CARDINIA SHIRE COUNCIL
Clink Road, Pakenham Upper
Bond Lane, Gembrook
Upper Grieve Road, Avonsleigh

Pursuant to Clause 9, Schedule 11 of the Local Government Act 1989 the Cardinia Shire Council has resolved to place permanent barriers on the above roads. These decisions have followed representations by local residents, the calling for submissions by Council and the consideration of submissions received.

CLINK ROAD

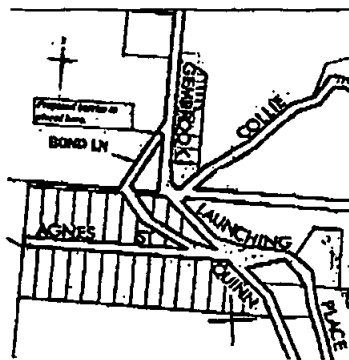

The proposed closure in a location to be identified by Council will include the provision of a locked gate and turning circle at the southern end and minor alignment improvements at the northern end. The lock on the gate will have keys linked to the Council's master key system which will allow all Emergency Services to have access.

BOND LANE

The proposed closure is at the northern end due to poor visibility and alignment at Launching Place Road. The proposal includes the provision of a locked gate, provision for pedestrian/horse access, earth mounds and a turning circle at the northern end.

The lock on the gate will have keys linked to the Council's master key system which will allow all Emergency Services to have access.

UPPER GRIEVE ROAD

The proposed closure is at the intersection of Upper Grieve Road and Belgrave Gembrook Road.

Under this proposal residents would exit via McNamara Road which has good sight distances at the Belgrave Gembrook Road. The proposal only involves the provision of a gate which is not proposed to lock, at least initially. If a lock is eventually placed it will have keys linked to the Council's master key system which will allow all Emergency Services to have access.

HUME PLANNING SCHEME
Notice of Amendment
Amendment L14

The Hume City Council has prepared Amendment L14 to the Hume Planning Scheme.

The amendment introduces the Industrial 3 Zone into the Local Section of the Hume Planning Scheme, and rezones approximately 13 hectares of land from Extractive Industry A to this new zone. The land is situated on the eastern side of the Tullamarine Freeway, adjacent to the JUHI fuel terminal and Cleanaway site, and opposite the main Melbourne Airport terminal complex. It comprises Lot 1 on Lodged Plan No. 91468, Parish of Tullamarine, County of Bourke.

The land is located in one of three main employment areas identified in the Greenvale and Attwood Strategy Plan. Access to the site is via a carriageway easement south of the Cleanaway site, connecting with Western Avenue, which Council ultimately intends to upgrade to the status of a Public Road.

Council's adopted strategy for this land is for industrial uses, preferably airport related, and comments submitted by the applicant from a range of outside authorities are generally in support of the proposal. The rezoning will be subject to a binding legal agreement ensuring that the final use and development of the land is in accordance with Council strategy, including the Greenvale and Attwood Strategy Plan, and, if required by servicing authorities, reservation of a rail and/or road corridor across the land to Melbourne Airport.

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("The Act") by People Matching Pty Ltd trading as Dinner for Six, to enable it to refuse to provide its services as an introduction agency to certain applicants and to ask certain questions of applicants in connection with that business.

Where the applicant can establish with documentary evidence that he or she meets the conditions under Subregulations 6.01 (5) and (5A) of the SIS Regulations, early release of benefits is allowed subject to the conditions of release under Item 105 of Schedule 1 of the SIS Regulations.

Compassionate Grounds

Where the applicant can establish with documentary evidence that he or she meets the conditions under Subregulation 6.19A of the SIS Regulations, early release of benefits is allowed subject to the conditions of release under Item 107 of Schedule 1 of the SIS Regulations and subject to the following qualifications—

- (a) for "Commissioner" substitute "Board" or "Parliamentary Trustee" as described in the relevant Act specified in Clause 3, and;
- (b) "Dependant" is as defined in the relevant Act specified in Clause 3.

Permanent Departure for Overseas

Early release of benefits is no longer permitted due to permanent departure overseas prior to age 55.

This Specified Standard overrides Regulation 11 (1) (a) (iii) (C) of the Occupational Superannuation Standards Regulations of the Specified Standards for Preservation dated 15 July 1997.

6. Application for early release of benefits

All applications for early release of benefits must be in a form approved by each governing body of Victorian public sector superannuation schemes established and maintained under an Act specified in Clause 3.

Early release under these Specified Standards should be limited to the applicant's vested benefit. For the purposes of these Specified Standards, the vested benefit is as follows—

Accumulation scheme—account balance at date of early release;

Defined benefit scheme—minimum benefit payable under the governing rules of the scheme.

10. Timeframe for processing applications

Applications should be processed within 15 working days.

11. Reduction of Accrued Benefits

Where membership continues, any early release of benefits under these Specified Standards should be indexed with the crediting rate of the Fund and adjusted against the applicant's final superannuation benefit upon exit from the Fund. Until then both member and employer contributions should continue as if no early release of benefit had occurred;

When a benefit is due, the member's entitlement should be calculated as if no early release had occurred, then the amount released early (plus interest) should be deducted from the benefit payment;

Where a pension is involved, the early released amount (plus interest) should be treated as a commutation.

Any income tax paid at the time of early release may need to be taken into consideration when the benefit is paid.
