.
