EXEMPTION
Application No. 95 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Merrill Lee-Archer, Acting Principal, Badger Creek Primary School. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander to the position of Koorie Educator.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander to the position of Koorie Educator.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Federal funding for this position was established so that Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islanders could be appointed as Educators to meet the specific cultural needs of young Koorie students.
- The applicant's students need a strong Koorie role model which can be met through another Koorie. The applicant school has about 20 Koorie students attending the school.
- The teaching, understanding and relevance of Koorie culture can be best appreciated and transferred to the applicant's students by a Koorie.

- The role also involves home visits and encouraging Koorie parents to work along side the school to assist students in their individual needs.
- A Koorie will be better able to gain acceptance in the home situation and establish the relevant links between home and school.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander to the position of Koorie Educator, this exemption to remain in force until 26 November 2000.

EXEMPTION Application No. 96 of 1997

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 83 (5) (a) (ii) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by AQA Qualcare, a division of AQA Victoria Ltd (Australian Quadriplegic Association Victoria). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male attendant carer or female attendant carer as the need arises.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male attendant carer or female attendant carer as the need arises.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is a service provider of attendant care to people who are quadriplegic.
- The attendants work in the clients home and their work often includes providing intimate support during bladder and bowel actions and in areas of general hygiene.
- The majority of clients indicate they have a gender preference when seeking to employ attendants.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male attendant carer or female attendant carer as the need arises, this exemption to remain in force until 26 November 2000.
